CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Tiger home games must be made through the Clemson strategic communications & publicity office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system (SportsSystems.com/Clemson). Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will open two weeks prior to each game and will close at noon ET on Wednesday prior to each game.

For more information on credential requests for Memorial Stadium, contact Valerie Johnson via email at vjohns4@clemson.edu.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy is available at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson football or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the Clemson strategic communications & publicity office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

- 1) Each photographer is required to wear a photo vest.
- 2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at media will call outside Gate 10 (visitors tunnel). Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
- 3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west end zone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
- 4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
- 5) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
- 6) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests to speak with players, coaches and staff should be directed to Ross Taylor (rt5@clemson.edu) or a member of the strategic communications & publicity staff. Media members who reach out directly to players, coaches or staff without prior approval of Clemson staff may face suspension or revocation of credentials.

Dabo Swinney's weekly press conference is Tuesday in the Smart Family Media Center of the Clemson Athletic Branding Institute on the west end of the Poe Indoor Facility. The media interviews Swinney from 11 a.m. to approximately 11:45 a.m.

Select player interviews are Tuesday (11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.) and Wednesday (10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.) in the Smart Family Media Center. Contact Ross Taylor for player requests by the end of the day on Sunday.

WILL CALL

Media will call for the distribution of credentials is operated in two locations on gamedays, outside of Gate 16 on the south side of Memorial Stadium for those with press box credentials and outside Gate 10 by the visitors tunnel in the northwest corner for those with photo/video credentials. TIGER TIMELINE

Sept. 30, 1896 - A small crowd gathered in one of the barracks rooms and discussed the advisability of organizing a football association and to devise some means of getting a coach. The organization, known as the Clemson College Football Association, was perfected and the following officers elected: President Frank Tompkins, Secretary & Treasurer Charlie Gentry, Manager T.R. Vogel, Temporary Captain Reuben Hamilton. A committee of three was appointed to consult Prof. Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

Oct. 5, 1896 - Practice began on campus on a 50' x 200' field in front of the college.

Oct. 31, 1896 - Clemson played its first football game, defeating Furman 14-6 in Greenville, S.C. It was the first time that many of the Clemson players had seen a full-sized football gridiron. Charlie Gentry was credited with scoring the Tigers' first touchdown.

Nov. 21, 1896 - Clemson defeated Wofford 16-0. When the team arrived back on campus that night, the cadet corps along with faculty members led the team around in a buggy led by a torchlight procession and proceeded to go all over the campus. With this win, Clemson claimed the state title.

Nov. 10, 1897 - Clemson defeated South Carolina for the first time and won the school's second state championship. A total of 2,000 spectators witnessed the 18-6 triumph. Clemson took an early 4-0 lead when South Carolina's Lee Hagood fumbled on the Gamecock's 31-yard line and Clemson's William Brock caught the fumbled ball in the air and raced 30 yards for a touchdown.

Oct. 20, 1898 - The Tigers played their first home game against Bingham. Clemson won 55-0, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every PAT (11). R.T.V. Bowman, the man for whom the field at Clemson is named, was an assistant coach at that time with Clemson and helped referee the game.

Nov. 10, 1899 - The football association stood on a very weak financial basis. The organization could not even afford to hire a coach. W.M. Riggs agreed to coach the Tigers for free.

Dec. 8, 1899 - John Heisman was hired as head coach.

Oct. 22, 1900 - The Tigers defeated Wofford 21-0. Actually, Clemson scored many more points, but a pregame agreement between the two stated that every point Clemson scored after the first four touchdowns would not count. No one could keep an accurate count after Clemson scored its first 21 points after just six minutes elapsed. All touchdowns Clemson made were called back and the ball given to Wofford deep in Clemson territory on such penalties as running over a Wofford tackler.

Nov. 29, 1900 - Clemson's 35-0 win over Alabama allowed John Heisman's team to finish the year undefeated (6-0). It was Clemson's first undefeated team and was the only team to win all of the games in a season until the 1948 squad went 11-0. Clemson won the SIAA Championship, its first conference title.

Oct. 5, 1901 - Clemson opened the season with a 122-0 win over Guilford, the most points scored in Tiger history. They averaged 30 yards per play and a touchdown every minute and 26 seconds. The first half lasted 20 minutes while the second half lasted only 10 minutes. Legend has it that every man on the team scored a touchdown in the game.

Oct. 30, 1902 - Col. Charles S. Roller Jr., who was football coach of Furman, was the only referee for the Clemson-South Carolina game. Bronco Armstrong, a famous Yale player and official, was to be the umpire, but was in a railroad wreck on the way to Clemson and it was impossible for him to get to the game in time. Not a single penalty was called in the game. A riot between Tiger and Gamecock fans broke out the night after the game. Officials at both colleges called off the football series between the two schools. Clemson and South Carolina did not meet again in football until 1909.

Nov. 27, 1902 - Clemson played in the snow for the first time in a game against Tennessee. The Tigers won the game 11-0 and claimed the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association crown, their second league title in three years.

Oct. 10, 1903 - Clemson beat Georgia 29-0. In the first 10 minutes, Clemson fumbled the ball three times. After the game, the Georgia team made a deal with the Clemson team. They would give the Clemson team a bushel of apples for every point Clemson would defeat Georgia Tech above the score Clemson made against Georgia. The score turned out to be Clemson 73, Georgia Tech 0. Apples were plentiful around Clemson that winter - 44 bushels.

Oct. 17, 1903 - Clemson defeated Georgia Tech 73-0. Clemson rushed the ball 55 times for 615 yards, still a school record, while Tech ran the ball 35 times and collected 28 yards. The second half was shortened to 15 minutes.

Oct. 28, 1903 - The Tigers defeated NC State 24-0 in Columbia, S.C. at the fairgrounds. One incident that delayed the start was the fact that the sideline spectators in their eagerness to see each play crowded in front of the grandstand and on the field. Twenty-minute halves were played, because the field had to be given to the racing association at 12:45 p.m. Even the short halves could not be played out and the time limit was up when 16 minutes of the second half had been played. Heisman married Evelyn Barksdale in Columbia after the game.

Nov. 26, 1903 - One day after Georgia Tech's deadline for its offer had expired, John Heisman wired Georgia Tech President Lyman Hall that he would accept its offer of $2,250 per year plus 30 percent of net gate receipts at home games to coach its athletic teams.

Sept. 30, 1904 - Clemson began practice under new Head Coach Shack Shealy, who was at one time a great football player. He played varsity ball six years, four at Clemson and two at Iowa State. He is still the only Clemson graduate to serve as head coach of the Tiger football team.

Nov. 11, 1905 - The Clemson-Auburn game was called on account of darkness. Clemson won, 6-0.

Nov. 29, 1906 - Clemson's first forward pass occurred in a 10-0 win over Georgia Tech. Powell Lykes dropped back to kick, but instead made a forward pass of 30 yards to George Warren.

Sept. 28, 1907 - The cadets of Clemson College braved wind and rain at Bowman Field to witness the Tigers in their earliest season-opener to date. Clemson met Gordon on a muddy field. Clemson was playing under new Head Coach Frank Shaughnessy.

Nov. 4-9, 1907 - Clemson played three games within a week's time. Clemson lost to Auburn 12-0 on November 4 and lost to Georgia in Augusta, Ga. on November 7. The Tigers barely made it back in time to play Davidson at Clemson on November 9 and lost 10-6.

April 1, 1908 - Tiger football hopes of the 1908 season were shattered on this day, not by what happened in spring practice, but what 300 students did as a college prank on April Fools' Day. The cadets were expelled for removing a Civil War cannon from the town square of Pendleton, four miles down the road from campus, and bringing the cannon back to Clemson. Many of the football stars, as well as many future stars, were among those who were expelled.

Oct. 2, 1915 - Clemson dedicated Riggs Field prior to a 6-6 tie with Davidson. Clemson would play its football games at the facility through 1941. It is now the home of Clemson's soccer stadium.

Oct. 9, 1915 - The Tigers traveled to Knoxville, where they won fame by defeating the defending conference champion Tennessee, 3-0. Bill Harris drop-kicked a 20-yard field goal for the only score of the game in the fourth quarter. Tennessee was the defending champion of the SIAA.

Oct. 13, 1917 - Clemson downed Furman 38-0, as the Tigers' Stumpy Banks scored five touchdowns, a record that still stands today.

Nov. 16, 1918 - The University of South Carolina athletic authorities provided the use of their stadium to Clemson and The Citadel for their annual game. South Carolina was playing at Furman that day and the field was not going to be used by the Gamecocks. The game was played at Columbia because the military officials from both schools would not allow players to be absent from any military duties due to athletic events. Since the game was played in Columbia, both school's cadets and football teams were able to make the trip to Columbia and return to duty on time. Clemson's John O'Dell scored the game's only touchdown, as the Tigers won 7-0. Both teams made it back to their campuses before their passes expired.

Dec. 27, 1926 - Josh Cody was named head football coach at Clemson.

Sept. 19, 1928 - Clemson began this season with new uniforms. The Tigers wore a brilliant orange jersey for the first time, with black composition cloth stripes on the front with purple numbers.

Dec., 1928 - O.K. Pressley, a center, was named third-team All-American by the Newspaper Enterprise Association. He was Clemson's first All-American in any sport.

May 6, 1929 - Josh Cody, Clemson head coach, was presented with a new automobile that afternoon as a gift from alumni, faculty, students and friends of the college. A special collection was taken up to purchase the new Buick. The presentation ceremony was staged in front of Tillman Hall.

March 13, 1930 - Josh Cody signed a new contract to stay at Clemson through the 1932 season.

Oct. 17, 1930 - Maxcey Welch scored five touchdowns (all rushing) in Clemson's 75-0 win over Newberry. Welch and Stumpy Banks are the co-holders of that Clemson touchdown scoring record.

TIGER TIMELINE

Nov. 26, 1930 - Josh Cody announced that the Furman game the next day will be his final as head coach.

Nov. 27, 1930 - Clemson defeated Furman 12-7 at Furman to conclude the Tigers third straight eight-win season, the only eight-win seasons in Clemson history between 1896 and 1938. The 1930 Tigers concluded the season with an 8-2 record and posted four shutouts. In fact, only Tennessee and Florida scored over a touchdown against the Tigers in this season.

Nov. 29, 1930 - The Tiger student newspaper published an extra edition about Coach Cody, hoping to convince him to remain as coach. Cody had become a popular mentor because of his 29-11-1 record, including a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina, the only coach in Clemson history to have a perfect ledger against the Gamecocks (minimum four games).

Jan. 2, 1931 - After reconsidering his decision for over a month, Cody made his resignation final. He went on to be a football coach and men's basketball coach at Temple.

Jan. 17, 1931 - Jess Neely was named head football coach at Clemson. He was the second consecutive Vanderbilt graduate to coach the Tigers. Cody was a 1917 graduate of Vanderbilt and Neely graduated in 1923. In fact, eight of the nine Clemson head football coaches between 1931-98 were graduates of current SEC schools.

Oct. 16, 1931 - Clemson suffered a surprising 6-0 loss against The Citadel in a game played in Florence, S.C. After the game, Neely, Captain Frank Jervey and others met in a car outside the stadium to discuss ways Clemson could help its football program get back on track. The meeting started the ball rolling towards the establishment of the IPTAY Foundation. Clemson would score just three touchdowns and win one game during the 1931 season.

Oct. 14, 1933 - Clemson played at George Washington in a 0-0 tie. This was the first time Clemson played under the lights. Fans followed the game on a grid graph in Tillman Hall at the Clemson chapel. A grid graph was an electrical machine that was marked off like a football field. Lights were so arranged on the graph that every possible play was flashed on the board. The lineups of both teams were written on the sides and the man carrying the ball on each play had a light flashed by his name. Another light representing the runner moved along the board in the same direction and for the same distance as the runner.

Aug. 20, 1934 - IPTAY, the nation's first scholarship fundraising organization, was founded. Dr. Rupert Fike, a cancer specialist from Atlanta and Clemson class of 1908, wrote Jess Neely a letter documenting the formation of the organization. "Last night we had a little meeting out at my house and organized the IPTAY Club," Fike wrote. "The purpose (of IPTAY) shall be to provide financial support to the athletic department at Clemson and to assist in every other way possible to regain for Clemson the high athletic standing which rightfully belongs to her." The organization was first established as a secret organization and initial membership dues were set at $10 a year. Many had suggested that $50 be the minimum donation, but Fike's foresight thought it would be best to get as many supporters involved as possible, so he established the $10 minimum. The excitement about the organization carried over into the 1934 season and the Tigers ran to their first winning season since 1930. Clemson had gone 0-5-1 against Furman and South Carolina during those years, then defeated both teams in 1934.

Nov. 19, 1935 - Clemson held its first night football practice. Two powerful floodlights were installed at the practice fields. The Clemson coaches wanted more practice time with the players and that was the reason the lights were brought in. The extra practice did not pay off however, as Clemson lost its final game that year to Furman, 8-6.

Nov. 17, 1937 - Clemson defeated Florida in Gainesville by a 10-9 score. Don Willis scored Clemson's only TD of the game on a one-yard run that culminated a 65-yard drive on Clemson's opening possession. Later Clemson gave up a safety and a touchdown, so Florida led 9-7 heading into the fourth quarter. But, the Tigers drove 60 yards late in the game and Ben Pearson booted a 27-yard field goal to win the game. At the time, it gave Clemson a 4-4 record in 1937, but it proved to be a program builder, much as Clemson's win over South Carolina in 1980 did. The Tigers posted to a 22-2 record over a 26-game period that started with that win at Florida. Clemson's only losses in that 26-game period were to Tennessee in 1938 and Tulane in 1939. Tennessee ended the 1938 season with a 10-0 record and ranked second in the nation, while Tulane ended the 1939 season with an 8-0-1 mark and fifth in the country.

Nov. 5, 1938 - Clemson scored with big plays in a win over George Washington, 27-0. The Tigers scored three touchdowns on plays of at least 65 yards, the first time in history Clemson had scoring plays of that distance in the same game. Banks McFadden ran 70 yards for a score on the first Clemson play from scrimmage. Later, Shad Bryant scored on a 65-yard punt return and on a 65-yard run off a lateral. George Washington actually had more first downs, 15-13, yet lost by 27 points.

Sept. 23, 1939 - Banks McFadden ran 90 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 18-0 win over Presbyterian. It is still tied for the longest run in Clemson history. McFadden had a career high 173 yards in 15 attempts on this day.

Sept. 30, 1939 - Clemson suffered its only loss of the season to a revenge minded Tulane 11. The Tigers had beaten the Green Wave the previous year by a 13-10 score. This season, however, Tulane defeated Clemson 7-6. Despite the loss, it was a game that brought acclaim to Clemson for its ability to play so close with the team that would end the year ranked fifth in the nation. McFadden was all over the field on this day, throwing for Clemson's only touchdown and defending enemy passes from the secondary. His punting kept Tulane bottled up in their own territory. He had 12 punts for 504 yards, including a record six punts of at least 50 yards. Unfortunately, he was involved in what proved to be the game's deciding play, as his extra point attempt after Clemson's only touchdown was blocked.

Oct. 19, 1939 - Clemson outgained South Carolina 402-90 in a 27-0 win. Banks McFadden threw for 85 yards and rushed for 76 in just 14 attempts.

Oct. 26, 1939 - Clemson showed it was a deep enough team to win without All-American Banks McFadden, who missed the Navy game with an injury. Shad Bryant had a 40-yard run for a score in Clemson's 15-7 win at Annapolis.

Nov. 3, 1939 - Clemson won in the Washington, D.C. area for the second straight week, defeating George Washington, 13-6. Bryant had 127 yards rushing and scored Clemson's only touchdown. The game was played on a Friday evening.

Nov. 11, 1939 - McFadden completed just four passes against Wake Forest, but three were to Joe Blalock for 105 yards, the first 100-yard receiving game in Tiger history. It was the final home game for McFadden and the rest of the Tiger seniors.

Nov. 13, 1939 - Clemson was ranked in the AP poll for the first time. The Tigers beat Wake Forest 20-7 to improve to 6-1. Clemson had 33 poll points on that November 13 ranking and one first-place vote out of the 85 votes in the poll that week. Clemson remained in the top 20 over the next three weeks and each week Clemson had exactly one first-place vote. However, in the final poll, even though Clemson had run the table to finish 8-1 in the regular season, that individual failed to vote Clemson No. 1, as the Tigers did not have a first-place vote in the December 11 (final) poll.

Nov. 18, 1939 - Clemson won away from home for the fourth straight time, a 21-6 win over Rhodes. Banks McFadden and George Floyd combined for 126 yards rushing.

Nov. 25, 1939 - Clemson concluded its 8-1 regular season with a 14-3 victory over Furman. Shad Bryant ran for 94 yards and gained 75 more in punt returns. McFadden scored two touchdowns and had 10 punts for a 42-yard average, intercepted a pass and completed a pass.

Dec. 8, 1939 - Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Cotton Bowl. It was Clemson's first postseason bowl game appearance. Clemson did meet Cumberland in a postseason "Championship of the South" game in 1903, but it was not considered an established bowl.

Dec. 11, 1939 - Clemson ranked 12th in the final poll by the Associated Press, Clemson's first appearance in a final season AP poll. The Tigers had 112 poll points, just behind Boston College, who had 120.5 poll points for 11th place. Clemson would defeat Boston College in the Cotton Bowl, but the AP did not have a poll after the bowls. In fact, for whatever the reason, the AP did not have a final poll after the bowls until after the 1968 season. Thus, Clemson actually would have had a much higher ranking by today's standards if there would have been a poll in January 1940.

Dec. 15, 1939 - Banks McFadden was named a first-team All-American by AP and a third-team selection by UPI. He was the first Clemson player honored by the AP. Later that year he was named the Nation's Most Versatile Athlete for 1939. Earlier in the year he had led Clemson to the 1939 Southern Conference Championship in basketball, still the only postseason championship in Clemson history.

Jan. 1, 1940 - In Clemson's first bowl appearance, it defeated Boston College 6-3. Charlie Timmons scored the game's lone touchdown from two yards out and rushed for 115 yards. Banks McFadden keyed the defense with four pass deflections of Boston College passes and he also averaged 43 yards per punt. Boston College drove to the Clemson eight with three minutes left, but Shad Bryant and McFadden knocked away third and fourth-down passes to save the day for the Tigers. "Clemson is every bit as good as they were cracked up to be," said Boston College Coach Frank Leahy, still the second winningest coach in college football history on a percentage basis. "We lost to a great team, one of the best I have ever seen. I have the satisfaction of knowing that while we were beaten, the game wasn't lost on a fluke."

TIGER TIMELINE

Jan. 10, 1940 - Jess Neely resigned as athletic director and football coach to accept the head football coaching job at Rice. Neely had inherited a $47,000 deficit when he arrived in 1931 and earned Clemson $100,000 during his tenure, and left with $57,000 in the treasury. His overall record at Clemson was 43-35-7. He would be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

Jan. 11, 1940 - Frank Howard was named head coach. At the Athletic Council meeting that day, Howard was nominated for the position by Professor Sam Rhodes, a council member. When a call for a second was asked, Howard, standing in the back of the room, said: "I second the nomination." It is perhaps the only recorded time in history a coach has seconded his own nomination for head coach.

July 25, 1940 - Banks McFadden accepted a bid to play in the College All-Star game against the Green Bay Packers on August 29. He scored one of the two touchdowns for the College All-Stars.

Sept. 1, 1940 - Banks McFadden signed a one-year contract to play with the Brooklyn Dodgers professional football team. He led the NFL in yards per carry in 1940, but did not like the bright lights of New York and returned to Clemson.

Sept. 21, 1940 - In Frank Howard's first game as head coach, Clemson scored on the first offensive play as George Floyd reversed around left end and raced 18 yards untouched for a touchdown. The Tigers went on to a 38-0 win over Presbyterian.

Oct. 12, 1940 - Clemson shutout Wake Forest 39-0 in Clemson's second game of the season at Riggs Field. It was Clemson's third shutout in the first four games of the Howard era. It was the last home game of the season for the Tigers, who would go on to win the Southern Conference title even though seven of the nine games were on the road.

Oct. 24, 1940 - Frank Howard won his first game as head coach in the rivalry with South Carolina. The Tigers were victorious 21-13 thanks to five interceptions by the Tiger defense. Howard coached in 30 Clemson-South Carolina games. Incredible as it may seem, both Clemson and South Carolina scored exactly 411 total points in those 30 games.

Oct. 28, 1940 - It didn't take Howard long to get the Tigers into the nation's top 10. With the 5-0 start the Tigers earned 136 poll points and ranked No. 10 in the nation, Clemson's first top-10 ranking in the AP poll. Two writers ranked Clemson No. 1.

Nov. 23, 1940 - Clemson won the Southern Conference title with a 13-7 win over Furman. Ed Maness led the way for the Tigers with 136 yards rushing on 18 carries. It was the first of eight conference titles for the Tigers under Frank Howard.

Oct. 6, 1941 - Work began on Memorial Stadium. The chore of cleaning, digging and leveling the site as well as cutting large trees and clearing underbrush was supervised by Frank Howard. A pipe was also installed for drainage under the field.

Oct. 11, 1941 - Clemson defeated Boston College at Fenway Park, 26-13. Joe Blalock scored two touchdowns as Clemson overcame a 6-0 deficit after the first quarter. BC outgained Clemson 363-281, but Clemson came away with the victory.

Oct. 23, 1941 - Booty Payne became the first Clemson player to pass for over 200 yards in an 18-14 loss to South Carolina. He completed 9-16 passes for 202 yards in the contest. It was one of just three 200-yard passing games by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s.

Nov. 15, 1941 - Clemson defeated Wake Forest, 29-0, in the last game at Riggs Field.

Nov. 22, 1941 - The Tigers put on the greatest rushing defense exhibition in the first 100 years of Clemson history, holding Furman to -21 yards rushing in a 34-6 win in Greenville. Charlie Timmons scored three touchdowns and added four extra points in his final game as a Tiger. But Timmons was not the leading rusher in the game, as teammate Sid Tinsley picked up 127 yards on just seven carries.

Sept. 19, 1942 - Memorial Stadium opened and the Tigers ran down the Hill for the first time. Butch Butler gained 192 yards, as the Tigers opened the new stadium in front of 5,500 with a 32-13 win over Presbyterian. It was the most yards rushing by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s. High school students were admitted for 25 cents, while servicemen were allowed in for 50 cents.

Sept. 25, 1943 - World War II took virtually all of Clemson's veteran players and the Tigers started nine first-year freshmen at the 11 positions in a 13-12 loss to Presbyterian. Clemson had just a 2-6 record this season with no one older than a sophomore playing in a game as the armed services took Clemson's entire junior and senior classes.

Oct. 19, 1944 - First rain at a Clemson-South Carolina game since 1896. Despite the conditions, Sid Tinsley rushed for 146 yards in 22 carries to lead the Tigers to a 20-13 victory.

Sept. 22, 1945 - Fourteen Clemson backs netted 516 yards in a 76-0 victory over Presbyterian. Freshman Bobby Gage led the Tigers with 144 yards, including 88 yards on a touchdown run, the longest run from scrimmage by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s. The Tigers had 11 rushing touchdowns in the game, still a Clemson record.

Oct. 24, 1946 - The Clemson vs. South Carolina game was played under unusual circumstances. Counterfeit tickets had been printed and 10,000 more people than the capacity showed up for the game. Fans stormed the gates and stood on the sidelines, even on the field at the opposite end of the field when the game action was taking place. Coach Howard recalled fans standing next to him on the sideline telling him what plays to run. South Carolina won on this bizarre day, 26-14.

Sept. 24, 1947 - Clemson flew to Boston College on an Eastern Airline DC-4. It marked the first time that a state football team had flown to a football game. The quicker traveling did not help, however as Boston College defeated the Tigers, 32-22.

Nov. 8, 1947 - Clemson began a 15-game winning streak, the longest in school history at the time, with a win over Furman, 35-7.

Nov. 22, 1947 - Bobby Gage ran for 141 yards and passed for 233 as he led Clemson to a 34-18 win over Auburn. Gage threw four touchdown passes and had 374 yards total offense, records that stood almost 50 years. Hank Walker was Gage's favorite receiver as he pulled in 10 passes for 148 yards. It was the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers had a 100-yard rusher, a 100-yard receiver and a 200-yard passer in the same game. The Clemson defense was also outstanding, holding Auburn to -9 yards rushing.

June 1, 1948 - Frank Gillespie was named the Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year. He played football, basketball and baseball during the academic year and was the first Tiger athlete to be named a conference athlete of the year.

Sept. 25, 1948 - Clemson beat Presbyterian 53-0 in the first night game at Clemson. Clemson also defeated NC State 6-0 in a home night game the following week.

Oct. 2, 1948 - Gage continued his All-America triple-threat season by returning a punt 90 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 6-0 win over NC State at Death Valley. It was the longest punt return at Memorial Stadium until 2006.

Oct. 21, 1948 - A No. 14 Tiger team beat South Carolina 13-7 in Columbia. Captain Phil Prince was the hero for the Tigers as he blocked a South Carolina punt with just 4:15 left in the contest. Oscar Thompson recovered it at the 11 and ran it in for a touchdown, giving Clemson the 13-7 lead.

Nov. 6, 1948 - Bobby Gage put on the most efficient passing exhibition in Clemson history in a 41-0 win over Furman. He completed 9-11 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns. His efficiency rating of 310.7 is still a Clemson record for a minimum of 10 attempts. He averaged 22 yards per attempt, a record by far in Clemson history. The defense was just as effective, holding the Paladins to -12 yards in total offense, still the best total defense effort in Clemson history for a single game.

Nov. 22, 1948 - The Tigers were ranked No. 9 in the AP poll, their highest ranking in history. Eight voters ranked Clemson No. 1 in the nation.

Nov. 27, 1948 - Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Gator Bowl after it beat Auburn 7-6 in a hard fought game played in Mobile, Ala. It was Clemson's first bowl bid since the 1939 season. Ray Mathews scored on a one-yard run with just 6:35 left to give Clemson its only lead of the game.

Nov. 29, 1948 - Clemson ranked 11th in the final AP poll. Again Clemson suffered from not having a poll after the bowl games. Clemson won another regular season game, then defeated Missouri in the Gator Bowl to close a perfect season. But, these wins were not reflected in the final ranking. The AP did not have a post-bowl poll until 1969.

TIGER TIMELINE

Dec. 4, 1948 - Clemson closed out its perfect regular season with a 20-0 win over The Citadel in a game played in Charleston. The December 4 date is the second-latest regular season game in Clemson history. The 10th ranked Tigers did not allow The Citadel to make a first down in the game, the only recorded time in Clemson history that the Tigers did not allow a first down. The Bulldogs also failed to complete a pass in the contest. The victory was Clemson's sixth road win of the year, a record that still stands for road wins in a regular season. Only six Clemson teams have had a perfect road record since 1948, and that was the 1981 national championship team and the 1995 Tigers as well as the 2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019 squads.

Dec. 6, 1948 - Frank Howard was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year, his first of three Coach of the Year selections in his career.

Jan. 1, 1949 - The Tigers won the Gator Bowl by a 24-23 score over Missouri. Fred Cone scored two first-quarter touchdowns as Clemson raced to a 14-0 lead. After Missouri tied the game, Gage threw a nine-yard scoring pass to John Poulos, a play that completed a 80-yard drive. Jack Miller's 32-yard field goal in the fourth quarter proved to be the winning margin. Missouri would score a late touchdown to come within 24-23. But that was the final score. You could not go for two points in those days, so Missouri did not have the opportunity to tie the score after their touchdown that took place with less than five minutes left. Both teams had exactly 298 yards of total offense in the game. Clemson closed the season with a perfect 11-0 record, the only team in college football with 11 wins that year and one of just three with a perfect record. Notre Dame and Michigan were both 9-0-0 that season, but did not play in a bowl game.

Nov. 26, 1949 - Clemson closed out the decade of the 1940s with a 20-20 tie against Auburn in Mobile, Ala. Clemson had just a 4-4-2 record but closed 2-0-1 over the last three games, giving the program momentum heading into the 1950 season.

Sept. 30, 1950 - Clemson beat Missouri 34-0 in the second game of the season. The Tigers of Columbia had been ranked in the preseason top 20. Three Tiger backs rushed for at least 100 yards, the second straight game Frank Howard had three 100-yard rushers in a game. It has happened just seven times in Clemson history.

Oct. 7, 1950 - Clemson recorded its third-straight shut-out to open the season with a 27-0 win over NC State in a home night game. Wyndie Windham again led the Clemson defense in tackles and according to legend knocked out NC State players on three consecutive plays in this game.

Oct. 28, 1950 - Clemson defeated Wake Forest in Winston-Salem in a battle of top 20 teams, 13-12. Nov. 28, 1950 - Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Orange Bowl.

Jan. 1, 1951 - Clemson appeared in the Orange Bowl for the first time and squeaked out a 15-14 win over Miami (Fla.) to complete an undefeated season. Sterling Smith's tackle of Frank Smith in the end zone gave Clemson a safety with under six minutes left in the game and gave the Tigers the victory. Don Wade also had two interceptions in the game. It was Clemson's second undefeated season in the last three years for Howard's Tigers.

Nov. 27, 1951 - Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Gator Bowl. This was done against the wishes of the Southern Conference, who had made a rule its members could not go to a bowl game. Clemson and Maryland, which both accepted bowl bids were given sanctions. The two teams were told they will not be allowed to play any other conference teams in 1952. This resulted in teams leaving the Southern Conference and forming the ACC.

Nov. 8, 1952 - Don King, making his first and only career start at tailback, rushed for 234 yards on 33 carries in Clemson's 12-12 tie at Fordham. The performance is still a record for a Clemson freshman and still stands as the third-highest single-game total in Clemson history. King, who had 215 rushing yards in the first half and 19 in the second half, was substituting for injured tailback Billy Hair and returned to quarterback the next week. He never played tailback again.

Oct. 9, 1954 - Clemson upset 14th ranked Florida in Jacksonville, 14-7.

Nov. 16, 1956 - Vice President Richard Nixon was in attendance at the Clemson-Miami football game on this date. Surrounded by security from various agencies, a loud explosion sounded and alarmed the body guard along with the Vice President. To everyone's relief, it was discovered that it was just the cannon fired off by a Clemson cheerleader when Clemson kicked off. The eighth-ranked Hurricanes defeated the Tigers 21-0 in the game played at Miami, Fla.

Nov. 24, 1956 - The Tigers defeated Virginia 7-0 at Clemson to clinch their first ACC championship.

Dec. 1, 1956 - Clemson clinched an Orange Bowl berth with a 28-7 win over Furman at Clemson.

March 25, 1957 - It was announced that Clemson and South Carolina would play at Clemson on Nov. 12, 1960 ending the 61-year-old state classic, Big Thursday. The announcement was made on Frank Howard's birthday.

Sept. 20, 1958 - Clemson ran down the hill on a rug for the first time. The rug was officially given to Clemson on this date before the Clemson-Virginia game by W.W. Pate Sr., president of Wunda Weave Company. It measured 104 feet long and was 13 feet wide. Also at this game, Clemson's first expansion of Memorial Stadium was used for the first time. Memorial Stadium was expanded from 20,000 to 38,000 seats.

Sept. 27, 1958 - Clemson defeated North Carolina 26-21, as Frank Howard picked up his 100th collegiate coaching win. Doug Cline scored on a two-yard run with 2:52 left to give Clemson the win. It was one of four times in 1958 that Clemson scored a touchdown in the last quarter to win the game. Also the scoreboard at the east of the stadium was used for the first time. The scoreboard had an added feature, as the Tiger above the scoreboard still wags his tail after each Clemson touchdown.

Oct. 6, 1958 - Clemson was ranked eighth in the country, the highest ranking in Clemson history, at that time.

Oct. 11, 1958 - Clemson kept its top 10 ranking alive with a 12-7 win at Vanderbilt. Harvey White scored the game winner on a three-yard run with three seconds left to win the game. It is the second-latest, game-winning touchdown in regulation in Tiger history.

Oct. 8, 1960 - Clemson defeated Virginia 21-7 and used special pants for rain protection in this game. After the contest, Clemson sent the pants to Greenville and allowed Furman to use the pants for a game that night against William & Mary. Furman Head Coach Bob King said, "after those big Clemson boys got out of them some of our guys had a hard time making them stay up and we had to tape the legs of the pants for several players." The pants beat two teams from Virginia on the same day.

Nov. 24, 1962 - Clemson beat South Carolina, as Rogers kicked a 24-yard field goal with 1:31 left. The Tigers wore blue jerseys in this game, the ones that were used in the Sugar Bowl. Clemson claimed the 20-17 victory when South Carolina quarterback Dan Reeves was sacked deep in Tiger territory on the last play of the game.

Oct. 12, 1963 - Clemson and Georgia tied 7-7, but the main item of interest was the strange weather. Dec. 8, 2019 - In the midst of Clemson's College Football Playoff Selection Show watch party, Matt Butkus, the son of Pro Football and College Football Hall of Famer Dick Butkus, arrived for a surprise presentation to award the 2019 Butkus Award to Isaiah Simmons as the nation's top linebacker.

Dec. 28, 2019 - Clemson advanced to its fourth national championship game in five years in thrilling fashion, overcoming an early 16-0 deficit to defeat Ohio State 29-23 in the Fiesta Bowl. The 16-point comeback was Clemson fifth-largest comeback in school history and was secured when Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' second interception of Justin Fields (who had entered the game with only one interception on the season) in the end zone with 37 seconds to play.

Jan. 13, 2020 - Clemson's ACC-record-tying 29-game winning streak came to an end with LSU's 42-25 win in the CFP National Championship Game. In the contest, Travis Etienne, playing in his home state of Louisiana, became Clemson's first 4,000-yard career rusher and passed Raymond Priester to become the Tigers' all-time leading rusher.

April 23, 2020 - Clemson produced multiple first-round draft picks for the second straight year, a first in school history, when NFL teams selected Isaiah Simmons (No. 8 overall by the Cardinals) and A.J. Terrell (No. 16 overall by the Falcons) in the first round. In all, seven Clemson players heard their names called in the draft, held remotely in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Sept. 12, 2020 - Clemson played its first game under COVID-19 protocols, earning a 37-13 win at Wake Forest in a primetime game played in front of an announced crowd of 68 people. A week later, Clemson's 49-0 win against The Citadel in the Tigers' home opener welcomed an announced crowd of 18,609 because of pandemic restrictions, the smallest crowd at Memorial Stadium since a 1964 contest against Virginia.

Oct. 31, 2020 - With quarterback Trevor Lawrence out with COVID-19, Clemson overcame an 18-point first half deficit in freshman DJ Uiagalelei's first career start to earn a 34-28 win against Boston College at Memorial Stadium. The 18-point comeback was the second largest in school history and the largest in the history of Death Valley. Travis Etienne had 264 all-purpose yards, including a 15-yard run on the final play of the third quarter in which he passed NC State's Ted Brown (4,602, 1975-78) to become the ACC's all-time leading rusher. He also set a Clemson single-game running back record with 140 receiving yards.

Nov. 7, 2020 - No. 1 Clemson's ACC-record 36-game regular-season winning streak came to an end with a 47-40 double-overtime loss at No. 4 Notre Dame with Trevor Lawrence still sidelined with COVID-19. With Notre Dame joining the ACC as a temporary member in 2020, the game represented the highest combined ranking of any conference game in ACC history, a combined ranking later matched when No. 2 Notre Dame and No. 3 Clemson played again in the ACC Championship Game. The game was broadcast on NBC, Clemson's first appearance on the network since 1983, but also aired in part on USA Network as NBC cut to live coverage of an acceptance speech by President-Elect Joe Biden in the first half.

Nov. 21, 2020 - Clemson had traveled to Tallahassee in preparation for a noon game against Florida State. As the team congregated for breakfast to eat and then load buses for the stadium, word came from the ACC that the game would not be played after the teams' medical staffs could not mutually agree on proceeding with the contest. It marked the first time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site since 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23, but had the contest postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Nov. 28, 2020 - Clemson played its first game in 21 days when it routed Pittsburgh 52-17 on Senior Day in Death Valley. The 21-day layoff was Clemson's longest stint between regular-season games in a season since 1918, a year in which Clemson went 28 days between games against Georgia Tech and South Carolina. That season was also impacted by a global pandemic in addition to being affected by World War I.

Dec. 1, 2020 - Disney announced running back Darien Rencher as the recipient of the 2020 Disney Spirit Award. The beloved walk-on had grown into a team and community leader, helping lead the Clemson Community Peaceful Demonstration in June amid national turmoil as well as organized the #WeWantToPlay campaign in August that mobilized college football players across the country in support of playing safely in the midst of the pandemic when it appeared that the 2020 season was going to be in jeopardy.

Dec. 5, 2020 - It did not officially count as a division title in a division-less season, but Clemson clinched an ACC Championship Game berth with a 45-10 win at Virginia Tech, making Clemson the first power conference team ever to appear in six consecutive conference championship games. It was also Clemson's second-latest regular-season finale, behind only a Dec. 8 contest against The Citadel to end the 1928 regular season.

Dec. 19, 2020 - No. 3 Clemson pummeled No. 2 Notre Dame 34-10 in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte to earn its sixth consecutive ACC championship. That day, Clemson and Oklahoma became the first teams in any active conference to win six straight outright titles and the first teams in the power conferences to win six straight titles outright in any conference since Oklahoma (12, 1948-59) as a member of the since-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Jan. 5, 2021 - Quarterback Trevor Lawrence was one of four Heisman Trophy finalists and finished second in voting behind Alabama wide receiver DeVonta Smith. The ceremony came four days after his final game at Clemson, concluding his career with a 34-2 record as a starter.

April 29, 2021 - Quarterback Trevor Lawrence became the first No. 1 overall pick in Clemson football history when he was selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars atop the 2021 NFL draft, making Clemson the 51st program ever to produce a No. 1 pick. With the No. 25 overall pick, the Jaguars used their second first-round selection to choose running back Travis Etienne, making Lawrence and Etienne the first quarterback/running back duo from a school ever drafted by one team in the first round of an NFL draft in the common draft era. In all, five Tigers, all from the offense, were selected during the three-day draft.

Sept. 5, 2021 - After a hard-fought 10-3 season-opening loss to eventual national champion Georgia the night before, Clemson ranked No. 6 in the AP poll, ending a streak of 57 consecutive polls ranked in the top five, the second-longest streak in poll history.

Sept. 18, 2021 - Clemson defeated Georgia Tech 14-8 in a game that included a lightning delay of one hour and 52 minutes (including an observed halftime in that window). It was the longest weather delay in Death Valley history, surpassing weather delays on Oct. 12, 1963 (20-minute halftime delay vs. Georgia), Sept. 4, 1993 (17-minute fourth-quarter delay vs. UNLV) and Sept. 19, 2009 (55-minute third-quarter delay and a 48-minute fourth-quarter delay vs. Boston College).

TIGER TIMELINE

Nov. 27, 2021 - Clemson shut out South Carolina 30-0 to give Clemson a series-record-tying seventh straight win against the Gamecocks. The shutout, which featured two interceptions by Andrew Booth Jr., was Clemson's first shutout of South Carolina since 1989.

Dec. 5, 2021 - In a span of six days, two long-time Clemson assistants were announced as head coaches at power conference schools. Oklahoma named 10-year Clemson Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables as its head coach on Dec. 5, and Virginia named 11-year Clemson Assistant Coach (and seven-year Offensive Coordinator) Tony Elliott to its head position on Dec. 10.

Dec. 7, 2021 - In a ceremony in Las Vegas, Nev., the National Football Foundation inducted running back C.J. Spiller into the College Football Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2021. Spiller, who earned the honor in only his second year of eligibility, became Clemson's first inductee since Danny Ford in 2017.

Dec. 29, 2021 - Despite being without the services of 30 scholarship players from its initial camp roster, Clemson battled to a 20-13 win against Iowa State in the Cheez-It Bowl in Orlando, Fla. to extend its streak of consecutive 10-win seasons to 11. The win was Dabo Swinney's 150th in 186 career games, making him the sixth-fastest head coach in FBS history (and fourth fastest in the modern era) to reach 150 career victories.

Feb. 10, 2022 - The South Carolina House of Representatives introduced and adopted resolution H. 4943, which recognized and honored long-time Clemson Head Athletic Trainer Danny Poole for nearly 40 years of service to Tiger student-athletes as he transitioned from that role into an administrative position with the football program.

Sept. 10, 2022 - During its home opener, Clemson debuted a number of enhancements to Memorial Stadium, none larger than a new 126-foot-wide and 56.5-foot-tall videoboard colloquially nicknamed "DaboTron." The stadium enhancements also included new ribbon boards and LED stadium lighting for individual spot-lighting of Howard's Rock during pregame among many other uses.

Oct. 1, 2022 - In advance of a top-10 matchup with NC State, ESPN College GameDay returned to Bowman Field for the first time since exactly six years earlier prior to Clemson's top-five matchup with Louisville in 2016. Clemson made 17 appearances on the program, nine at neutral sites, six on the road and two in Memorial Stadium under unique circumstances, during the time between Bowman Field shows. That evening, No. 5 Clemson rolled to a 30-20 win over No. 10 NC State.

Oct. 22, 2022 - Death Valley hosted its first matchup of two undefeated teams with a record of 6-0 or better in the facility's 81st year when 7-0 Clemson welcomed 6-0 Syracuse. It was only the fourth all-time meeting of two ACC teams with a record of 6-0 or better, joining the 1997 Florida State vs. North Carolina game, 2013 Florida State vs. Miami (Fla.) game and the Clemson vs. Notre Dame game in 2020. Behind reserve quarterback Cade Klubnik, Clemson overcame a 14-point second-quarter deficit, and a late interception by R.J. Mickens secured a 27-21 comeback victory for the Tigers' ACC-record-setting 38th consecutive home win.

Nov. 19, 2022 - Clemson held Miami (Fla.) to 98 total yards, the third fewest in the Hurricanes' storied history, in a 40-10 win. It was the final victory during Clemson's 40-game home winning streak from 2016-22, an ACC record and tied with the 1907-18 Notre Dame teams for the eighth-longest winning streak in FBS history.

Nov. 29, 2022 - Running back Will Shipley comprised three of Clemson's conference-best 12 All-ACC selections, earning first-team honors in the running back, all-purpose and specialist categories. He became the first player in ACC history to accomplish the feat en route to being one of four finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, presented annually to the nation's most versatile player.

Dec. 3, 2022 - The Tigers earned their 21st ACC title and 27th conference title, thrashing North Carolina 39-10 at Charlotte, N.C. The win gave Clemson a postseason victory (conference championship, bowl game and/or national championship game) in 12 consecutive seasons, the longest FBS streak on record. Clemson also became the first program in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

April 27, 2023 - Clemson had multiple players selected in the first round of an NFL draft for the fourth time in a five-year span when the Cincinnati Bengals and New Orleans Saints selected Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee, respectively, in the first round. With their consecutive selections at the No. 28 and No. 29 picks, Clemson produced back-to-back first-round picks in a single draft for the first time in program history.

Sept. 9, 2023 - Clemson christened its updated Tiger Walk plaza to the west of Memorial Stadium with a ribbon cutting featuring Head Coach Dabo Swinney and cornerstone partners Jim and Candace Brown. Featuring era-specific in-ground plaques denoting every team captain in program history, the reimagined Tiger Walk space was updated to honor legends of Clemson's past and create a 365-day destination for Tiger fans as a permanent encapsulation of the program's history and tradition.

Sept. 30, 2023 - With a 31-14 win at Syracuse, Dabo Swinney earned his 100th career ACC regular-season victory, matching Frank Howard's school record for conference wins. Howard had a 100-48-5 record in conference play across the SoCon and ACC. Swinney passed Howard with a win against Wake Forest the following week.

Nov. 4, 2023 - Dabo Swinney became the winningest head coach in school history as Clemson defeated No. 12 Notre Dame 31-23 at Death Valley. The victory was the 166th of his career, pushing him past Frank Howard (165 from 1940-69). The win also moved Clemson to 5-0 against starting quarterback Sam Hartman during his tenures at Wake Forest and Notre Dame, making Clemson the first Power Five Conference team to defeat a starting quarterback five times since Miami (Fla.) posted a 5-0 record against Florida State in games started by quarterback Chris Rix from 2001-04.

Nov. 25, 2023 - Clemson earned a 16-7 win at South Carolina to join Alabama as the only programs to total 150 wins since 2011. With a scoop-and-score and an interception, freshman Khalil Barnes became the first Tiger to record a takeaway on consecutive plays from scrimmage by an opponent since Brian Dawkins against Duke in 1995. Barrett Carter repeated the feat in the fourth quarter of Clemson's next game, a comeback win against Kentucky in the Gator Bowl.

Sept. 21, 2024 - Clemson became the 14th program in FBS history to reach 800 wins when the Tigers ran out to a 28-0 first-quarter lead in routing NC State 59-35 at Memorial Stadium. Clemson went from 700 all-time wins to 800 all-time wins in a span of 118 games, its fastest stretch of games between milestone wins.

Oct. 5, 2024 - Dabo Swinney passed Bobby Bowden to become the winningest head coach in ACC history with a 29-13 Clemson win at Florida State on the field bearing Bowden's name. Of Bowden's 377 NCAA-recognized career head coaching victories, 173 came during Florida State's membership in the ACC. The victory was Swinney's 174th of his career, nudging him past the College Football Hall of Famer in ACC recordkeeping.

Oct. 19, 2024 - Clemson defeated Virginia 48-31, but men on the sidelines took center stage. Virginia Head Coach Tony Elliott became the fourth former Clemson player to face the Tigers as a head coach and became the 15th head coach all-time to face Clemson after having previously coached at Clemson in either a head coaching or assistant coaching capacity. Prior to the game, Tiger Running Backs Coach and College Football Hall of Famer C.J. Spiller was formally inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor.

Dec. 7, 2024 - Clemson earned its 22nd ACC title and its 28th overall conference championship in dramatic fashion. Clemson had a 21-7 first-quarter lead, but it squandered a 17-point fourth-quarter advantage when No. 7 SMU tied the score 31-31 with 16 seconds remaining. However, a 41-yard kickoff return by Adam Randall and a 17-yard pass to Antonio Williams set up freshman Nolan Hauser's game-winning 56-yard field goal as time expired, the first walkoff field goal of 50+ yards in conference championship game history. The win secured Clemson's spot in the inaugural 12-team edition of the College Football Playoff.

Aug. 30, 2025 - Defensive tackle Michael Dean Perry was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor at half-time of Clemson's season opener against LSU.

Sept. 20, 2025 - Clemson played its second straight game with a lightning delay when its contest with Syracuse was delayed 96 minutes. Two weeks earlier, Clemson had a 92-minute delay against Troy. It marked the first time in Memorial Stadium's history that multiple games in a season required weather delays.

TIGER TIMELINE

Oct. 4, 2025 - For only the second time in FBS history, a head coach with multiple FBS national championships (Dabo Swinney) faced off against a head coach with multiple Super Bowl titles (Bill Belichick). The only other previous matchup came at the end of the 1992 season, when three-time Super Bowl Head Coach Bill Walsh led Stanford against two-time national championship Head Coach Joe Paterno and Penn State in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl. In 2025, Swinney got the best of Belichick, defeating the Tar Heels 38-10. In the same contest, Swinney coached his 300th game at Clemson as a head coach or assistant coach, joining Frank Howard and Bob Jones as the only coaches in program history to coach 300 games in any capacity.

Dec. 27, 2025 - Clemson faced Penn State in the second-coldest game to date in school history. Temperature at kickoff of the 2025 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium was 28 degrees with light snow flurries. Penn State earned a victory in the game, concluding Clemson's FBS-record streak of 14 consecutive seasons with at least one postseason win from 2011-24.

April 23-25, 2026 - Clemson matched a school record for a seven-round draft with nine picks in the 2026 NFL draft. The nine players were drafted by nine different teams representing seven different NFL divisions, and all nine were selected in the first five rounds, marking the first time in school history Clemson had at least one player picked in each of the first five rounds of a draft.

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

1981 FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1981 football team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship.

1984 MEN'S SOCCER TEAM

The 1984 men's soccer team, named to the Ring of Honor in 2009, won the NCAA championship in grand style, as it became the first team in NCAA soccer history to defeat the No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4-seeded teams in the tournament on the way to the title. Clemson defeated two-time defending champion Indiana 2-1 in the national championship match in the Kingdome in Seattle, Wash. John Lee scored the winning goal for Dr. I.M. Ibrahim's team with 1:42 left. The team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2009.

1987 MEN'S SOCCER TEAM

The 1987 men's soccer team, named to the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2012, won the NCAA title with a win over San Diego State at Riggs Field, the only national championship claimed on the Clemson campus. The Tigers were led by Hermann Trophy winner Bruce Murray. The victory over the Aztecs culminated a magic run for the Tigers, who were seeded No. 23 in the 24-team tournament. A crowd of 8,332 fans celebrated the victory at the home of Clemson soccer, the largest home crowd in Tiger history.

2003 MEN'S GOLF TEAM

The 2003 men's golf team, named to the Ring of Honor in 2013, won the NCAA title in dominating fashion. Larry Penley's Tigers won the ACC Championship, the East Regional championship and the national championship, the first program in NCAA golf history to win all three in the same year. Clemson won the championship by two shots over Oklahoma State on its home course.

RUSTY ADKINS

Rusty Adkins was the first baseball player named to the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1997. He was the first three-time All-American in Tiger baseball history (1965,66,67). A three-time First-Team All-ACC player, Adkins hit .444 in 1965, an average that remained a Tiger record for 37 years. Adkins had a 41-game hitting streak that remains in the top 10 in NCAA history. He was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002.

DELIAH ARRINGTON

Deliah Arrington was an All-American on the soccer field in 2000 and 2002, the first two-time All-American in program history. She set Clemson career records for goals (50) and points (127). In 2002, she was named ACC Player-of-the-Year. The daughter of former Tiger football player Vandel Arrington was a three-time, First-Team All-ACC selection as well. The press box at Memorial Stadium was named in his honor during the 1988 season as well.

The native of Cordele, Ga. averaged a double-double over his career and was a first-round draft pick of the Atlanta Hawks in 1977. His #30 jersey was retired prior to his final home game in 1977, the first Clemson athlete in any sport to have a jersey retired. Rollins finished his degree requirements in May 2016 through the Tiger Trust Program and was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2017.

C.J. SPILLER

C.J. Spiller was a two-sport star (football, track) at Clemson who was a unanimous first-team All-American on the gridiron as a senior in 2009, when he set the ACC record for all-purpose yards (2,680). The next year, he earned the Dave Williams Award as the top senior. The three-time All-American led Clemson to a No. 3 national finish in 1997 and No. 2 in 1998. He retired from the PGA Tour in 2013.

BILL WILHELM

Bill Wilhelm, named to the Ring of Honor in 2013, coached Clemson for 36 years (1958-93) and had a 1161-536-10 (.683) record. He was the fifth-winningest coach in history when he retired. He still holds the ACC record for regular-season ACC titles (19), including 10 in a row from 1973-82. Each of his last seven teams was chosen for the NCAA Tourney, and five of them ranked in the final top 15, including his 1991 team that totaled an ACC-record 60 wins. He averaged 50 wins per season during his last seven years as well.

JERRY BUTLER

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Coaches from all over the ACC area gathered for the North-South All-Star game in Columbia, S.C. in late July 1975. The game, which is now played at Myrtle Beach every December, was the final high school event of the year and a final showcase for soon-to-be first-year freshmen.

Ninety percent of the participants were highly recruited signees from the previous February who were ready to join Division I schools from all over the Southeast. But at one juncture of the game, a wide receiver who had not signed a football scholarship with any school took over the game.

Jimmy Kiser, a future ACC assistant football coach, threw a pass over the middle to a wide receiver named Jerry Butler of Ware Shoals High School. Butler turned on the speed and raced untouched 70 yards for a score. The college coaches, who were not familiar with the track star, took notice and collectively asked, "Who is that guy?"

That included the Clemson coaches. Much to their glee, they discovered by the end of the evening that Jerry Odel Butler was in fact coming to Clemson...on a track scholarship.

Butler went on to star at Clemson, earning AP First-Team All-America honors and leading Clemson to uncharted team accomplishments. In 1999, Butler became the sixth member of the Clemson Football Ring of Honor, the highest honor accorded a Tiger gridder. He was named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team in the fall of 2002.

Whatever the means of his sojourn to Clemson, the school has certainly been a better place because of Butler's attendance. A diligent student who earned his degree in 1980, Butler is a standard for wide receivers and Tiger players regardless of position.

Statistically, Butler's accomplishments are countless. He was a model of consistency, as shown by his 36-game streak of making at least one reception, a streak he set between 1976-78, a record that is still intact today. He concluded his career with 139 receptions for 2,223 yards and 11 touchdowns, a 16-yards-per-catch rate. All those figures are still in the top five in Clemson history. Butler set the Clemson single-game reception yardage record with 163 against Georgia Tech in 1977. His 58 catches in 1978 stood as a record until 1997.

The honors certainly followed, especially after his senior year. Butler appeared on the Bob Hope Christmas Special in 1978 thanks to his selection to the AP All-America team, the only AP First-Team All-America wide receiver in school history.

While Clemson fans will always remember his considerable statistics and honors, one play stands out. At South Carolina in 1977, Clemson trailed the Gamecocks 27-24 in the final minutes. The Tigers needed a victory to clinch a Gator Bowl berth, a selection that would be Clemson's first bowl invitation since 1959.

Steve Fuller, also a member of Clemson's Football Ring of Honor, quarterbacked Clemson to the South Carolina 20-yard line. With just 49 seconds left, Fuller lofted a ball to the right corner of the end zone toward Butler. Using every ounce of his exceptional athletic ability, Butler made a leaping backwards diving reception, giving Clemson a 31-27 victory.

That season, that game and that catch launched the program on a 20-year run that saw Clemson return to the national rankings, bowl selections, ACC championships and a national championship. Many Tiger supporters wonder how fate would have dealt the program had Butler not made that catch.

Given these heroics at Clemson, Butler was chosen as the No. 5 overall selection of the 1979 NFL draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Unlike his first season at Clemson, Butler did not sneak up on anyone. He had dreamed of playing in the NFL and wasted little time, signing a professional contract just six days after the draft, the first first-round draft pick to sign that year.

Butler made Buffalo's front office look smart, as he set NFL rookie records for receiving touchdowns (4) and receiving yards (255) in a 1979 contest against the New York Jets.

"That was the best single-game performance I've ever seen from a wide receiver," said NBC broadcaster and former NFL quarterback John Brodie. "I played the game for 16 years, but I've never seen anything like that."

Butler ended his rookie year with 48 receptions for 834 yards, four touchdowns and was named the AFC Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News. The following year, he increased his reception total to 57 for 832 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

By the end of his nine-year career with Buffalo, Butler had 278 catches for 4,301 yards and 29 touchdowns. He missed two seasons due to knee injuries, 32 games that certainly could have enhanced his career numbers.

After his years at Clemson, Butler took community service to another level at the professional level. In 1981 and 1982, he was named the Bills' NFL Man-of-the-Year. He was one of five finalists for the award nationally in 1981. In 1983, he was honored with the Jackie Robinson Award for community service by the YMCA of Greater Buffalo. In 1986, he was a finalist for the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for outstanding community service from the NFL Players Association.

In 1987, he received the "Salute to Young Leaders Award" from the YMCA of Greater Buffalo Area. Two years after he retired, he was honored with the Ralph C. Wilson Distinguished Service Award.

Upon completion of his football career in 1987, Butler became director of player & alumni relations for the Buffalo Bills' organization, a position he held until 1999, when he became an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns.

FRED CONE

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Fred Cone is living proof that recruiting services and all their accompanying hype aren't what they are cracked up to be. Cone was inducted into Clemson's Football Ring of Honor in the Fall of 1997, just the fourth Clemson football player in history to receive the honor.

But, he came to Clemson without having played a down of high school football. It is perhaps the most unusual story concerning an athlete's journey to Clemson. Cone was visiting his sister at Biloxi, Miss., far from the haunts of his hometown, an obscure place called Pineapple, Ala.

Unbeknown to Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard, Cone's sister lived next door to Howard's sister, Hazel, in Biloxi. On years when Clemson would play Tulane in New Orleans, La., Howard would send Hazel a pair of tickets.

"One year she sent the two tickets back," recalled Howard, "She said she'd like to have four tickets because she wanted to take the next-door neighbor to the game."

That was in 1946, Cone's senior year in high school. After Cone graduated, Hazel wrote him a letter.

"Brother, I have you a good football player, but he's never played football."

Howard recalled that he had told the Clemson registrar to save him 40 beds in the barracks and that Howard would turn in that many names on September 1.

"When Hazel wrote me about Fred Cone, I had 39 names on that list. So I just wrote 'Fred Cone' in as the 40th name. And that's how I got probably the best, if not the best, football player I ever had."

Cone graduated from Moore Academy in Pineapple and came to Clemson in 1947 as a freshman, but first-year players were not eligible to play then. It was probably best for Cone because he had not played high school football. He needed a year to get acclimated. When Cone became eligible for the varsity in 1948, the football program took on a different air.

In the second game of his career, against NC State, Cone had the first of his eight 100-yard career rushing games, leading Clemson to an important victory. He was Clemson's top rusher (635 yards and seven touchdowns) that season, a regular season that saw Clemson compile a 10-0 record and an invitation to the Gator Bowl against Missouri.

Clemson ended up on the long end of a 24-23 game. Cone rushed for 72 yards and scored twice in the first quarter, but it was his effort on a fourth-down play that was the difference in the game.

Clemson held a one-point lead and faced a fourth-and-three at the Missouri 45. It was either gamble for a first down or punt and give Missouri another chance to score.

Howard would say later, "We hadn't stopped them all day so I took my chance with a running play."

Cone hit a stone wall at left tackle, but kept digging and slid off a little more to the outside, found a little wiggling room and mustered six yards and a first down at the Missouri 35. Clemson retained possession those few remaining minutes and ran out the clock. Years later, Howard said it was the most memorable play of his 30-year career.

Despite a down year in 1949, Cone gained more yards (703) rushing and scored more touchdowns (9) than his sophomore year. However, 1950 was to bring about another undefeated season.

After the expected win over Presbyterian to start the season, Clemson faced preseason No. 17 Missouri on the road. Cone gained 111 yards on 21 carries, one of three Tigers over the 100-yard mark that day.

In 1950, Clemson scored 50 points in three games, but Cone saved his best until his last regular season game against Auburn.

Rumor had it that if Clemson scored over a certain number of points on Auburn that the Orange Bowl bid was in its pocket. The South Carolina Tigers defeated the Alabama Tigers 41-0. Cone gained 163 yards, two shy of a five-yard average, and scored three touchdowns on the ground and one on a 28-yard reception.

Icing on the cake this time came against Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl. Although Sterling Smith's tackle of Frank Smith in the end zone for a safety brought a 15-14 victory Clemson's way, Cone gained 81 yards on the ground, scored once, punted four times and returned one kickoff. It put a great climax on Cone's career.

The 1948-50 era is the only time in Clemson history that has seen the Tiger football program record two undefeated seasons in a three-year period. Cone and Ray Mathews were the only common denominators in the starting lineup on those two teams.

Cone's senior season numbers (845 rushing yards, 15 touchdowns) were school records at the time. He also set career records for rushing yards (2,183) and touchdowns (31).

A seven-year hitch with the Packers was so impressive that he was inducted into their hall of fame in 1974. One year, he led the NFL in field goals. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys in their first year of existence in 1960. Later, he returned to Clemson as its chief recruiter for 10 years beginning in 1961.

After Cone completed his Clemson career, Howard was still stumped as to how his sister could predict that her neighbor's brother would be such an outstanding football player.

"He just looked so athletic jumping off of that diving board," Hazel said without skipping a beat.

JEFF DAVIS

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Even though Clemson's football heritage is over 100 years old, it does not take long to determine the most significant accomplishment in the program's history...the 1981 National Championship. And along the same lines, it does not take long to single out the most significant team leader of that great accomplishment...Jeff Davis.

When examining Davis' contributions to Clemson athletics in terms of leadership, citizenship and athletic records and awards, it is no surprise that he became just the fourth member of Clemson's prestigious Ring of Honor prior to the opener of the 1995 season. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

"It is hard to express my feelings on being inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor and College Football Hall of Fame," said Davis. "These honors should be spread among my coaches and teammates and all of Clemson who had an impact on my life during my career. No one receives honors like this without help. I want to thank the good Lord for giving me the ability and the opportunity to come to Clemson."

The native of Greensboro, N.C. registered a then Clemson record 175 tackles in leading the Tigers' 1981 defense that set a school record for turnovers forced (41) in a single season. He still holds the Clemson career record for caused fumbles (10) and recovered fumbles (8), and his 24 tackles against North Carolina in 1980 are second most in school history.

He played 40 games for Clemson between 1978-81 and had 469 career tackles, 16 pass breakups, 18 tackles for loss, four sacks and four interceptions. He started all 35 games for the Tigers between 1979-81. He was a model of consistency, having registered at least double-figures in tackles in 22 of his last 23 games. Overall, he had 30 double-figure tackle games in his 40-game career and led the team in tackles 25 times.

For his accomplishments in 1981, Davis was named the MVP of the ACC, just the third defensive player in league history to win the award. He concluded the season in grand style with a 14-tackle performance in the 22-15 Orange Bowl win over Nebraska that clinched the national championship for the Tigers, Clemson's first national title in any sport. Davis was named defensive MVP of the contest as well.

At the conclusion of the season, Davis was named a first-team All-American by UPI, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News. He was named lineman-of-the-year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club as well.

"We had purpose," recalled Davis, whose twin sons, J.D. and Judah, played linebackers for the Tigers and won two national titles of their own from 2015-18. "We took everything one game at a time and did not get caught up in the chase for the national championship. When we started the season, the championship was not a (realistic) goal. We were coming off a 6-5 season in 1980 in which we all thought we could have done much better."

After clinching the ACC title with a win over Maryland and the state championship with a convincing win at South Carolina, Davis and his Tiger teammates prepared to meet No. 4 Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl, a game that would determine the national championship.

"We knew we were going to win that night," reflected Davis, who was nicknamed "The Judge" by then Assistant Sports Information Director Kim Kelly. "I think the first possession of the game was the key because they fumbled and William Devane recovered the ball. That led to a score and that was something we had been doing all year, forcing turnovers and taking over the game. That just told us that this game was not going to be any different than any of the others."

Perry Tuttle, Davis' roommate for four seasons and also an All-American on Clemson's 1981 national championship team, recalled that season and Davis' passion for the game.

"When we were in the room at night, he would talk about the defense and what it was going to do until I fell asleep. As the season went on, we started dreaming about what could happen with this team, and as we went along, everything started to come true."

Davis was a fifth-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1982, but he proved the NFL scouts wrong by posting impressive numbers during his six-year NFL career. The inside linebacker played 83 games, including 72 as a starter, between 1982-87. He led the Buccaneers in tackles three of the six years, including a career-high 165 stops in 1984. Davis served as team captain for four seasons as well.

Davis has been just as successful in life after football. During the spring of 1999, he returned to Clemson as field director of the Call Me Mister Program within the Department of Education, Health & Human Development. In April of 2001, he received the "Use Your Life Award" from Oprah Winfrey's Angel Network for his work in the Call Me Mister Program. He and his wife Joni graduated from Clemson on the same day in 1984, and they are the parents of four daughters and twin boys, who were born in June of 1995.

Today, Davis is a member of Dabo Swinney's staff as assistant athletic director for player relations & external affairs.

"One of my main goals in life is to touch the lives of other people and touch them in a positive way. Any time you receive an award like this, it means you've been surrounded by great people. I want to thank all the people at Clemson, because no one receives an honor like this without help. I am proud to say I am a Clemson graduate and that I represented the University. Hopefully, I have had as positive an impact on them as they have had on me."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Clemson's 1978 team posted a 10-1 record in the regular season and won nine games in a row and an ACC championship under Head Coach Charley Pell. The Tigers were ranked No. 7 in the nation and accepted an invitation to play Ohio State and future Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes in the Gator Bowl.

But in the first week of December, Pell decided to become the head coach at Florida. Two days later Athletic Director Bill McLellan promoted Danny Ford to head coach at the age of 30, at the time the youngest head coach in the nation. His first game was against Ohio State and Hayes on Dec. 29, 1978.

"I really didn't know how to be a head coach," admitted Ford in his classic humble manner. "I just made some decisions on penalties that night. We had some great coaches and some great players."

Ford certainly had some great players help him in that first game, a 17-15 win over the Buckeyes. His roster included Jerry Butler, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller and Terry Kinard (did not play due to injury), and all four of them preceded Ford into the Clemson Ring of Honor.

The victory received even more acclaim than normal because Hayes punched Clemson middle guard Charlie Bauman after he made a game-deciding interception late in the game that allowed the Tigers to clinch the two-point win on national television.

In the chaos of the moment and the chaos that followed the game, we learned a lot about Ford. At age 30, he had the maturity of a 20-year veteran coach the way he handled the situation.

Ford had a unique ability to motivate his players. He was a disciplinarian who worked his team hard. That hard work and respect went hand-in-hand in his ability to get the Tigers ready for highly-ranked opponents led by legendary coaches. In his 11 years as head coach, he led the Tigers to a 26-8-1 record over coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

That list includes Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech), Bobby Bowden (Florida State), Dan Devine (Notre Dame), Vince Dooley (Georgia), Hayes (Ohio State), Tom Osborne (Nebraska), Joe Paterno (Penn State), Steve Spurrier (Duke) and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma).

The 22-15 win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl was the pinnacle of his coaching career because it culminated a national championship season, the first in any sport in Tiger history. Just 33 at the time, Ford is still the youngest FBS coach to win the national title.

"We took each game one at a time," said Ford. "We didn't look ahead and people really didn't think we could do it. We never became No. 1 until Penn State beat Pittsburgh the Saturday after Thanksgiving."

Davis confirmed that approach during the 1981 season.

"Coach Ford did a great job of making sure we took it one game at a time. When we beat North Carolina in Chapel Hill when we were both in the top 10 and we moved to No. 2, it got a little harder to do. But he kept us grounded."

The 1981 season is still one of the most bizarre in history from an upset standpoint nationally. Seven different teams were ranked No. 1 during the course of that year, still the most in one season in history.

It was a special night in Miami, Fla. on Jan. 1, 1982. There were some moments that day that Ford figured it would not be Clemson's night. During the day, Cliff Austin was stuck in an elevator at the team hotel for two hours. Later that night, he would score an important touchdown in the second quarter.

Nebraska was ranked No. 4 in the nation entering the game, while Clemson was No. 1, Georgia was No. 2 and Alabama was No. 3. Alabama lost (14-12) in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, then Pittsburgh beat Georgia 24-20 while the Clemson vs. Nebraska game was in progress.

That meant, had Nebraska beaten Clemson, the Cornhuskers would have vaulted all the way to No. 1. Many Tiger fans worried that result would give Nebraska extra motivation. However, Ford's defense dominated most of the game. When Andy Headen batted down a desperation pass, Clemson had the title.

Obviously, that victory over the Cornhuskers was the highlight of Ford's career in terms of on-field results. But there were many other significant seasons and victories. He led Clemson to six total bowl victories, still the most in school history and second-most in ACC history. Five of the wins were over coaches in the Hall of Fame.

He had a school-record 20 wins over top-25 teams. He led Clemson to a streak of 41 consecutive weeks in the top 20 in the late 1980s. Seven years, he led Clemson to a top-25 final ranking. He also coached 26 All-Americans and 71 First-Team All-ACC players.

Ford finished with a record of 96-29-4, a 76-percent winning mark that is one of the best in ACC history.

Ford is proud of all of his former players, but he must hold some extra pride for those who went on to successful NFL careers. Eleven former players won Super Bowl championship rings.

Many of Ford's former players were with him on Aug. 31, 2013, when he was inducted into the Ring of Honor. It proved to be a special night for Ford and Clemson football in many ways.

The ceremony took place 10 minutes before kickoff. Tiger fans were in the stands well before kickoff, which led to a very special moment on national television when the Tigers ran down the Hill. It certainly contributed to the atmosphere in Death Valley, and the game against Georgia kept the atmosphere alive.

Clemson's defeated No. 5 Georgia 38-35. The winning touchdown was scored by #81 Stanton Seckinger.

"I am so happy for Coach Ford," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney, a fellow Alabama alum. "It was a special night and everything was so fitting. So fitting that he was inducted prior to a Clemson-Georgia game, because those games were legendary when he was the coach here."

"Coach Ford established a standard. He told Clemson people that you can do it here. I have always had great respect for Coach Ford. He's always gone above and beyond to help our program."

FORD'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Led Clemson to a 96-29-4 overall record in 11 full seasons as head coach. His 76.0 winning percentage is second best in school history among coaches who served at least three seasons.
- Third-winningest active coach in college football on a percentage basis at the conclusion of the 1989 season.
- Guided Clemson to the 1981 national championship, the first team national title in any sport in Tiger history. He was just 33 when he won the title, still the youngest coach in college football history to win the national title.
- Led Clemson to six bowl wins in his Tiger career and never had a losing season in his 11 full years. Five of the bowl wins were over Hall of Fame coaches.
- Led Clemson to five ACC championships (1981, 1982, 1986, 1987, 1988), second most in school history behind Frank Howard.
- Coached Clemson to seven top-20 seasons, including three top-10 seasons. He led Clemson to top-20 final rankings in each of his last four years.
- Coached Clemson to an 87-25-4 record in the 1980s, the fifth-best overall record in college football for that decade based on winning percentage (76.7). Clemson trailed only Nebraska, Miami (Fla.), BYU and Oklahoma for the decade.
- Had a 21-7-1 record against coaches now in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- Eleven of his former players won 13 Super Bowl championship rings.

STEVE FULLER

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Every once in awhile a truly well-rounded individual comes along.

Steve Fuller was a scholar, an athlete and a fine representative of his community. That combination made him one of the most decorated athletes in school history and the reason he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was also the first Tiger football player in history to have his jersey number (#4) retired.

Fuller, a native of nearby Spartanburg, S.C., graduated from high school with a perfect 4.0 GPA in a class of more than 800, crowning him class valedictorian. He had offers to play professional baseball out of high school and had basketball scholarship offers from Division I schools as well.

Right away, Fuller produced a preview of what Tiger fans should expect from him over the course of the next four seasons. He was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week in his first collegiate game, gaining 194 yards of total offense against Tulane. During his sophomore season, Fuller gained further recognition by being named ACC Back-of-the-Week after the Tennessee game. He was also named to the All-ACC Academic Team in 1976.

Fuller demonstrated exceptional leadership during his junior and senior years, both on and off the field. Highlights on the field include leading the ACC in total offense for both years and being selected twice as the ACC Player-of-the-Year, the only two-time selection in Clemson history.

Equally impressive were the team accomplishments, as Fuller quarterbacked Clemson to two consecutive Gator Bowls, the Tigers' first bowl appearances in 18 seasons. In 1978, Clemson posted an 11-1 record and ranked No. 6 in the final AP poll, then the highest final national ranking in Tiger history.

Fuller earned the Gator Bowl MVP honors during his senior season (1978). He was the South Carolina Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year during his junior season. The Atlanta Touchdown Club named Fuller the back-of-the-year in the South in 1978, and he was also named the South Carolina Player-of-the-Year during his junior and senior seasons.

At the conclusion of his senior season, he was also an AP Third-Team All-American. Another great athletic feat for Fuller included finishing sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish for a Tiger in history. Likewise, he set several Clemson records. It is no wonder he was a first-round draft pick (No. 23 overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs.

He played 10 years in the NFL and won a Super Bowl championship ring with the Chicago Bears in 1985.

Off the field, Fuller illustrated his joint dedication to academics and community service. He was named to the All-ACC Academic Team for three years and twice named an Academic All-American, including a first-team selection during his senior season.

Fuller is one of just three football players in Clemson history to be named an on-field All-American and Academic All-American in the same season. He majored in history (pre-law), which was not an easy route to take, and had a 3.93 GPA. Fuller's constant push for excellence earned him an NCAA postgraduate scholarship, the Jim Weaver Award from the ACC and one of the NCAA's Top Five Awards. Fuller delivered the acceptance response for himself and the four other winners.

Fuller was also presented with the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award, a double that only Kyle Young has accomplished since. His extracurricular activities included being a member of the Blue Key, Mortar Board, Tiger Brotherhood, Block C Club, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

Fuller's honors may have collected dust once he left Clemson, but his fame did not. In 1979, he became the first football player and the second athlete in Clemson history to have his jersey (#4) retired. He also became a member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame.

In September 1994, Fuller was inducted into Clemson's Ring of Honor along with legendary Head Coach Frank Howard and all-purpose back Banks McFadden.

Clemson bestowed another honor upon the former Tiger quarterback great. On April 6, 1996, the Clemson Centennial team was announced, and Fuller was the starting quarterback on this team. In 2002, he was named one of the 50 greatest players of the ACC's first 50 years.

He left behind a legacy that few can dare to touch. No doubt, Fuller remains one of the greatest student-athletes in Tiger history, regardless of sport.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

An era at Clemson University ended June 30, 1974, when Frank Howard officially retired from the payroll.

Another era ended Jan. 26, 1996, when Howard died at the age of 86 and forever silenced a voice that had been synonymous with Clemson for nearly 65 years. He was the school's best-known ambassador.

Although he retired from all official duties in 1974, he never quit coming to the office and he never stopped representing Clemson in a manner which continued to win friends for the place that was so dear to his heart.

Howard retired from coaching Dec. 10, 1969 after 39 years on the Clemson coaching staff, 30 of which were as head coach. He was also athletic director during this time and he kept this position until Feb. 4, 1971, when he was named assistant to the vice president at the university, the post he held when the mandatory retirement age of 65 rolled around.

Shortly after his retirement the Clemson Board of Trustees named the playing surface of Memorial Stadium "Frank Howard Field" in honor of his long service to the university. It was only the third time that a building or installation had been named by the trustees for a living person. Over the years, Howard was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and the Clemson Hall of Fame (charter member in both), as well as the Helms Athletic Hall of Fame and the State of Alabama Hall of Fame.

On Dec. 5, 1989, he joined an elite group in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. The ceremonies took place in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He joined former Clemson mentors John Heisman and Jess Neely in the membership.

Howard was also honored in December 1981, when he was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, along with former Alabama Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and Tommy McDonald, a former Oklahoma star. In the summer of 1990, he was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame.

Howard stepped onto the rolling hills of Clemson in 1931 fresh from the varsity football ranks at the University of Alabama where he was a first stringer on Wallace Wade's 1930 team that drubbed Washington State 24-0 in the 1931 Rose Bowl. Howard was known as the "Little Giant" of the Tide's "Herd of Red Elephants."

The bald veteran came to his first coaching post under Jess Neely as a line tutor.

"At least that was my title," Howard recalled. "Actually, I also coached track, was ticket manager, recruited players and had charge of football equipment. In my spare time, I cut grass, lined tennis courts and operated the canteen while the regular man was out to lunch."

Howard was not only track coach from 1931-39, he served as baseball coach in 1943, and his 12-3 record that year is still among the best percentages for a season in Clemson history.

Howard held the line coaching post until Neely went to Rice as head coach in 1940. When the Clemson athletic council met to name a successor to Neely, Professor Sam Rhodes, a council member, nominated Howard to be the new head coach.

Howard, standing in the back of the room listening to the discussion, said, "I second the nomination."

He got the job and never left. When he retired as head coach following the 1969 season, he was the nation's dean of coaches, having been a head football coach at a major institution longer than anyone else in the United States. When he retired, he was one of five active coaches with 150 or more victories.

While line coach in 1939, the Tigers' record (8-1) was good enough to merit a trip to Dallas where Clemson met undefeated Boston College under the late Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The 1948 mark of 10-0 carried Clemson to the 1949 Gator Bowl, and two years later, a 9-0-1 record sent the Tigers to Miami's Orange Bowl (1950).

The Country Gentlemen were champions on their first three bowl ventures. Boston College fell 6-3, Missouri was nipped in the Gator 24-23 (Howard said that was the best football game he ever witnessed) and Miami (Fla.) fell to the Tigers 15-14. The total point spread in these three bowl wins was five points.

The Gator Bowl beckoned the Tigers again in January 1952, and by being the conference champion in 1956, Clemson played in the 1957 Orange Bowl again. The Hurricanes downed Clemson 14-0 in the second Gator Bowl trip and Colorado led Clemson 20-0, then trailed 21-20 before finally defeating the Tigers 27-21 in the second Orange Bowl. The Tigers then played in the 1959 Sugar Bowl and held top-ranked LSU to a standstill before losing 7-0.

The invitation to play in the first Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Texas in December 1959 was the eighth bowl that Howard had been a part of either as a player, assistant or head coach. It was the seventh bowl trip for a Tiger team and the sixth in a span of 12 years. Howard said that Clemson's 23-7 triumph over No. 7 TCU in the Bluebonnet Bowl was the best performance he had ever witnessed by a Clemson team. The Tigers were the first school to play in two bowls in the same calendar year.

The Tigers' victory over the Horned Frogs was their fourth success in seven postseason appearances. In all seven, Clemson was the established underdog.

Howard served on the coaching staff of the Blue-Gray game in Montgomery, Ala. in 1941, 1952, 1959 and 1966. He was on the East staff of the annual East-West Game in San Francisco, Calif. in December 1960, and again in December 1962. Howard was named coach of the South squad in Miami's 1961 and 1969 North-South game. He coached in the 1970 Hula Bowl, which was his ninth postseason all-star game. While still in active coaching Howard served as one of the rules committee members for a period of three years.

A single-wing expert for 22 seasons (including nine as a line coach), Howard changed to the T-formation and its many variations in 1953. Still another major change in the offense was installed in 1965 with the "I" and pro-type set. In his 13 seasons as head coach using the single wing, Clemson won 69, lost 47 and tied seven. In 12 years of "T" teams, the Tigers won 71, lost 47 and tied four. While using the "I" in his last five years of coaching, Clemson had a 25-24-1 record.

In his 30 years of coaching, Howard won 165 games, lost 118 and tied 12. That victory total is still among the top-40 coaches in the history of the game.

In addition to heading up the Clemson football program, Howard also had the job of directing Clemson's entire athletic program, and at the same time raising all the required scholarship funds. The Tiger athletic department was always on a sound financial footing under the guidance of Howard.

The year 1958 was a red-letter one for Howard. During halftime of the Spring Game, Howard, his staff and secretaries were given an appreciation day. Howard received a 1958 car while other staff members were presented gifts. That summer, Howard and three members of his staff were given a trip to Europe by the United States Department of Defense to conduct clinics for the Armed Forces in Germany.

Then came the football season and the Tigers presented Howard with an 8-2 season, which led to a Sugar Bowl invitation. One of these 1958 victories was the 100th of Howard's head-coaching career. That came against the late Jim Tatum of North Carolina, a coach Howard had never beaten. And, the Tigers had to come from behind three times to win 26-21.

Howard was named Southern Conference Coach-of-the-Year in 1948. In 1959 he was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year and was awarded the honor again in 1966. His teams won ACC championships six times (1956, 58, 59, 65-67) in the first 15 years of the conference. The Tigers were co-champions in 1965. He guided Clemson to the Southern Conference crown in 1940 and 1948 as well.

Howard was born at Barlow Bend, Ala. (three "wagon greasins" from Mobile) on March 25, 1909. He spent his early days on the farm playing mostly cow-pasture baseball because there were not enough boys around the community for a football team. Howard says he left Barlow Bend walking barefoot on a barbed wire fence with a wildcat under each arm.

He graduated from Murphy High School in Mobile, where he played football, baseball and basketball and served as president of both the junior and senior classes.

After finishing at Murphy High School, Howard entered Alabama on an academic scholarship provided by The Birmingham News in the fall of 1927, and the 185-pounder played reserve guard during his sophomore year. As a junior, he started every game but two, as an ankle injury sidelined him for the two games he missed. Again during his senior year, he was a regular.

Howard was president of the freshman class at Alabama, was member of Blue Key and president of the "A" Club.

After coming to Clemson, Howard married the former Anna Tribble of Anderson, S.C. (who died May 15, 1996) on Aug. 23, 1933. They were the parents of a daughter, Alice (Mrs. Robert McClure of Gastonia, N.C.) and a son, Jimmy (Pendleton, S.C.). The Howards had three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Jimmy followed in his father's footsteps as a football player, only at a different position. The son was regular fullback on the local high school (D.W. Daniel High School) team for three years and was a halfback-fullback for three years on the Tiger varsity squad. Jimmy gained over 1,400 yards as a senior in high school and scored over 100 points. He graduated from Clemson in June 1964 with honors and earned his master's degree in horticulture from Clemson in 1967. He retired as a district entomologist with the Plant Pest Regulatory Service at Clemson.

For over three decades, Howard was in great demand both as a banquet speaker and clinic lecturer. Few states have escaped his homespun oratory, which brought the house down on many occasions.

After his retirement, Howard was active in other endeavors. He served as state chairman of the South Carolina Heart Fund drive, was roasted several times on behalf of the Multiple Sclerosis Society and was active in selling the Kickoff Publication out of Knoxville, Tenn.

Howard kept his hands in football, as he served as chief recruiter for the Gray squad in the annual Blue-Gray game. The Blue squad recruiter was Don Faurot, who opposed him in the 1949 Gator Bowl.

Howard was also inducted into the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame in San Francisco, Calif., is an honorary member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a member of the hall of fame of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. Clemson University also honored Howard once more with the presentation of the Clemson Medallion, which is the highest public honor bestowed by the university to a living person who exemplifies the dedication and foresight of its founders. Howard was a charter member of the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium in 1994 as well.

TERRY KINARD

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Terry Kinard is the most decorated football player in Clemson history. Those honors grew in 2001 when he is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Clemson Ring of Honor.

Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2001 at the annual National Football Foundation ceremonies in New York City. He was also honored at the College Football Hall of Fame in August 2002.

Kinard, who played for the Tigers from 1979-82 and was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports as a senior, was just the second Tiger in history to be honored by the College Football Hall of Fame and the first since Banks McFadden in 1959.

Ironically, Kinard burst on the national scene at Notre Dame in 1979. Starting as a freshman, Kinard had two fourth-quarter interceptions and seven tackles overall to lead Clemson to a 16-10 victory over the Fighting Irish. Twenty-two years later, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, which is located just two miles from Notre Dame Stadium.

"This is a dream come true," stated Kinard. "It is something you don't expect, but when it does happen, you are thrilled. It is a great honor when you consider that only one other Clemson player has been named to the Hall of Fame. To be alongside a legend like Banks McFadden means a great deal to me.

"Clemson gave me the opportunity. I was very fortunate. I could not have picked a better place to go to school. I played with a lot of great players at Clemson, especially guys on our defense like Jeff Davis, Jeff Bryant and many others. I certainly could not have made it to the Hall of Fame without the great players we had at that time."

"I also have to thank Coach (Danny) Ford and the other coaches. I especially have to thank Coach Willie Anderson, who recruited me. Years later, he gave me the opportunity to go to Oklahoma and serve on his (high school) coaching staff. He impressed upon me the importance of finishing my degree, which I did (from Langston University in Oklahoma). It has made a world of difference. I am sure it made a difference in me getting into the Hall of Fame. He cared about me many years after I left Clemson and it says a lot about him and the people at Clemson."

A native of Sumter, S.C., Kinard was an AP First-Team All-American in 1981 and 1982, the only two-time AP First-Team All-American in school history. He was in fact a unanimous selection in 1982, one of the only unanimous first-team All-Americans in Tiger history.

Kinard recorded 17 interceptions during his Clemson career, still the high mark in school history and second in ACC history. He was in the top 15 in the nation in interceptions in 1981 and 1982, and he was a major reason Clemson had a combined record of 21-1-1 during those two years. Clemson's defense finished in the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense each year. He was Clemson's second leading tackler on the 1981 national championship team and led the 1982 squad that finished eighth in the AP poll.

At the conclusion of his Clemson career in 1982, Kinard was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft by the New York Giants, as he was the No. 10 overall pick of the draft. He played seven years for the Giants, including in the team's 1986 Super Bowl championship season. Kinard was named to the NFL All-Rookie team in 1983 and the Pro Bowl in 1988 as well.

Since his retirement from football, Kinard was named to Sports Illustrated's All-Century team of college football. In 2000, he was named Clemson's top player of the 20th Century by Sports Illustrated. He was also chosen to the USA Today All-Decade team for the 1980s.

In 1996, Kinard was named to Clemson's Centennial Team and received more votes than any other defensive player. In 2003, he was named one of the 50-greatest male athletes in ACC history and was also named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team.

"Terry Kinard was a dominating player because he was a great tackler who also could break on the ball and make the interception," said Ford, who was Kinard's head coach during his entire career at Clemson. "I haven't seen a player who could dominate a game from the secondary like he could. He covered a lot of ground and made a coach feel secure about the secondary.

"He had the ability to be a dominant player from the time he was a freshman. You don't see a lot of freshmen safeties take over a game in Notre Dame Stadium, but he did that when we defeated Notre Dame in 1979."

"When you look at what Kinard accomplished individually at Clemson and what Clemson did as a team during his career, you can see that he is most qualified to be in the College Football Hall of Fame."

LEVON KIRKLAND

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

For the first time since 2001, an addition is being made to the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium. Levon Kirkland joined former Tigers Banks McFadden, Steve Fuller, Jeff Davis, Fred Cone, Jerry Butler and Terry Kinard, former Head Coaches Frank Howard and Danny Ford and former Sports Information Director Bob Bradley on the façade of the North upper deck.

It is an illustrious group of men who have made a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson football from an individual and team standpoint.

Each person in the Clemson Ring of Honor has his or her own story, but some of them have a common denominator. Many reached greatness after coming to Clemson without a lot of fanfare.

Cone never played high school football and came to Clemson in 1947 as a walk-on because Howard's sister thought he looked athletic diving off a diving board into a neighbor's pool. Butler came to Clemson for track.

Kirkland, who never earned more than honorable mention all-state honors as a high school football player from Lamar, S.C., received Clemson's highest athletic honor.

"I really got discovered because some recruiters were coming to see players on an opposing team during my junior year. I had a good game with a couple of sacks, and I started to get some letters."

The notices came from Clemson and South Carolina for the most part. He did get scholarship offers from South Carolina State and App State, but that was it.

Fortunately for Clemson, former Linebackers Coach Miles Aldridge saw something in Kirkland.

"Coach Aldridge was my recruiter and did a great job keeping up with me. He never gave me lines about starting right away. He was honest, and I liked that."

Kirkland did not see the field when he came to Clemson for the 1987 season.

"The coaches thought I needed to mature physically, and they were right. I had a good attitude about it."

Looking back, it was the smart thing to do. By red-shirting, he traded what would have been a small role on the 1987 team for an All-America season in 1991.

By 1988, Kirkland was ready. In the season's sixth game, he made some big plays in a 49-17 win over a Duke team coached by Steve Spurrier.

"I had a strip sack that was a big play in the game and had another big play in the second half. That game gave me a lot of confidence."

Late in the year, Kirkland finished with a career-high 13 tackles, three tackles for loss, a sack and an interception in the ACC-title-clinching-win at Maryland.

More standout contests continued in 1989, including the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia when Kirkland was the MVP.

"We went to a press conference before that game, and I saw the MVP trophy. Wow, that was a big trophy. I had a goal to win that."

In 1990, Kirkland was the only underclassman finalist for the Butkus Award, and he was an All-American in 1991 as well. He finished his career with 40 tackles for loss and 19 sacks among his 273 tackles.

There were a lot of accolades for Kirkland, but what he remembers most is the camaraderie with his teammates, especially fellow defensive ends John Johnson, Wayne Simmons and Ashley Sheppard. They were as fierce a group as Clemson's four defensive linemen from the 2018 national championship squad.

"We had so much fun together. We were all so unselfish. Tommy West (his position coach) used to let us sub on our own. It didn't matter. If one of us got hot with a sack or tackle for loss, we stayed in the game. Other than that, we subbed every two series."

In his career, the Tigers won the ACC championship twice, had four top-20 seasons and posted a 39-8-1 record.

That success led to an NFL All-Pro career for Kirkland, who was named to the NFL's All-Decade team of the 1990s. In all, he played 176 career regular-season games and 13 playoff contests. He totaled 1,023 tackles, 19.5 sacks and 16 caused fumbles in 11 seasons.

His late wife, Keisha, who died of cancer at the age of 41 in 2013, had so much to do with that success in the NFL.

"I only had her for 11 years and miss her every day. She was such an inspiration the way she fought cancer. She was the person who got me to go back to Clemson and finish my degree (in 2004) after I finished my NFL career."

"I would not receive this Ring of Honor induction today without her."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Banks McFadden was Clemson's greatest athlete in history. Few schools can make such a bold, definitive statement about one of its former athletes, but few Clemson fans would argue. McFadden passed away at age 88 on June 4, 2005 after battling lung cancer.

McFadden was a standout at Clemson in football, basketball and track & field, earning three letters in each sport from 1936-40. He earned All-America honors in both basketball (1938-39) and football (1939), and he was named the nation's "Most Versatile Athlete" in 1939. He is one of just eight athletes in Division I history to be named an All-American in football and basketball over a career.

On the gridiron, McFadden was a triple-threat player, leading the Tigers to a 9-1 record and Clemson's first-ever bowl game in 1939. With McFadden batting down four passes in the second half and averaging 44 yards on 11 punts, the Tigers defeated a Frank Leahy-coached Boston College team 6-3 in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

McFadden held the Clemson single-season punting record (43.5 in 1939) for 40 years, and his 22 punts of 50+ yards in 1939 still stand as a Tiger single-season record. At the conclusion of his career, he was a first-round draft pick of the Brooklyn Dodgers of the NFL, the No. 4 selection of the draft. It is still tied for the highest NFL draft selection in Clemson history. He played one year in the NFL with the Dodgers and led the NFL in yards per carry before returning to Clemson.

In 1959, McFadden became the first Clemson football player inducted into the prestigious College Football Hall of Fame.

On the hardwood, McFadden led Clemson to the 1939 Southern Conference Tournament title, the only postseason tournament title in Tiger basketball history. The center was Clemson's top scorer each season and finished his career with a then-Tiger record 810 points.

In track & field, McFadden won three events in the state track meet in one afternoon, setting state records in all three of them. Earlier in the same year, he placed first in five events in a dual meet, scoring 25 points while the opposing team's score was just 28 points. During his senior year, he also pitched in one game for the Clemson baseball team.

After coaching Clemson's defensive backs under second-year Head Coach Frank Howard in 1941, McFadden joined the Army Air Corps and spent four years in North Africa and Italy. He was discharged as a colonel.

McFadden came back to Clemson after his service and was again the secondary coach, this time for four seasons (1946-49). He then took over as head freshman football coach for five years before returning to coach defensive backs in 1955, a spot he held until Howard retired following the 1969 season.

Besides his football coaching years, McFadden also put in a stint as varsity track coach, freshman basketball coach and for 10 years (1946-47 through 1955-56) was Clemson's head basketball coach. From 1947-48 through 1951-52, Clemson improved its conference victory total each year, the first coach in the history of college basketball to realize a conference victory improvement five consecutive years. The streak was culminated with an 11-4 Southern Conference record during the 1951-52 season.

After Howard resigned as head football coach in 1969, McFadden took over the university's intramural department, which he directed for 15 years.

McFadden came to Clemson in a 6'3" frame and skinny 165 pounds. According to former Clemson Sports Information Director Bob Bradley, Howard said, "If McFadden drank a can of tomato juice, they could have used him as a thermometer."

Howard was an assistant coach under Jess Neely when McFadden came to Clemson in 1936.

"I can remember the first time I saw him on the practice field," recalled Howard, who died in 1996. "He looked like one of those whooping cranes. I thought sure as the devil that Coach (Jess) Neely had made a mistake by giving this boy a scholarship. But he proved me wrong."

McFadden was granted a long list of honors throughout his career. In 1966, he was presented with Clemson University's Distinguished Alumni Award. He was a charter member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 1987, both his uniform number in basketball (#23) and uniform number in football (#66) were retired by Clemson University. In 1994, he was inducted as a charter member of the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium.

Of all of the honors he received as an athlete, he told Bradley that the 1939 football team MVP award was his highest honor.

"To me, when your teammates vote you something, then you feel pretty good. That award meant more than anything else (to me)."

McFadden is the only Clemson athlete in history to have both his football jersey number and basketball jersey numbers retired. In 1995, the Banks McFadden Building adjacent to Jervy Athletic Center was dedicated in his honor.

McFadden was married to the former "Aggie" Riggsby of Manning, S.C. for 55 years prior to her death in 2001. McFadden and his wife had four daughters, Lil, Patsy, Marcia and Jan.

MICHAEL DEAN PERRY

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Danny Ford had seen enough. He blew his whistle at the 8:03 mark of the second quarter of the Aug. 19, 1987 scrimmage in Memorial Stadium. He brought the entire team to the center of the field. People were wondering what had made him upset.

The press box during that time period was enclosed, so people could not hear what he was saying to the team. After a few minutes, the entire team applauded as #91 Michael Dean Perry headed towards the locker room in the west end zone.

"At first, I thought he was mad at me when he told me to go to the locker room," said Perry.

It was not noticeable that Perry had done anything wrong. He had not been called for a penalty on a late hit or even jumped offsides.

In fact, Perry had arguably had the greatest performance in a preseason scrimmage. In a quarter and a half, he had 10 tackles, six tackles for loss and two sacks.

Ford said after practice that he "dismissed" Perry from practice because he was too good. He did not remember ever doing that in his career.

"I'm not sure that was the right thing to do, but no one was blocking him. We couldn't get anything done on offense.

"No one has blocked him all preseason camp. He earned his early departure from practice."

Bill D'Andrea was in his second year of a four-year run as Clemson's offensive tackles coach.

"I thought Coach Ford might fire me on the spot," said D'Andrea with a smile when reflecting on Perry's performance that day. "We couldn't block him.

"In all my years in football, no one could anticipate the snap count quicker than Michael Dean Perry. He had an incredible burst of speed to go with it. We would look at film wondering if he was offsides, but when we slowed it down, he wasn't."

That burst is a big reason Perry was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor. It was a talent he developed as a youth playing another sport.

"I credit my quickness to playing basketball against my brothers," said Perry. "We were very competitive and all my brothers were very good athletes. I had to learn how to make a quick first step in basketball growing up, and that carried over to my football career."

That August scrimmage was a foreshadowing of what he would accomplish in regular-season games that year.

As a senior in 1987, Perry was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, was a first-team All-American by Football Writers Association and just the fifth defensive player to be the ACC Player-of-the-Year. His brother, William Perry, had won the same award in 1984. Michael Dean finished the season with 74 tackles, second on the team, and led the ACC in tackles for loss (24) and sacks (10).

Perry's senior year was his best, but he was far from a one-year wonder. As a freshman in 1984, he had a career-high 75 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and seven sacks. William had a team-high 100 tackles and a national-high 27 tackles for loss, giving the defensive linemen who played side-by-side that year 175 tackles and 42 tackles for loss. No Tiger interior defensive line duo has combined for those numbers since.

Michael Dean credited William for his early and future success at Clemson.

"William had the biggest impact on my career," said Michael Dean of his older brother. "I patterned everything I did after him and followed everything he told me. William always said 'players will play'."

Michael Dean took that to mean great players make big plays. William registered a record 60 tackles for loss during his Tiger career between 1981-84, and Michael Dean broke that mark with 61. They are still the top-two career tackle for loss totals in school history.

Michael Dean had an injury-riddled year in 1985, when he missed five games, but he still had 34 tackles and seven tackles for loss. He did not think he was a good NFL prospect until the 1985 season.

"I never thought I was good enough to play in the NFL until Coach Ford talked to me when I was injured in 1985. He basically said of my injury that it could have been worse and affected my NFL career.

"That struck me that he thought I had a career at the next level, and it made me think along those lines going forward."

Michael Dean continued to return to good health and earned First-Team All-ACC honors in 1986 as a junior with 56 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and nine sacks.

Team success is also a factor in consideration for the Clemson Ring of Honor. The Tigers won the ACC championship in 1986 and 1987 and finished No. 17 in the AP poll in 1986 and No. 10 in the UPI poll in 1987. The Tigers were 18-4-2 over those two seasons.

On April 24, 1988, Perry was a second-round draft pick (No. 50 overall) by the Cleveland Browns. It did not take him long to adapt to the professional game. He was named to the 1988 NFL All-Rookie team, then in his second year, he was named UPI NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year. He had 92 tackles to match his uniform number and seven sacks during that 1989 season.

"Bud Carson came in as head coach of the Browns in 1989 and recognized my ability to get a quick start," said Perry. "He told me to tilt (slant) and get upfield two yards as quickly as possible and disrupt the other team's line of scrimmage."

Carson had done this with "Mean" Joe Green when he coordinated Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense.

Perry's success continued in 1990, when he had 11.5 sacks and earned first-team All-Pro honors for the second time.

Overall, Perry was named to the Pro Bowl six times, second to Brian Dawkins' nine selections among former Tiger greats in the NFL.

Carson was one of the many coaches who had a positive impact on Perry's career. However, his selection to the Clemson Ring of Honor was about his college career, where Ford and Defensive Coordinator Tom Harper had a huge impact.

"The best way I could describe Coach Ford is that he was hard, but always fair.

"Coach Harper was a player's coach. Everyone I know who played for Coach Harper loved him. He always said, 'You win with thoroughbreds, not mules.'

"We had some thoroughbreds when I was at Clemson, and I share this award with them and the coaches who helped me along the way."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

C.J. Spiller, who was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2024, came to Clemson from the state of Florida as a five-star running back in 2006. It was a landmark signing, because Clemson had missed out on many outstanding players from the Sunshine State in the previous decade.

But fortunately, Wide Receivers Coach and Recruiting Coordinator Dabo Swinney had a positive attitude. How Spiller got to Clemson started with Swinney getting Spiller to sign a contract of sorts.

"When Coach Swinney came on a visit to my home in 2005, he had me sign one of his business cards, saying that I would visit Clemson," recalled Spiller. "I guess that was the first contract I ever signed."

"I had one visit left, either Clemson or Alabama. Alabama was sending me stuff, but I didn't hear much from them. Coach Swinney kept communicating."

"I came to Clemson in January, Martin Luther King Jr. Day weekend, of my senior year. Things have really changed in recruiting. Most players now commit as juniors or even seniors. But it was different 20 years ago."

Just a couple of weeks later on Feb. 1, 2006, Spiller made it official and signed with the Tigers.

"That morning, there was a lot of nervousness, because I knew 'Gator Nation' and 'Seminole Nation' would be there. I knew my mom wanted me to go to Florida, because it is close to my home."

Tiger staff members were listening to the announcement along with many other coaches in Swinney's office in the McFadden Building. Spiller shocked the world, sans Swinney, when he put on a Clemson cap.

"I didn't have anything with Clemson on it to wear. (Fellow signee) Kevin Alexander had a Clemson hat, so I took it off his head and put it on when I announced."

"The day he signed with Clemson changed the perception of the program," said Swinney. "It validated that we could get players at his level, and it changed the vision of the program."

Spiller had a remarkable freshman year, gaining 938 yards on 129 carries, a 7.3-yard average, still third highest behind two Travis Etienne seasons.

"He turned in some remarkable plays his freshman year," said Swinney. "I remember thinking during his freshman season that C.J. would be on the stadium façade some day."

Spiller split time during his first three seasons with James Davis, and the duo became known as "Thunder & Lightning" when they combined for 332 yards in a nationally televised win over No. 13 Georgia Tech. It was the first time ESPN College GameDay came to Clemson.

Spiller and Davis split the running back duties in 2006, 2007 and 2008. Both were productive, and today, Davis is third in Clemson history in career rushing yards (3,881), and Spiller is fourth (3,547).

In 2008, Clemson got off to a 3-3 start, and a change was made at the top, as Swinney replaced Tommy Bowden as interim head coach. The Tigers won four of the final six regular-season games, including a 31-14 win over South Carolina, and that led to Dr. Terry Don Phillips giving Swinney the job on a full-time basis.

Davis moved on to the NFL after the 2008 season, but Spiller had another year of eligibility. He had earned All-ACC honors on the field and in the classroom in 2008. Most believed Spiller would be a late first-round draft pick if he came out. He had a decision to make.

Jan. 15, 2009 is a day Tiger fans will always remember, for the drama of the moment and the impact it had on the future of the program.

Tim Bourret called an afternoon press conference for Spiller to announce his decision. No one knew what he was going to do. There was a conversation prior between the head coach and his star player. At one point, Spiller became emotional, which led many to believe he was going pro.

"I knew what I was going to do when I drove over to McFadden," stated Spiller. "I was at peace but nervous, because I was on the doorstep to my dream of a chance to go to the NFL."

"I got emotional in Coach Swinney's office because I knew my mother wanted me to turn professional, and I was going against something the woman who raised me wanted me to do."

"But in the end, it always came back to my conversations with my grandmother about the importance of education and the conversations I had with my uncle, who always gave me Godly wisdom."

When Spiller made the announcement, there were shouts of joy from his teammates.

"To get that reaction from my teammates meant the most to me. It made me understand the impact you can have by the way you carry yourself."

While Spiller had a Clemson Hall of Fame worthy first three years, we would not be celebrating him today as a Clemson Ring of Honor inductee had he not returned for the 2009 season. He was a first-team All-American as a kick returner and second-team All-American as a running back according to Walter Camp Foundation, the oldest All-America team. Spiller became the first player in history to be named All-American at two different positions in the same year by the organization.

That year, Spiller became the first ACC player in history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a season. He set an ACC record for all-purpose yards (2,680). In December 2009, he finished sixth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy. He was also a unanimous first-team All-American.

In his career, he set the NCAA record for career kick-off returns for touchdown (7), and his 7,588 career all-purpose yards were third in NCAA history, first among power conference players and first in ACC history.

"My senior year was magical," said #28.

Spiller's many accomplishments in 2009 were amazing considering he played the entire season with a turf toe injury he suffered on a punt return in the season opener.

"I didn't practice until Thursday of each week and had to have a shot prior to the last 11 regular-season games. Danny Poole and I had a great rehab schedule to get me ready each week."

Prior to the ACC Championship Game, he felt good and did not need a shot before the game, but he needed one at halftime. He had the greatest game of his career with a still ACC Championship Game record 233 rushing yards and four touchdowns. He also had 63 yards on kickoff returns and five receiving yards, good for 301 all-purpose yards.

Clemson lost the thrilling game 39-34, but Spiller was still named MVP, the only time a player on a losing team has been the MVP of any conference championship game.

"Looking back, I have to wonder what C.J. could have accomplished in 2009 if he was healthy the entire year," said Swinney.

Spiller and Swinney certainly had a special relationship, and that continued when Spiller became the running backs coach on his staff.

Spiller's journey back to Clemson got its start when he decided to volunteer as a track coach at nearby Liberty High School in 2017.

"My wife was a track coach at Liberty, and in the offseason, I helped out the track team with some pointers."

"I got more and more involved, and it just hit me. This is my purpose now, to help young people so they can have some of the experiences I have had."

Spiller was always involved with Clemson during his nine-year NFL career and was on the IPTAY Board of Directors.

"We had a luncheon at my house for the All In Foundation, and I told Coach Swinney I was thinking about getting into a master's program at Clemson."

Swinney's ears took note, and he began a conversation with Spiller about becoming a part of his staff.

In 2020, he served as a volunteer assistant under Running Backs Coach Tony Elliott.

"I learned so much from Coach Elliott," said Spiller. "I saw how he handled the room, I learned recruiting and learned the offensive system. Coach Elliott had such a positive effect on my career. He opened his arms to help me in any situation."

"That is why it is so special that we are doing the Ring of Honor induction during the Virginia game (in 2024)."

It was a special day for Spiller and Swinney because of the belief they have had in each other for almost 20 years.

"He has such a strong belief," said Spiller of Swinney. "He was the only one on the staff who believed I would come to Clemson. It shows his level of belief in his mission. It sets him apart. Our relationship is like father and son. When I was in the NFL and today, he has given me great advice."

Swinney put Spiller's impact on Clemson in perspective.

"C.J. has always been 'All In' with Clemson. He has been such a great representative of the school and our program. As great as he was as a player, he has just as much depth as a person, always doing the right thing and caring for people."

"His accomplishments and leadership in 2009 set a standard that has been carried on. He was one of the most prominent forefathers of the program. We wouldn't have won all these ACC championships, national championships and CFP appearances without him."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER

A name synonymous with not only the early years of Clemson football but the collegiate game is John Heisman.

A stern disciplinarian, he expected his players to be of high character and performance both on the football field and in the classroom.

Heisman coached the Tigers from 1900-03 and was responsible for putting the Clemson name among the annals of the great early collegiate teams.

Heisman was brought to Clemson by a professor and later university president, Walter Riggs. In the spring of 1894, Riggs was a graduate manager for the Auburn football team, and he was responsible for finding a coach for the 1895 season. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams of Penn, captain of the 1894 football team, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Penn player, and his coach at Oberlin a few years earlier.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was engaged in raising tomatoes. Having sunk about all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to go back to his old love of football and he readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year. Riggs later was hired as a professor at Clemson and he hired Heisman at Clemson in 1900. (Riggs started the Clemson football program in 1896 and was head coach in 1896,99).

Heisman began his coaching career at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years in the profession. His career included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

He invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass and originated the center snap and the word "hike" (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Tiger baseball coach between 1901-03.

Clemson was a powerhouse program during his tenure and was a most feared opponent. His secret was that he depended on smart, quick players rather than large size and brawn.

William Heisman, a nephew of John Heisman, often told a story on how his famous uncle stressed academics.

"I remember a story Coach Heisman used to tell me about this famous football player he confronted in the locker room before a big game. My uncle came busting through the door and went over to this guy and said, 'You can't play today because you haven't got your grades up to par.' The player looked up at my uncle and said, 'Coach, don't you know that the sportswriters call this toe on my right foot the million-dollar toe?' My uncle snapped back right quick and said, 'What good is it if you only have a fifteen-cent head?'"

Another favorite Heisman story was the speech he used to make before a season began. Heisman would face his recruits holding a football. "What is it?" he would sharply ask. Then he would tell his players, "a football is a prolate spheroid, an elongated sphere - in which the outer leather casing is drawn up tightly over a somewhat smaller rubber tubing." After a long pause he would say, "better to have died as a small boy than to fumble this football."

Heisman broke down football into these percentages: talent - 25 percent, mentality - 20 percent, aggressiveness - 20 percent, speed - 20 percent and weight - 15 percent. He considered coaching as being a master-commanding, even dictatorial.

"He has no time to say 'please' or 'mister', and he must be occasionally severe, arbitrary and something of a czar."

On Nov. 29, 1900, Clemson defeated Alabama 35-0, which allowed Heisman's team to finish the season undefeated with a 6-0 record. This was Clemson's first undefeated team and was the only team to win all of its games in a season until the 1948 squad went 11-0. The Tigers only allowed two touchdowns during the entire 1900 season.

Clemson opened the 1901 season with a 122-0 win over Guilford. The Tigers averaged 30 yards per play and a touchdown every minute and 26 seconds. The first half lasted 20 minutes, while the second half lasted only 10 minutes. Legend has it that every man on the team scored a touchdown in this game.

In his third season, on Nov. 27, 1902, Clemson played in the snow for the first time in a game against Tennessee. The Tigers won the game 11-0 and claimed the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association crown. (This early conference had several southern colleges and universities as members.)

In his final season in 1903, Clemson defeated Georgia Tech 73-0 on Oct. 17. Clemson rushed the ball 55 times for 615 yards, while the Yellow Jackets ran the ball 35 times and collected just 28 yards. The second half was shortened to 15 minutes.

On Nov. 24, 1903, Clemson participated in its "First Bowl Game." Clemson and Cumberland met on this date for the "Championship of the South." The contract for the game was drawn up two weeks before the game was to be played. Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. Clemson was considered to be the best team in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

The game was played at a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. John Maxwell scored as a result of a 100-yard kickoff return. After the news came back to Clemson that the game ended in a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Heisman's 19-3-2 record in Tigertown is still the best in Clemson history on a percentage basis. The man who is honored each year with the awarding of the Heisman Trophy holds the distinction of building the early foundation of Clemson's football tradition.

A play documenting his career at Clemson was performed on campus in the fall of 2003.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER

Perhaps one of Clemson's most beloved coaches was Jess Neely.

Neely's influence and inspiration is still present today as the IPTAY Scholarship Club was founded during his coaching tenure. IPTAY is the lifeblood of the Clemson Athletic Department. It provides funds for athletic scholarships and capital improvements.

Thousands of athletes have benefitted through the IPTAY Scholarship fund since its inception in 1934. That first year of IPTAY, Neely and his staff convinced 160 people to pay $10.00 a year to Clemson, for a grand total of $1,600 (not bad during the middle of the Great Depression).

Neely was head coach at Clemson from 1931 through 1939 and spent the next 26 years at Rice.

Neely coached Clemson to its first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where the Tigers capped a 9-1-0 season by beating Boston College 6-3. Clemson ended the season ranked No. 12 in the AP poll, its first top 20 season in history.

Boston College was ranked No. 11 and it was Clemson's first win over a top-20 team in its history. The team featured the play of Banks McFadden Clemson's first AP All-American. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely coached Rice to four Southwest Conference championships and six bowl appearances, the last being a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1961.

During 40 years of college coaching he compiled a record of 207-99-14. For his accomplishments, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

Neely graduated from Vanderbilt in 1924 after lettering three years in football and serving as captain of the 1922 football team. He coached a year of high school football before returning to his alma mater to obtain a law degree. But he never practiced law.

He coached four years at Southwestern College in Clarksville, Tenn. and then went to Alabama in 1928. It was there that he met Frank Howard. Neely brought Howard to Clemson as line coach in 1931. Howard replaced him in 1940 and remained as head coach for 30 years. In 1967, Neely returned to his alma mater as athletic director. He officially retired in 1971, but continued to coach golf at Vanderbilt until 1981, when he moved back to Texas.

"If I didn't look in the mirror every day, I wouldn't know how old I am," Neely once said. "Working with the boys makes you feel young, I feel that in athletics the boys learn a sense of loyalty and sacrifice and values they don't learn anywhere else.

"They learn to compete and that is what life is all about...it's competition.

"If they make good in football, chances are they'll be successful elsewhere. I like to see that those boys make something of themselves. That is my reward.

"The boys go to college to study and get that degree. Playing football is a side activity. When fellows go to a school first to play football they get an entirely wrong sense of values.

"And when you start them off with the wrong sense, it isn't difficult for them to go astray."

"He was a cool, southern gentleman, but he worked us like dogs," said Dick Maegle. "The workouts were always twice as hard as the games. There were no superstars, no victory that was better than all the other victories. To him, football was a team game and we were all team players."

Maegle was the player tackled in a famous episode in the 1954 Cotton Bowl, when frustrated Tommy Lewis of Alabama came off the bench to stop a certain touchdown. Rice won that game 28-6.

Neely died at the age of 85 in 1983, but his landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to the Tigers' outstanding football tradition.

Jess Neely's last Clemson team won eight games in the regular season with just one loss to a Tulane team that would finish the season with an 8-1-1 record and No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press. The 8-1 Tigers were rewarded with an invitation to play Boston College in the fourth Cotton Bowl, but Clemson first had to get permission from the Southern Conference, which they immediately granted. The 1939 season not only resulted in Clemson's first bowl appearance, but also the Tigers' first, First-Team Associated Press All-American, Banks McFadden.

On the last play of the first quarter, Bru Trexler punted to Boston College's Charlie O'Rourke, who fielded the punt on the Clemson 40 and returned it to the 13. Two running plays lost 10 yards, but on third down Frank Davis gained six. Alex Lukachik then kicked a 34-yard field goal to put the Eagles up, 3-0.

Clemson's scoring drive began when McFadden returned a punt to the 33. Charlie Timmons rushed for 15 yards in two plays, and two plays after that, McFadden hit Wister Jackson with a 16-yard pass to the Eagle 20. Timmons ran the final 20 yards in three carries, but Shad Bryant missed the extra point.

the gift, however, as Joe Blalock fumbled after a short pass.

The game turned into a defensive struggle in the second half, although Boston College did penetrate deep into Clemson territory on two occasions. The Eagles took the opening kickoff to the Clemson 19, but a holding penalty and an incomplete pass ended the threat and BC was forced to punt.

Late in the game, the Eagles drove to the Clemson 11 yard line, but Bryant and McFadden each broke up two passes and Clemson took over possession on downs.

McFadden effectively bottled up the Eagles other than those drives with his punting. His 44-yard average on 11 kicks, including two boots for 51 and 55 yards in the second half, prevented Boston College from getting good field position, and the Clemson defense made the 6-3 score stand.

Later in the quarter, a 51-yard punt by McFadden started Boston College at its 20. The Eagles fumbled on first down and Clemson's George Fritts recovered at the 24. The Tigers could do nothing with Clemson opened the 1948 season with a 53-0 shutout of Presbyterian in the Tigers' first-ever night home game and they closed the regular season with a 20-0 blanking of The Citadel in the first game played at the Bulldogs' Johnson Hagood Stadium. In between, the Tigers shut out three more opponents and beat five others on the way to a 10-0 record, a No. 11 ranking in the polls and an invitation to play Missouri in the fourth Gator Bowl.

Clemson kicked off, but three plays later Missouri fumbled and Clemson's Bob Martin recovered at the 19. A pass interference call gave Clemson the ball at the one, and Fred Cone scored from there. Jack Miller added the point.

Ray Mathews recovered a Missouri fumble later in the quarter to give Clemson the ball at its 35. Mathews took the next play for 26 yards and five plays later Bobby Gage passed to Martin for 19 more. Cone scored for the second time from the one, and Miller's conversion gave the Southern Conference champs a 14-0 lead.

After a kickoff, Missouri launched an 80-yard drive to score its first touchdown. Harold Entsminger capped the 13-play march with a quarterback sneak.

Gage was intercepted on the next Clemson drive and up at 14.

Clemson took the second-half kickoff and used up six minutes of clock on the way to its third touchdown. Gage ran and passed for 19 yards on two separate plays and the Tigers scored on a flea-flicker pass from Cone to Gage to John Poulos. Miller completed the 80-yard drive with his third PAT.

A Missouri punt rolled dead at the Clemson one, and after an incomplete pass, Gage threw a pass that hit the ground in the end zone and was ruled a safety. Clemson's lead was then cut to 21-16.

Clemson then launched an 11-play surge to the Missouri 12. Miller kicked a 32-yard field goal that would prove to be the winning points.

Dave Ashley returned the kickoff to the Missouri 40, and seven plays later, Richard Braznell passed to Kenneth Bounds for a 20-yard touchdown. Dawson added the point to bring Missouri within one point with five minutes left. Clemson took the kickoff and ran out the clock to preserve the win.

Wilbur Volz returned the theft to the Missouri 46. Missouri kept the ball on the ground and Entsminger carried over from the one for the score. Dawson added his second point after and the game was tied Clemson claimed its first Atlantic Coast Conference championship in 1956 on the strength of a 4-0-1 league mark. The Tigers were 7-1-2 overall and were a surprise choice to play in the 22nd Orange Bowl, as only three weeks before their selection, the Tigers had been shut out by Miami (21-0) in the same stadium. Colorado, which was 7-2-1 and the Big-Seven runner-up, was chosen as Clemson's opponent.

After a scoreless first quarter, Colorado got on track with a seven-play, 75-yard drive. The Buffaloes' catalyst was a 26-yard run by Bob Stransky that moved the ball to the Clemson 23. Four plays later, John "The Beast" Bayuk scored from the two. Ellwin Indorf added the point after.

Clemson came out of the lockerroom and marched 69 yards in 15 plays to score on Joel Wells's three-yard run. After a punt, Clemson moved to the 29 on Bob Spooner's two runs. Three plays later, Wells ran 58 yards on a counter trap off the belly series for the Tigers' second score. Bussey's point after made the score 20-14 Colorado.

the ball in from the one and with Bussey's third extra point, Clemson led for the first time at 21-20.

Although leading, Bussey attempted a second onside kick. Colorado recovered and marched 53 yards in eight plays to go ahead for good on Bayuk's one-yard plunge. Indorf kicked the extra point and the Buffaloes led 27-21. The two teams traded turnovers, and Colorado ran out the clock.

Frank Howard's threatened resignation during halftime inspired the comeback in the second half. "I told them I was going to resign if they didn't play better in the second half. I told them I didn't want to be associated with any team that played like that."

When Howard met Colorado Head Coach Dal Ward at midfield, Ward asked him what was the matter with his team. Howard said "I just don't know."

Later, Howard explained that his team refused to block in the first half, but in the second half, they got down to business. He had words of praise for John Bayuk, Colorado's fullback, and said he was as good as any fullback that Clemson had faced.

Clemson recovered the onside kick, but the Tigers were forced to punt. Colorado then fumbled at its 11 and Tommy Sease recovered. Spooner, who had been the workhorse on the first scoring drive, carried the South Carolina, who had been shut out by Clemson the previous two years, scored 20 second half points to take a 26-6 win over Frank Howard's 1958 team. The only other blemish on the ACC Champions' 8-2 regular season record was a 13-0 loss at Georgia Tech. For their efforts, the Tigers were invited to play the nation's number-one team, LSU, in the 25th Sugar Bowl.

LSU drove deep into Clemson territory three times in the first half, but two fumbles and a thwarted fake field goal killed the drives. Clemson could do no better, though, as none of its first six drives went past midfield.

Clemson moved to the LSU 27 yard line on its first drive of the second half, but a fumble gave the ball back to the other set of Tigers. On Clemson's next possession, LSU got the break it had been looking for. On fourth down, the ball slipped out of snapper Paul Snyder's hands and hit up-man Doug Cline in the leg and Duane Leopard recovered for LSU at the Clemson 11.

LSU picked up two yards on its first three tries, but on fourth down halfback Billy Cannon hit tight end Mickey Mangham in the corner of the end zone for the only score of the game. Cannon kicked the extra point and LSU led 7-0.

Clemson had one last chance late in the fourth quarter. The Tigers started at their 17 and 17 plays later were was pleased with his team.

"Hell! I think we'd have beat them if that boy had held onto that little screen pass," Howard said. "I was going for those two points and beat them. I didn't think we would hold them to one touchdown, but I didn't think they would shut us out, either."

"LSU has a good team, they rate the No. 1 spot in the nation. Cannon is quite a boy. Deserves his All-American rating."

"It was a wonderful victory. They're just as fine when you win 'em, 7-0 as 30-0. I'm very happy that we won," said LSU Coach Paul Dietzel, who won the national championship at age 34.

"Clemson proved tougher than most people figured. But we knew we would have to play at our top peak to beat them. They were a good team."

The 1959 season was one of firsts, lasts and other milestones. Clemson won the last "Big Thursday" game with archrival South Carolina, 27-0, one of five opponents the Tigers would whitewash, the second-highest shutout total in a Clemson season. The 9-2 team was Clemson's third ACC Championship unit and Frank Howard's last bowl team.

After the season-ending win over Furman, Clemson was invited to play TCU in the inaugural Bluebonnet Bowl, which would be the Tigers' second post-season appearance in the calendar year of 1959. The 23-7 win over the Horned Frogs was Clemson's 300th football victory.

Alternate quarterback Lowndes Shingler guided Clemson on a 12-play, 63-yard drive to the TCU five yard line, but the Tigers' drive stalled. Lon Armstrong hit on a 22-yard field goal as the second quarter started to put Clemson ahead 3-0.

Not to be outdone, TCU second-stringer Donald George moved his team on a 12-play, 63-yard drive to the end zone. The Horned Frogs scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 19-yard halfback pass from Jack Reding to Harry Moreland.

TCU took over.

Clemson got pass-happy in the final 15 minutes and scored two touchdowns for a comfortable lead. With a third-and-18 situation at its own 32, White threw to Gary Barnes, who caught the ball at midfield and sprinted in for a score. After an interception, Shingler threw to Tommy King coming across the middle for a 23-yard touchdown, but Shingler's point after was wide, and Clemson led 16-7.

Clemson returned to its running game for its final scoring drive late in the quarter. Shingler, Doug Daigneault and Ron Scrudato moved the Tigers from their 37 to the TCU one and Scrudato ran off right tackle for six. Armstrong's kick put the game out of TCU's reach.

The win over the No. 7 Horned Frogs was the highest-ranked bowl win in Tiger history at the time.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Clemson did drive to the TCU 29 midway through the quarter. Harvey White's fourth-down pass to George Usry was just one yard short of the needed first down and Clemson resurfaced in the national spotlight in 1977 after winning eight games and making its first bowl appearance in 18 years. First-year coach Charley Pell guided his team to a 7-6 win at Georgia, a near-upset of eventual National Champion Notre Dame at home, and came within an extra point of claiming the ACC Championship. After Jerry Butler's twisting, diving catch in the end zone beat South Carolina, Clemson accepted the invitation to play defending National Champion Pittsburgh in the 33rd annual Gator Bowl.

Clemson won the opening coin toss, but that was to be the only thing the Tigers would win that night as the Matt Cavanaugh-led Panthers scored six of the 12 times they had the ball, set seven Gator Bowl records and handed the Tigers one of their 25 worst defeats in history with a 34-3 score.

Cavanaugh threw four touchdown passes (three to fullback Elliott Walker), passed for a Clemson opponent record 387 yards and accounted for 402 yards in total offense. Pitt set a Gator Bowl team record for passing yards and first downs, while Cavanaugh set the individual mark for passing yardage. If that was not enough, the Pittsburgh defense stymied the Clemson offense all night by keeping Steve Fuller & Company bottled up or causing turnovers the Tigers' offense did get on track.

drive bogged down and Obed Ariri hit on a 49-yard field goal which set the Gator Bowl record for distance.

Fuller led Clemson on offense with 192 yards. He had been named ACC Player-of-the-Year as a junior. Randy Scott (13), Mark Heniford (13) and Bubba Brown led the Tiger defense with double-figure tackle totals.

Although the Tigers were out-classed by the Panthers, the 1977 appearance in the Gator Bowl was the start of a new era of football pride for Clemson.

Pittsburgh was leading 17-0 when the Tigers began their only scoring drive early in the second quarter. Fuller mixed passes to Anthony King and Butler with runs by Ken Callicutt to move to the Pittsburgh 32. The After 86 years of playing football, Clemson claimed its first National Championship with a 22-15 win over perennial Big Eight power Nebraska in the 48th Orange Bowl. After a 13-3 win over 1980 National Champion Georgia at home, the Tigers worked their way to the number-one ranking in both wire service polls by season's end. The win over the Cornhuskers gave Clemson the national title and its third perfect season in history.

Nebraska took the kickoff, but three plays later, Tiger middle guard William Devane recovered a Mark Mauer fumble at the Nebraska 33. Quarterback Homer Jordan drove Clemson to the Nebraska 24 before the drive stalled, and Donald Igwebuike drilled a 41-yard field goal to put the ACC champions up 3-0.

Nebraska came right back, however, as it drove 69 yards to score on a 25-yard halfback pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels. Kevin Seibel's extra point gave Nebraska the lead at 7-3 with 6:43 to go in the first quarter.

After an exchange of punts, the Clemson offense moved from the Nebraska 42 yard line to the 21 to set up Igwebuike's second field goal. The 37-yard boot narrowed the score to 7-6.

A second-quarter Phil Bates fumble gave Clemson the ball at the Nebraska 27, and the running combination of

On its second possession of the second half, Clemson drove 75 yards to score its final touchdown of the night, a 13-yard pass from Jordan to All-American receiver Perry Tuttle in the corner of the end zone. It was Tuttle's eighth touchdown grab of the season, which set a school record. Bob Paulling's extra point put the Tigers ahead, 19-7.

After Billy Davis's 47-yard punt return, Jordan moved the Tigers to the 20, where Igwebuike kicked a 36-yard field goal, his third, to put Clemson ahead 22-7.

After a near-interception by Johnny Rembert, Mauer engineered an eight-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard run by Roger Craig. After a penalty, Craig ran in the two-point conversion from eight yards out to close the gap to 22-15 with nine minutes to play.

The Clemson defense shut down the Big Red on their final extended drive, then the offense held on to the ball for over five minutes to run down the clock to six seconds. Andy Headen deflected Mauer's desperation pass to preserve the win and the championship for Clemson.

Jeff Davis led the Tiger defense with 14 tackles in his final game. He also recovered a fumble, giving him a school-record eight for his career. Bill Smith added a career-high 10 tackles from his defensive end position.

Jordan, Kevin Mack and Cliff Austin moved the ball to the two. Austin, who had been stuck in a hotel elevator for two hours earlier in the day, scampered in for the score that gave Clemson the lead for good.

Clemson met a Big Ten school for only the second time in history when it faced Minnesota in the Independence Bowl. It was an interesting matchup of teams that enjoyed moving the ball on the ground, as both clubs gained over 200 rushing yards in the contest. The team with the higher rushing total prevailed, a fact that was easily predictable, as the Gophers churned out 257 yards rushing in a 20-13 Minnesota win.

Minnesota was coached by John Gutekunst, who had taken over for Lou Holtz at the end of the regular season. Holtz had resigned in December to become head coach at Notre Dame.

Clemson held a 13-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter, but for the fifth time in the last 13 games the Tigers could not hold the fourth-quarter lead. Valdez Baylor scored on a one-yard run with 4:56 left to give Minnesota a final ledger of 7-5. Clemson mounted a final drive in the last few minutes and advanced to the Minnesota 31, but a fourth-down pass for Ray Williams was overthrown.

Ricky Foggie, a native of South Carolina, led the Golden Gophers with 183 yards of total offense.

Ray Williams caught five passes for 58 yards, while Terrance Roulhac had 63 yards in receptions and 90 yards in kickoff returns. Another wide receiver, Keith Jennings, scored Clemson's only touchdown when he caught a three-yard pass from running back Stacey Driver in the third quarter.

Henry Walls led Clemson defensively with 13 tackles, while A.J. Johnson was outstanding in the secondary with seven stops. Dwayne Meadows established a career high with 13 stops from his defensive line position.

Kenny Flowers had another outstanding day for the Tigers with a career high 148 yards, including a 32-yard run. It was his seventh 100-yard day of the year, his sixth century game in the last seven contests.

Christmas came two days late for the Tigers as they won their first bowl since the 1982 Orange Bowl. After a brilliant first half display of offense and defense, Clemson managed to hold off a second-half Stanford rally and go on to defeat the 17th-ranked Cardinal, 27-21. Before a Gator Bowl crowd of 80,104, the Tigers scored 27 unanswered points in the first half and appeared to be on the way to a rout. But the second half was a different ball game as Stanford came out strong and put up 21 unanswered points of its own.

Gator Bowl MVP Rodney Williams completed 8-11 passes in the first half, but it was his execution of the option that helped Clemson gain a 27-0 halftime lead. After punting on their first possession, the Tigers scored on their next five. With the score 17-0 in the second quarter, Reggie Harris knocked the ball loose on a Stanford kickoff return and the Tigers recovered on Stanford's 16-yard line. Two plays later, Ray Williams took a reverse in for a 14-yard touchdown, his first of the season. David Treadwell added his longest field goal of the year (46) on Clemson's next possession, putting the Tigers up 27-0 at the intermission.

1:43 left to play in the game Clemson was forced to punt to the Cardinal with only a touchdown's lead. But the Tiger defense rose to the occasion, as Stanford gained only six yards on the next four downs. The offense fell on the ball to run the clock out and the Tigers emerged victorious.

Tailbacks Terrence Flagler and Kenny Flowers combined for 149 yards. Sophomore Ricardo Hooper led the receiving corps with two catches for 44 yards. Terrance Roulhac and Flagler each had three catches with 22 and 23 yards, respectively. Rodney Williams rushed 16 times for 18 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Tigers were led by linebacker Henry Carter who recorded a career-high 13 tackles. Gene Beasley added seven tackles and broke up two passes. The game also marked Michael Dean Perry's offensive debut, as he was put in as a blocking back on a goal-line situation in the first half.

But the Cardinal came back from halftime a different team. Kodak All-American tailback Brad Muster rushed for a touchdown and caught two scoring passes while the Clemson offense came to a standstill. With Everything went the Tigers way in sunny Florida as Clemson soundly defeated Joe Paterno's Penn State team by the score of 35-10. It was the largest margin of defeat for a Joe Paterno-coached football team in a bowl game. Rodney Williams was selected the Citrus Bowl's Most Valuable Player as he led the Tigers in a brilliant air attack that took the Nittany Lions by complete surprise, and complemented it with a solid ground game.

The win was Danny Ford's fourth bowl victory in only nine seasons as Clemson's head coach. It also marked Rodney Williams' second bowl victory in his three-year playing career at Clemson and the second consecutive year that he was named the MVP of a postseason bowl. In 1986, Williams won the honor as the Tigers defeated Stanford in the Gator Bowl.

Williams, who was also named the Offensive Player-of-the-Game, completed 14 of 24 passes for 214 yards. His primary target was wide receiver Keith Jennings, who hauled in seven passes for 110 yards, his best career performance. Wideout Gary Cooper also added four receptions for 56 yards against Penn State.

Terry Allen was the leading rusher with 105 yards and one touchdown. Fullback Tracy Johnson ran for 88 yards and three touchdowns. Joe Henderson added 54 yards on the ground and another touchdown.

Defensively, Clemson was led by cornerback James Lott's eight tackles. Safety Richard Smith also had seven tackles and one pass broken up. Strong safety Gene Beasley and linebacker Doug Brewster both had six tackles.

Linebacker Dorian Marable was selected the Citrus Bowl's Defensive Player-of-the-Game with his five tackles, including one for a loss. He also intercepted a pass in the end zone and returned it 46 yards in the third quarter.

The Tigers rushed for 285 yards against Penn State to go with the 214 yards passing. It was the first bowl game in which Clemson had at least 200 yards passing and 200 yards rushing.

The Tigers rang in the New Year in fine fashion with a 13-6 victory over the Oklahoma Sooners, moving into the top-10 of the final AP poll for the first time since 1982 with a No. 9 ranking. The victory also gave Danny Ford a victory over the winningest active coach in Division I, Barry Switzer. Ford defeated the top-three winningest active coaches of the decade, with wins over Switzer, Tom Osborne (Nebraska) and Joe Paterno (Penn State).

Although the Tigers faced a wishbone offense for the first time since Ford became head coach, the Clemson defense came through with flying colors, holding the Sooners to only 116 yards, and no touchdowns on the ground.

The game was a defensive struggle, as the two teams failed to combine for 500 yards of total offense. The first five series of the first quarter ended in punts for both teams. Late in the quarter, the Sooners drove down to the Clemson one-yardline, and the Tigers defense faced a first-and-goal situation. Outside linebacker Levon Kirkland stopped the ballcarrier for no gain on first down. On second down Jesse Hatcher sacked Jamelle Holieway at the 19. After an incomplete pass, the Sooners were forced to settle for a field goal.

Doug Brewster intercepted a pass early in the second quarter to set up the Tigers' first score, a 20-yard field goal by Chris Gardocki. With time running out in the first half, Gardocki put the Tigers up with another kick, this time a 46-yarder.

A fumble in the third quarter gave the Sooners the opportunity to take the lead, but the Tiger defense held and R.D. Lashar hit again from 30 yards. The Tigers responded on the next series, driving 80 yards in 15 plays for the game's only touchdown, as Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run. Allen, the game's Most Valuable Player, rushed for 25 yards and caught two passes for 17 yards on the drive.

Defensive MVP Jesse Hatcher caused and recovered a fumble on the Sooners' next drive, but the Sooners would have one more opportunity to score. After a punt, Oklahoma drove from its own 20 to the Clemson 14, as Holieway put the Tiger secondary to the test by putting the ball in the air. On the last play of the game, freshman Dexter Davis knocked down a pass in the end zone to seal the Tiger victory.

Terry Allen was named MVP. Allen rushed for only 53 yards, his season low, but scored the game's only touchdown and caught four passes for 47 yards to lead all Tiger receivers.

The Tigers closed out the 1989 season with a stylish victory over West Virginia and Heisman Trophy finalist Major Harris, as a dominant Clemson defense held the high-powered Mountaineer offense to only 237 yards in total offense. The win gave Clemson's senior class the ACC record for victories as they became the first class in conference history to record 38 wins and the first Clemson team ever to win four straight bowl games.

West Virginia quarterback Major Harris came into the game ranked eighth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency but the Clemson defense, led by outside linebacker Levon Kirkland, enabled the shifty Harris to gain only 17 yards on the ground and 119 yards in the air on an 11-21 passing effort. Kirkland was named MVP for his efforts, as he had nine tackles, a five-yard sack, caused a key fumble, broke up a Mountaineer pass and recorded three quarterback pressures.

The fourth quarter was all Clemson, as the Tigers moved the ball 47 yards on the ground to set up a four-yard Joe Henderson touchdown. Vince Taylor recovered a second Harris fumble and after a Clemson punt, freshman defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, the ACC sack leader, knocked the ball loose from Harris once again and fell on it in the end zone for a Tiger touchdown, upping the score to 24-7 in favor of Clemson. As the final seconds ticked off the clock, DeChane Cameron came in at quarterback for the Tigers and hit Rodney Fletcher over the middle for a 34-yard gain to set up a 24-yard Chris Gardocki field goal, putting the final score at 27-7.

Senior tailback Joe Henderson led the Tigers in rushing with 92 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown, while Chris Morocco, who was shaken up late in the game, gained 65 yards on the ground on 11 carries. Rodney Fletcher was the leading receiver as he pulled down three catches for 66 yards.

Chris Gardocki kept the Tigers in good field position, as he had a 46-yard average on four punts, including a long kick of 63.

Defensively, linebacker Doug Brewster led the team in tackles with 10, followed by Kirkland's nine and strong safety Arlington Nunn and inside linebacker Ed McDaniel, who had seven stops each.

After a separation of 22 years, two head coaches found themselves once again on the same football field. This time, they were on opposite sidelines. Ken Hatfield and John Mackovic, who had been graduate assistants together at Army West Point in the 1960's, were reunited in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

The Clemson defense dominated the line by holding Illinois to 247 yards, 150 yards under their season average. The Clemson offense surprised the Illini defense with an unexpected aerial assault. Tiger quarterback and game MVP DeChane Cameron, who was less than a 50 percent passer in the regular season, completed 14 of 19 passes for a Hall of Fame Bowl record 73 percent.

Cameron's passing yardage totalled 141 yards and he completed TD passes to Doug Thomas and Howard Hall. It was the first TD reception for both players in their respective careers. Thomas caught five passes on the day for 57 yards, career highs for both categories for the senior in his last game.

Clemson took its opening possession 71 yards to the Illinois two where Chris Gardocki tapped in any easy three. After Illinois fumbled on its first offensive play of the game, Clemson scored a touchdown with a 14-yard pass from Cameron to Thomas. Clemson had not scored a passing touchdown in any of its four previous bowl victories.

In the second quarter, the Tigers would score two more touchdowns. The first was the result of a 17-yard Cameron pass to fullback Howard Hall. It was just the third TD pass to a Clemson fullback in the last 18 years. Clemson then put the contest out of reach just three plays later when Arlington Nunn scored on a 34-yard interception return. It was the senior's third interception returned for a TD in 1990, a Clemson record.

The Tiger defense continued to hold Illinois throughout the remainder of the game. John Johnson led the Tiger pass defense, as he had two sacks to lead a point-prevention unit that had six sacks on the day. Illinois reached the Clemson eight-yard line in the fourth quarter, but the Tiger defense forced a fumble and Ed McDaniel picked up the ball. Illinois had the ball in Tiger territory just three times.

The Tiger defense earned its third shutout of the year. It was the first shutout at a Hall of Fame Bowl and Clemson's first bowl shutout in 17 bowls. The 30-0 triumph was a Tiger record for victory margin in a bowl game.

Clemson's bowl game victory streak ended at five as the Tigers left the state of Florida with their first bowl loss since 1985, and their worst defeat since 1986, when No. 14 California defeated No. 13 Clemson by a score of 37-13 in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

For the first time since the 1988 season, the Clemson defense, which led the nation in rushing defense in 1991, allowed an opposing running back to rush for over 100 yards, as California's Russell White crossed the century mark with 103 yards.

The Golden Bears scored early and often in the first half, taking the opening kickoff 76 yards for a touchdown and adding a 31-yard field goal on their third possession. Clemson was unable to gain a first down after the ensuing kickoff and was forced to punt. Although Chuck Lynch punted 49 yards, Brian Treggs eluded the Tiger special forces unit and went the distance for a 72-yard touchdown.

Treggs had 124 punt return yards, most ever against Clemson in a bowl game and one of the top opponent performances in any game.

Clemson got on the board for the first time with time running out in the first quarter as Nelson Welch connected on a 32-yard field goal on a drive highlighted by a 43-yard run by fullback Rudy Harris.

The highlight of the game for the Tigers came with just under five minutes remaining in the first half, as DeChane Cameron broke loose for a 62-yard touchdwn. That play marked the longest run from scrimmage for a Tiger quarterback in 13 years, but also marked the only touchdown that Clemson scored that afternoon.

The only score for Clemson in the second half was a 36-yard field goal by Welch in the third quarter.

The Tiger defense managed to hold California scoreless in the fourth quarter, but Clemson could not put up any points, as it turned the ball over three times on interceptions and once more on downs.

Two Tigers who were playing in their last game in a Clemson uniform were named team Most Valuable Players in the loss. Defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, who had six tackles for the game, including three tackles for loss and one-and-a-half sacks, was named the Tigers' defensive MVP, while quarterback DeChane Cameron was named Clemson's Most Valuable Offensive Performer, after he scored Clemson's only touchdown and had 189 yards in total offense.

Heading into the Peach Bowl with Kentucky, Clemson owned the seventh-best bowl winning percentage (61.1) in college football history. The Tigers upped that percentage in an exciting way, with a 14-13 win over Kentucky. Tommy West became the first coach in NCAA history to win his first game for a school in a bowl game without serving as a coach in that program in the regular season.

A tandem of running backs who hailed from Pensacola, Fla. led the Clemson rushing attack, as tailback Rodney Blunt rushed for a season-high 58 yards on 15 carries to lead the team. But it was freshman Emory Smith who was named the Tigers' offensive MVP, as he rambled for 45 yards, including a two-yard touchdown run.

After taking over at its own two, quarterback Dexter McCleon engineered a 98-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard run by Emory Smith.

The Wildcats drove down the field on their next possession, this time reaching the Clemson one, where they decided to go for it on fourth down. The Tiger defense held again, as Brentson Buckner stopped the ball carrier for no gain. Buckner was named defensive MVP after tallying 12 tackles and three tackles for loss. He became just the fourth Tiger defensive lineman in the previous eight years to record at least 12 tackles in a game.

Neither squad scored in the third quarter, and barely into the fourth quarter, Kentucky took the lead with a 46-yard touchdown drive. After an interception, the Wildcats upped their lead to 13-7 on a 43 yard scoring drive, culminating in another field goal.

With time running down in the fourth quarter, quarterback Patrick Sapp came off the bench. The two teams exchanged punts before the Tigers got the ball at their own 18 with 3:50 left. On the first play of the drive, Sapp threw a screen to Emory Smith for 57 yards. With under a minute left, Kentucky linebacker Marty Moore intercepted Sapp's pass. But, on the return, Stacy Seegars jarred the ball loose and Brent LeJeune recovered. With 20 seconds left, Sapp connected with Terry Smith on a 21-yard score and Nelson Welch kicked the PAT for the win.

The Tigers were forced to punt after taking over at the one and Kentucky got on the scoreboard with a 17-yard field goal by Nicky Nickles. The score heading into the half stood at 7-3.

Clemson entered the 1996 Gator Bowl fresh off of five consecutive victories, including an emotional 38-17 win over arch-rival South Carolina. The Tigers had won six consecutive games away from Death Valley, but the streak ended there at the hands of Syracuse. The Orangemen handed Clemson its worst bowl defeat in its 20-game bowl history, 41-0.

In front of a rain-soaked crowd of mostly Tiger fans, freshman quarterback and future NFL star Donovan McNabb ran, passed and beat the Tiger defense. McNabb, the MVP of the Gator Bowl, was unstoppable, as he threw three touchdown passes and ran for another. He completed 13 of 23 passes for 309 yards. Wide receiver Marvin Harrison was on the other end of many McNabb passes as he grabbed seven for 173 yards.

Malcolm Thomas scored less than two minutes into the game on a one-yard run. On its next possession, McNabb led a 12-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in a McNabb five-yard keeper for six.

In the second quarter, the Orangemen defense thwarted Clemson's best scoring chance of the afternoon. After the Tigers had gone 53 yards down the field on 11 plays to Syracuse's six-yard-line, Clemson faced a crucial fourth-and-two situation. Clemson called a play-action pass that was incomplete, ending the drive on downs.

game with the nation's fourth best rushing attack could only manage 90 yards on 34 attempts. The Orangemen held Raymond Priestler, the ACC's leading rusher, to just 36 yards on 15 carries.

Syracuse added two more touchdowns in the third quarter to put the game well out of reach. After a 57-yard pass to Sir Mawn Wilson, Thomas ran two yards to the right for his second touchdown of the afternoon. Thomas rushed for 71 yards on 14 carries. Each team traded prodigious third quarter punts, including a 73-yard effort by Sean Reali. The two bright spots for Clemson were punter Chris McNally, who averaged 49.3 yards on six punts, and Brian Dawkins, who had a team-high 10 tackles. The Orangemen had their second one-play drive when McNabb connected with Harrison for a 56-yard score.

The homecoming for Jacksonville natives and childhood teammates Brian Dawkins and Patrick Sapp was bitter-sweet, although Sapp did register a sack for a nine-yard loss. The Tigers, who entered the Raymond Priester set a Clemson Bowl record for rushing yardage with 151 yards gained during the 1996 Peach Bowl. On the defensive side of the ball, defensive lineman Trevor Pryce had three tackles for loss and one sack in addition to a caused fumble. Even with these fine accomplishments, Clemson still fell to the LSU Tigers by a three-point margin, 10-7 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga.

Nealon Greene opened the scoring for Clemson on a three-yard run for a touchdown.

In addition to Priester's outstanding game, contributions to the running attack were also made by Emory Smith, who had nine carries for 40 yards. Smith, brother of NFL star Emmitt Smith, was playing in his second Peach Bowl, as he was vital in Clemson's victory over Kentucky in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Clemson's sole touchdown drive lasted 1:29 and consisted of only three runs. The outstanding field position was achieved on a fumble recovery by Harold Means following a sack and caused fumble by Trevor Pryce.

Defensively, Clemson had five players contribute to a combined nine tackles for losses. These tackles for losses combined for a total loss of fifty-three yards of LSU's offense.

LSU scored its only touchdown of the game during the second quarter when Kevin Faulk ran three yards to a touchdown. The extra point by Richey was good and the game was tied 7-7. LSU scored again during this quarter, with a 22-yard field goal by Richey to take the lead for good. Neither team scored in the second half, as both defenses dominated.

Clemson got the ball back with 2:29 remaining, but a 52-yard field goal attempt by Matt Padgett with 1:02 remaining in the game was blocked by Adam Roman and LSU hung on for its second bowl victory over Clemson. The SEC Tigers also defeated Clemson 7-0 in the 1959 Sugar Bowl.

Time of possession was fairly even throughout the game, as LSU led with 30:15 minutes versus Clemson's 29:45 minutes. Not only was time of possession even in this game, but also the total net yards gained (Clemson 258 - LSU 287) and the average gain per play (4.2-4.5) were close as well.

Behind the strength of the Auburn defense, Dameyune Craig was able to rally his offense in the fourth quarter enroute to a come from behind 21-17 victory over the Clemson Tigers at the Georgia Dome. Auburn's offense managed to score 15 points on three consecutive scoring drives to overcome an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

Clemson got on the board midway through the second quarter with the help of the first of many great special teams plays. Jaret Holmes' punt was blocked by Rod Gardner and returned 18 yards by Chad Speck for a touchdown.

Auburn would answer the Clemson scoring strike on its very next drive. Offensive MVP Dameyune Craig led Auburn on a seven-play, 67-yard drive, that ended when Jaret Holmes converted on his second field goal.

With 5:18 left in the third quarter, Clemson's special teams stepped up big again when Rahim Abdullah blocked Holmes' punt and Mal Lawyer recovered the ball on the two. From there, Clemson's Terry Witherspoon ran the ball in from two yards out on first and goal to give the Tigers a 14-6 lead.

the Clemson offense failed to gain a first down. David Richardson connected on a 48-yard field goal, which gave Clemson a 17-6 advantage with 2:10 left in the third quarter.

Down 11 points, Craig rallied his team. He led the Tigers on a nine-play, 72-yard drive. The Auburn drive was capped off with a miraculous 22-yard touchdown run by Craig on a fourth-down play. Despite failing to convert the two-point conversion, Craig's run was a turning point for the Auburn offense and reduced Clemson's lead to 17-12.

Clemson was forced to punt on its next possession, giving the ball back to an Auburn offense that was finally clicking. Craig and his Tigers drove 49 yards in two minutes and 22 seconds, resulting in a Rusty Williams 7-yard touchdown run.

Following an interception, Auburn drove down to the Clemson five and Holmes converted on a 22-yard field goal, giving the Auburn Tigers a 21-17 lead. After Clemson lost the ball on downs, Auburn ran the remaining 2:30 off the clock.

Auburn was forced to punt from inside its own 10-yard line the following possession. Tony Horne returned the punt 20 yards to the Auburn 26-yard line, giving the Tigers great field position. However,

Wayne Madkin ran for a touchdown and threw for another in the fourth quarter to lead No. 15 Mississippi State to a 17-7 win in the Peach Bowl and a record crowd of 73,315. Clemson outgained the Bulldogs 391-265, but many Tiger drives stalled in Bulldog territory, as Mississippi State's defense, tops in the nation in yards allowed per game, thwarted the Tigers and forced six turnovers.

Despite the loss, Clemson's defense played one of its best games of the year, holding the Bulldogs (10-2) to just 3.7 yards per play. The defense also began many drives after Tiger turnovers in Clemson's own territory.

Clemson was led on offense by Brian Wofford, who had six catches for a team-season-high 147 yards, including four of 20 yards or more. Brandon Streeter threw for 301 yards on 24-50 passing. Freshman Bernard Rambert, who played most of the game after starting tailback Travis Zachery left the game early in the first quarter with a dislocated elbow, had 70 yards rushing on 18 carries.

Clemson had another golden opportunity later in the opening quarter. Thanks in part to Wofford's 32-yard catch and run, Clemson drove 64 yards in 15 plays before Tony Lazzara's 25-yard field goal was blocked and returned into Tiger territory. The Clemson defense continually came up with stands. The teams went into halftime 0-0, the first scoreless tie at halftime for Clemson since 1988.

Scott Westerfield put the Bulldogs ahead 3-0 on the opening drive of the second half. After two screen passes that netted a total of 30 yards, Westerfield split the uprights from 39 yards.

The Bulldogs reached the end zone for the first time on their first possession of the fourth quarter. Madkin out-ran Keith Adams for a two-yard score. Their drive was twice extended on third-down plays in the red-zone by pass interference calls.

Clemson responded with an eight-play, 70-yard drive capped by Streeter's one-yard plunge to make the score 10-7. But Mississippi State came right back with a clinching touchdown-scoring drive, capped by Dontae Walker's 15-yard catch on a screen pass. Madkin's 21-yard completion to Matt Butler on third down was the critical play of the drive.

Clemson looked to be in business when Streeter connected with Rod Gardner, who had seven catches for 75 yards, for 37 yards on the game's first play. But Fred Smoot intercepted Streeter's fourth-down

Michael Vick rebounded from an ankle-injury to lead Virginia Tech to a victory in his final college game, a 41-20 win. The quarterback finished with two touchdowns while completing 10 of 18 passes for 205 yards. The contest was a battle of mobile quarterbacks, as Clemson's Woodrow Dantzler gained 261 yards of total offense for the afternoon.

The Hokies capitalized on early costly Tiger mistakes. The uncharacteristic play began on the first drive when snapper Henry Owen bounced his delivery to punter Jaime Somaini, who was tackled for an eight-yard loss by Lee Suggs. Tech scored on its first offensive play of the game when Vick threw to Jarrett Ferguson on a 23-yard touchdown play.

Later in the quarter, Terry Jolly jumped off-side to preserve an 11-play, 59-yard drive that ended in a six-yard touchdown run for Vick.

Clemson got back into the game, but at a heavy cost. Dantzler found Travis Zachery for a 23-yard touchdown early in the second quarter. However, Zachery's missed the rest of the game due to a broken foot that occurred as the tailback leaped into the end zone. On the play, Zachery also snapped Lester Brown's single-season Clemson record of 17 touchdowns in a season.

10. But, that was as close as Clemson could get. Suggs scored his first touchdown of the day on a three-yard rush on the next possession to give the Hokies a 21-10 lead.

Hopes of a second-half rally were shattered when Vick found Andre Davis for a 55-yard touchdown on the first drive of the second half. Willie Simmons relieved Dantzler in the final quarter. On his first possession, Simmons led the offense on an 11-play, 71-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard touchdown pass to Rod Gardner. With seven catches, Gardner surpassed Terry Smith's Clemson record for career receptions, finishing his career with 166.

Both quarterbacks shined in the much-anticipated match-up between Vick and Dantzler, although the Hokie quarterback left with both a Gator Bowl and a MVP trophy. Vick had the advantage in the passing game, his numbers slightly besting Dantzler's 15-32 for 180 yards.

Two possessions later, Keith Adams sacked Vick for 18 yards, forcing a fumble that Terry Bryant recovered on the Hokie 13. Clemson had to settle for an Aaron Hunt field goal, bringing the Tigers to within 14-

Clemson concluded its 2001 season with a 49-24 win over Louisiana Tech in the Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho. The Tigers managed to win despite snowy conditions and freezing temperatures that set records for a Tiger football game.

Clemson won by putting together one of its best all-around performances of the season. The offense racked up 548 yards of total offense and set a school record for most touchdown passes in a game with five.

The Tigers scored four touchdowns in the third quarter, setting a team record for points in one quarter in a bowl game. Four touchdowns were scored by freshmen, marking the first time in school history that happened. The defense held the Bulldogs to just 49 total yards rushing while intercepting three passes and totaling six sacks.

After falling behind 10-7, Clemson took the lead 14-10 with 6:54 left before halftime when Woodrow Dantzler connected with Roscoe Crosby on a 53-yard touchdown reception. Dantzler helped extend the lead on the first drive of the second half by finding Ben Hall in the end zone and igniting the record-setting third quarter scoring effort. Dantzler recorded his third touchdown pass of the game two minutes later when he hooked up with Bernard Rambert for a 62-yard score.

Following an interception by Brian Mance, the offense capitalized seven plays later when Rambert scampered down the left sideline for 21 yards and a score. Charles Hafley intercepted Luke McCown's pass on the Bulldogs' first play of the ensuing drive, and Airese Currie's 19-yard fumble-rooskie play less than two minutes later marked the fourth touchdown of the quarter and gave Clemson a 42-10 lead.

Backup quarterback Willie Simmons entered the game in the final quarter and helped contribute to Clemson's final score of the game, completing his only pass of the contest to Derrick Hamilton for a 57-yard touchdown with just over nine minutes remaining. Despite two late scores by Louisiana Tech, the Tigers' impressive team effort left fans excited about the potential of the 2002 campaign.

Dantzler ended his career with a fitting performance. He completed 15-23 passes for 218 yards, and his four touchdown passes tied his own team record. Rambert posted 101 rushing yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. Center Kyle Young was named to Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl team, as he had 18 knockdown blocks in the contest.

Texas Tech defeated Clemson 55-15 in the 2003 Mazda Tangerine Bowl at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium in Orlando, Fla. Making their fourth consecutive bowl appearance, the Tigers were unable to contain Kliff Kingsbury, who threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns. Earning game MVP honors, he completed 32-43 passes and finished the season with 5,017 passing yards.

Although Kingsbury left the game in the third quarter with a leg injury, he returned to play in the final quarter and became just the third player in Division I-A history to eclipse the 5,000-yard passing mark in a season.

Charlie Whitehurst, who completed 20 of his 48 passes for 263 yards, led Clemson. His favorite target was Kevin Youngblood, who had a game-high 134 yards receiving on seven catches.

Kingsbury established the tone for the Red Raider offense by completing six of his first eight passes and leading the Red Raiders to a 29-yard field goal. Less than six minutes later, Kingsbury's 46-yard touchdown pass to Nehemiah Glover gave the Red Raiders a 10-0 lead.

The onslaught continued in the first quarter when Kingsbury connected with Mickey Peters on a 19-yard touchdown pass that gave Texas Tech a 17-0 lead entering the second quarter.

Following an interception by Brian Mance, the offense capitalized seven plays later when Rambert scampered down the left sideline for 21 yards and a score. Charles Hafley intercepted Luke McCown's pass on the Bulldogs' first play of the ensuing drive, and Airese Currie's 19-yard fumble-rooskie play less than two minutes later marked the fourth touchdown of the quarter and gave Clemson a 42-10 lead.

Taurean Henderson's 10-yard run gave the Red Raiders a 24-0 lead with 12:09 remaining in the first half. Midway through the second quarter, Clemson finally mustered some points when Tye Hill blocked a punt that resulted in a safety when the ball went through the end zone.

Vincent Meeks intercepted Whitehurst at the goal-line. Three quick completions moved the Texas Tech offense into field-goal range, and Robert Treece's successful 40-yard attempt as time expired gave Texas Tech a 34-2 advantage at halftime.

Clemson's opening drive of the second half resulted in the team's first offensive score, when Whitehurst connected with tight end Ben Hall on a 10-yard touchdown pass. Kingsbury left the game on the next possession after Khaleed Vaughn rolled over his leg; B.J. Symons replaced Kingsbury and guided the Red Raiders to a score on his opening drive. Symons' two-yard touchdown pass to Carlos Francis made the score 41-9. Chad Jasmin's two-yard scamper with 12:29 remaining in regulation signaled the Tigers' final score of the contest.

Clemson's impressive finish to the regular season carried over into the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, as the Tigers upset No. 6 Tennessee by a score of 27-14. The win gave Clemson two victories over top-10 teams for the first time since the 1981 National Championship season, and propelled the Tigers to a No. 22 ranking in both final polls.

Clemson received the ball to start the game, and the offense responded with a quick start. Charlie Whitehurst found Derrick Hamilton for 26 yards and Kevin Youngblood for 35 more to move into scoring position. On first-and-goal, Whitehurst led an option to the short side of the field. Duane Coleman took the pitch and leaped over a would-be tackler. He got in for an eight-yard score.

Tennessee was forced to punt on its second possession, as Clausen was sacked by Justin Miller (first of his career) and then had a pass tipped at the line by Eric Coleman. All-America punter Dustin Colquitt booted a 41-yard punt, but Clemson's Hamilton provided some fireworks. He started to the right side of the field, cut back left and then was off to the races thanks to some timely blocks. His 58-yard punt return put Clemson on the Volunteers' 17-yard line to begin the next drive.

ahead 17-7.

Clemson again responded with points on the ensuing possession. Jasmin ignited the drive with a 31-yard run up the middle. Whitehurst then found Hamilton for a 23-yard gain into the redzone. Faced with third-and-goal from the eight, the Tiger coaching staff reached into its bag of tricks.

Whitehurst took the shotgun snap and handed the ball to Kyle Browning between his legs. Whitehurst then carried out a fake option to the right, while Browning hesitated and then ran left for the touchdown. The play, known as "Panther," put the Tigers ahead 24-14 at halftime.

Clemson rushed for 153 yards, while Tennessee struggled to just 38. Jasmin, voted the game's most valuable offensive player, had 130 yards on the ground and a touchdown.

Recording sacks for Clemson were Charles Bennett, Touré Francis, Leroy Hill, John Leake, DeJuan Polk and Miller. With two sacks, Hill was voted the defensive most valuable player.

The Tigers quickly responded to a Volunteer touchdown late in the first quarter. Chad Jasmin rushed for 46 yards on the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown run up the middle to put the Tigers

Clemson won its 15th bowl game with a 19-10 victory over Colorado in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla. It was only the second meeting between the two schools, with the first coming in the 1957 Orange Bowl, a 27-21 Buffalo win.

James Davis led the way for the Tigers, rushing for 150 yards on 28 carries to earn MVP honors. Charlie Whitehurst finished his career completing 21-29 passes for 205 yards, and also ran for a score.

Two runs by Davis gained 26 yards, and Whitehurst followed with a 20-yard strike to Curtis Baham. The drive stalled three plays later, and Jad Dean made a 26-yard field goal.

Hugh Charles picked up 13 yards and a first down at the Clemson 10, barely missing a score by stepping out of bounds. However, three more rushes by Charles resulted in a loss of eight yards, and Colorado settled for a Mason Crosby 36-yard field goal on the first play of the second quarter.

down to the Colorado 10. Two rushes by Davis and another completion to Hunter moved the ball to the two, and Clemson elected to take the lead with a field goal. Dean made his 24th field goal to set a school record for field goals in a season, and his 18-yarder also gave the Tigers a 6-3 lead.

On the second play of the third quarter, Davis broke free for a 40-yard run. Whitehurst found Aaron Kelly for 11 yards three plays later, and then Whitehurst dove into the end zone for a five-yard touchdown run on a third-and-goal play. The touchdown drive covered 67 yards in eight plays.

Each team punted several more times before Colorado began a drive at its own 31 with just over nine minutes left in the game. Cox was replaced by Brian White. After a pass-interference penalty on the Tigers, White hit two consecutive passes for 45 yards down to the Clemson nine. Three plays later on third down, White found Quinn Synpiewski for a two-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 13-10.

Clemson's defense held Colorado to 124 total yards of offense and 17 yards rushing, the top defensive performance by any team in a bowl game during the 2005 season.

On Clemson's next possession, Whitehurst found Thomas Hunter for 10 yards on third down. After a penalty gave the Tigers another first down, Whitehurst completed a shovel pass to Davis for 22 yards

Andre' Woodson passed for 299 yards and three touchdowns to lead Kentucky to a 28-20 victory over Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville, Tenn. on December 29.

Kentucky held a 7-6 lead late in the second quarter until it scored on a 70-yard pass after a fake punt in its own territory. Then Kentucky took a 28-6 lead in the fourth quarter and held on for the win in front of a partisan Wildcat crowd.

Will Proctor was 23-39 for 272 yards and three touchdowns. Aaron Kelly had a game-high six receptions for 66 yards and a touchdown, Chansi Stuckey caught five balls for 93 yards.

Kentucky took the opening drive 62 yards in 12 plays to take a 7-0 lead, as Micah Johnson scored on a one-yard plunge.

Tyler Grisham gave the ball back to the Tigers in Wildcat territory when he blocked a punt. Two plays after a 15-yard reverse by Jacoby Ford, Proctor found Durrell Barry open over the middle for a 32-yard touchdown reception, the first of Barry's career. Clemson missed the extra point, keeping Kentucky ahead 7-6.

Early in the fourth quarter, Rafael Little returned a punt 46 yards to the Tiger 28. Four plays later, Woodson scrambled and found Jacob Tamme open for a 13-yard touchdown pass.

Clemson responded with a 78-yard drive to cut into the Wildcat lead. Pass plays of 19 yards to Grisham and 19 yards to Stuckey helped set up a first-and-goal. Facing fourth down from the 17, Grisham hauled in a touchdown pass from Proctor in the back of the end zone. The two-point try failed, leaving Kentucky up 28-12 with 7:25 remaining.

Clemson took over on downs with 3:17 left and drove 74 yards on eight plays. Stuckey's 28-yard catch moved the ball into Wildcat territory. Proctor then lofted a pass to Kelly, as he came down with the touchdown catch. Proctor connected with Michael Palmer on the two-point play, cutting Kentucky's lead to 28-20 with 44 seconds left.

As Clemson was in the process of holding Kentucky's offense under 10 yards for the sixth straight drive, the Wildcats gambled with a fake punt. Punter Tim Masthay completed a 10-yard pass on fourth-

Kodi Burns' seven-yard touchdown run in overtime gave No. 21 Auburn a 23-20 victory over No. 15 Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga. on December 31. It was Clemson's seventh appearance in the Chick-fil-A/Peach Bowl and its 30th bowl game overall.

C.J. Spiller led Clemson with 112 yards on eight carries and a touchdown. Spiller, who was named Offensive MVP of the Chick-fil-A-Bowl, also totaled a team-season-high 218 all-purpose yards.

On Auburn's first drive, Brandon Cox hit Rodgerique Smith for 28 yards to the Clemson 20. Two plays later, Brad Lester rushed for 13 yards to set up a first-and-goal at the eight. But Clemson's defense stiffened, forcing Wes Byrum's 36-yard field goal.

After a five-yard carry by Spiller, the sophomore carried again up the middle. This time, he bounced outside and sprinted 83 yards for a score to give Clemson a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter.

Auburn drove 78 yards in 10 plays on its third-quarter scoring drive. It was capped by Burns' 22-yard touchdown pass to Mario Fannin.

10-10.

Four plays later, Crezdon Butler deflected Cox's pass and wound up with the interception at the Auburn 32. Clemson capitalized on the game's only turnover when James Davis scored on a one-yard plunge on fourth-and-goal.

But Clemson's 17-10 lead was short-lived, as Auburn traversed 70 yards in 11 plays to tie the score. Cox's 18-yard pass to Robert Dunn on third-and-five moved the ball into Clemson territory. Four plays later, Burns rumbled 15 yards to the Clemson one. Ben Tate carried the ball into the end zone on the next play with 8:27 remaining in the game.

Clemson got the ball first in overtime. On third-and-two, Davis carried just far enough for a first down at the 15. But on third-and-three from the eight, Harper's pass fell incomplete. Buchholz then booted a 25-yard field goal.

Facing third-and-13, Cox connected with Smith for 12 yards. On fourth-and-one, Auburn elected to go for the first down and got it on Cox's quarterback sneak. Three plays later on third-and-three, Burns took the shotgun snap and scampered seven yards for the game-winning touchdown.

Cullen Harper's quarterback sneak on fourth down gave Clemson a first-and-goal. But Clemson had to settle for Mark Buchholz's 22-yard field goal on the first snap of the fourth quarter to tie the score

Nebraska overcame a 14-3 halftime deficit and scored 20 points in the third quarter to defeat Clemson 26-21 in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville (Fla.) Municipal Stadium on January 1.

Clemson built a 14-3 halftime lead thanks to a stalwart defense and 21-10 lead in the third quarter, but the Cornhuskers scored the game's final 16 points to earn the five-point victory.

Joe Ganz was named Nebraska's Gator Bowl MVP after going 19-36 for 236 yards and two scores. Quentin Castille had a game-high 125 rushing yards on 18 carries, but two of them went for 58 yards and 40 yards. In fact, of the Cornhuskers' 23 carries by running backs, 10 went for negative yardage.

C.J. Spiller had only 17 rushing yards, but he had a game-high 182 all-purpose yards thanks to 62 punt return yards and 97 kickoff return yards.

The Tigers finally dented the scoreboard in the second quarter when DeAndre McDaniel deflected Ganz's option pitch. He grabbed the ball off one bounce and raced 28 yards for a touchdown. It was the first of three turnovers forced by the Tigers, as all 21 of their points came off turnovers.

After a Crezdon Butler interception late in the second quarter, Cullen Harper hit Aaron Kelly for a 25-yard touchdown pass to up Clemson's lead to 14-3.

In the third quarter, Jacoby Ford outran Nebraska and caught a perfectly-thrown pass from Harper for a 41-yard score. But on Nebraska's next snap, Castille broke free for a 58-yard run. Ganz then hit Todd Peterson for a 19-yard touchdown pass.

After Blake Lawrence intercepted a batted ball at the Tiger 10, Clemson's defense stiffened and forced Alex Henery's 28-yard field goal. Disaster struck again on Clemson's next drive when Rickey Thenarse blocked Jimmy Maners' punt.

But Clemson's defense withstood and Henery booted a 28-yard, go-ahead field goal. The Cornhuskers later added another field goal.

Clemson's final drive was kept alive by a 16-yard pass from Harper to Ford on fourth-and-four and Kelly's 17-yard reception gave the Tigers first-and-goal at the 10. On third down, Harper's pass to Spiller in the end zone was nearly caught before Matt O'Hanlon broke up the pass. Harper's last-ditch effort on fourth down fell incomplete.

Da'Quan Bowers, Clemson's Gator Bowl MVP, had six tackles and a team-high three tackles for loss for the Tigers, who had 11 tackles for loss.

C.J. Spiller totaled 172 all-purpose yards and a rushing score in his final collegiate game to lead Clemson to a 21-13 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville, Tenn. on December 27. It was the Tigers' first bowl win since 2005, ending a three-game bowl losing streak, and their 16th bowl victory.

Spiller earned game MVP honors, as he had 67 rushing yards, three catches for 58 yards, and 47 kickoff-return yards. His touchdown was the 51st of his career to set a Tiger record.

The Tiger offense was productive despite totaling just 47 offensive plays. Clemson set bowl records for yards per play (6.8) and yards per carry (5.5) in its 321-yard performance.

The Wildcats drove 61 yards on their opening possession, capped by Morgan Newton's 17-yard touchdown pass to Chris Matthews. The Tigers answered late in the first quarter with Kyle Parker's 32-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Ford over the middle.

Jamie Harper, who had 79 yards on eight carries, gave Clemson the lead in the second quarter on his one-yard plunge.

In the fourth quarter, Kaveil Conner stripped Gene McCaskill and Jarvis Jenkins recovered at the Wildcat 19. Three plays later, Spiller scored on an eight-yard touchdown run.

Kentucky drove 60 yards on its last drive, but Ricky Sapp tackled Newton just short of the first-down marker on fourth down at the Tiger 25. Clemson drained the final 5:27 off the clock thanks to 53 combined rushing yards by Spiller and Harper.

B.J. Daniels was 20-27 passing with two touchdowns to earn game MVP honors and lead South Florida to a 31-26 win over Clemson at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. in the Meineke Car Care Bowl on December 31. It was the first-ever meeting between the two.

South Florida built a 17-3 lead thanks to two touchdown passes by Daniels, who completed 14 passes in a row at one point. But a costly Bull fumble led to Jamie Harper's one-yard touchdown run with 30 seconds left in the first half that cut the Bulls' halftime lead to 17-13.

In the second half, touchdown runs by Moise Plancher and Daniels gave the Bulls a 31-13 lead. With 1:47 left in the game, Tajh Boyd, who had taken over for an injured Kyle Parker at halftime, connected with Brandon Ford for a six-yard touchdown pass. After Clemson recovered Richard Jackson's ensuing onside kick, Boyd hit Ford for another touchdown pass, this time for 10 yards with 43 seconds remaining.

Jackson's next onside kick was recovered by DeAndre McDaniel, but he first touched the ball at the 39, giving the ball to the Bulls.

DeAndre Hopkins had nine receptions for 105 yards, both game-highs, while Ford, who totaled four catches for 45 yards, became the first Tiger with two receiving touchdowns in a bowl game.

Clemson was 3-3 on fourth-down conversions and outgained the Bulls 296-279, but South Florida was 9-14 on third-down conversions and used its quick passing game to neutralize the Tigers' pass rush.

Geno Smith passed for 407 yards and six touchdowns as No. 22 West Virginia beat No. 14 Clemson 70-33 in the Discover Orange Bowl at Miami Gardens, Fla. on Jan. 4, 2012.

The play-of-the-game came in the second quarter with Clemson poised to regain the lead when Doug Rigg stripped the ball out of Andre Ellington's hands as he started to fall at the Mountaineers' one-yard line. Darwin Cook recovered the ball and raced 99 yards for a game-changing touchdown. It was the longest defensive touchdown in Orange Bowl history, which highlighted a 35-point second quarter for the Mountaineers.

The Tigers never recovered after Cook's touchdown. Although the Tigers moved within 28-20, West Virginia went on a six-play, 64-yard drive that was capped by Smith's seven-yard touchdown run that gave the Mountaineers a 35-20 lead with 2:29 left in the first half.

Trying to get some kind of momentum, Tajh Boyd, who threw for 250 yards, forced a pass on Clemson's next possession that was intercepted by Pat Miller. Three plays later, Smith connected with Tavon Austin for a three-yard touchdown pass with 1:13 left in the first half.

seconds left. The Mountaineers led 49-20 at halftime.

The onslaught continued in the second half, as the Mountaineers scored on their first two possessions. Smith completed touchdown passes of six yards and 37 yards to Stedman Bailey and Austin, respectively, to build their lead to 63-20.

West Virginia's 35 unanswered points came to an end late in the third quarter when Boyd hit DeAndre Hopkins, who had a team-high 10 catches for 107 yards, on a 28-yard touchdown pass.

Clemson started with a bang when Ellington, who rushed for 116 yards on 10 carries, ran 68 yards for the first score. After West Virginia tied the score with a four-yard touchdown run by Alston, the Tigers answered with Boyd's 27-yard touchdown pass to Watkins.

Austin tied the score 14-14 on West Virginia's next possession when he hauled in an eight-yard pass from Smith, who set an Orange Bowl and BCS bowl game record with six touchdown passes. The Miami-area native also set an Orange Bowl record with 407 passing yards on 32-43 passing and was named game MVP.

Clemson provided the final score of the night on a four-yard touchdown run by Roderick McDowell late in the fourth quarter.

For the third time, West Virginia took advantage of a Clemson miscue, as Shawne Alston recorded his second touchdown of the half when he rushed one yard for a touchdown with four Trailing 24-13 to No. 7 LSU entering the fourth quarter, Clemson came off the mat to score three times in the final stanza against one of the nation's staunchest defenses. Chandler Catanzaro's 37-yard field goal as time expired lifted No. 13 Clemson to a 25-24 win in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in the Georgia Dome.

After Clemson pulled within two points with 2:47 left on a 12-yard touchdown strike from Tajh Boyd to DeAndre Hopkins, it was unable to pull even when Boyd's pass on the two-point attempt fell incomplete.

But the Clemson defense quickly got the ball back to its offense by forcing a three-and-out with 1:39 remaining, and Boyd, who was named Chick-fil-A Bowl Offensive Most Outstanding Player, engineered a drive that covered 60 yards in 10 plays and culminated in Catanzaro's game-winner.

Jeremy Hill burst off tackle and cruised into the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Making matters worse, Sammy Watkins was lost for the night after suffering an injury on the play.

With things already looking bleak, Clemson mustered a big-time response against the LSU defense, marching 75 yards in 11 plays and finding the end zone on an 11-yard run by Boyd to tie the score.

LSU jumped back on top early in the second quarter, as it capped a 65-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown pass from Zach Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry.

Later in the quarter, Clemson drove 70 yards and found the end zone on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Boyd to Hopkins to make the score 14-13 before Catanzaro's PAT was blocked.

Michael Ford returned the second-half kickoff 43 yards, and on the next play, Hill ran 57 yards to paydirt and a 21-13 lead just 17 seconds after halftime.

Clemson's defense continued to do its part and got the ball right back to its offense, as Malliciah Goodman and Grady Jarrett combined for Clemson's sixth sack of the game on third down.

The offense took advantage of the opportunity, as Boyd engineered a 77-yard drive and hit Hopkins in the back of the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown pass to make the score 24-22 with 2:47 left in the game.

The two-point try failed, but Clemson's defense once again did its job by forcing a quick three-and-out. A touchback on the ensuing punt gave Clemson the ball at its own 20 with 1:39 left in the game.

At that point, Boyd worked his magic, hitting Hopkins for a 26-yard strike on fourth-and-16 to get the drive rolling. He completed his last five passes of the game to set up Catanzaro's game-winning kick.

Brent Venables bristled a bit earlier in the week when he was asked about the Orange Bowl against No. 6 Ohio State being billed as a shootout.

While the final score, 40-35 in favor of No. 11 Clemson, may have indicated that was the case, its defensive coordinator could smile afterward knowing his unit made the plays that were the difference.

The Tigers forced four second-half turnovers, including a fumble and interception on the Buckeyes' last two possessions, to rally from a halftime deficit for the win.

It was not all defense for Clemson, as Sammy Watkins set Tiger and Orange Bowl records with 16 receptions and 227 receiving yards to garner MVP honors, and Tajh Boyd accounted for 505 yards of total offense and six touchdowns. Despite outgaining Ohio State by 108 yards and largely dominating on both sides of the ball, the Tigers trailed at halftime 22-20.

But the Tigers cashed in on two third-quarter turnovers by the Buckeyes, as Watkins and Martavis Bryant made acrobatic catches in the end zone to put Clemson on top entering the fourth quarter.

Stanton Seckinger put Clemson ahead with a five-yard catch with 6:16 left, and Spencer Shuey and Stephon Anthony's takeaways finished Ohio State off.

Things looked bleak for the Tigers after Ohio State stretched its lead to 29-20 and got another stop to open the second half.

Clemson got a break after its offense had been forced to punt, as Corey Brown muffed a punt and Clemson recovered at the Ohio State 33. The Tigers cashed in, as Watkins made an acrobatic catch for a 30-yard touchdown that narrowed Ohio State's lead to 29-27.

The Tiger defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing drive. On third-and-eight, pressure flushed Braxton Miller out of the pocket and his pass to the sideline was intercepted by Jayron Kearse to give Clemson the ball at the Ohio State 38.

Bryant then hauled in a juggling catch in the corner of the end zone to put the Tigers back on top 34-29 with 32 seconds left in the third quarter.

After the Buckeyes regained the lead, the Tigers went back in front on a five-yard grab by Seckinger, who Boyd found wide open for the touchdown. The score put Clemson on top 40-35 with 6:16 remaining.

With the Buckeyes facing third-and-13 on the ensuing drive, Breeland crashed in on a corner blitz and hit Miller, the ball popped loose and Shuey snatched it out of the air at the Ohio State 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back, as Ohio State came up with an interception three plays later, but Anthony picked Miller off two plays later to get the ball back for Clemson and seal the win.

Three-point underdog before.
Thirty-four point victor after.
The No. 18 Clemson Tigers dominated all aspects of the Russell Athletic Bowl contest in an impressive 40-6 victory over the favored and No. 24 ranked Oklahoma Sooners.

For the Tigers and Head Coach Dabo Swinney, the victory marked a third straight year with an impressive bowl win against a storied opponent. Clemson defeated LSU and Head Coach Les Miles in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Ohio State and Head Coach Urban Meyer in the 2014 Orange Bowl (at the end of the 2013 season) and Oklahoma and Head Coach Bob Stoops in the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl.

Senior Cole Stoudt was named game MVP, a nice end to the quarterback's season and career at Clemson. He finished with a career-high 319 yards and three touchdowns against no interceptions on 26-36 passing and added a rushing touchdown.

Artavis Scott had eight receptions for a game-high 114 yards and one touchdown, while Mike Williams added a game-high nine catches for 112 yards and a touchdown. It marked the first time Clemson had two 100-yard receivers in a bowl game.

The Tigers' top-ranked defense did not disappoint, forcing five turnovers and holding Oklahoma to 275 yards and a lone score in the fourth quarter. Defensively, Korrin Wiggins had a team-tying-high six tackles and an interception. Ben Boulware had a 47-yard interception return for a touchdown and recovered a fumble. Grady Jarrett added 3.5 tackles for loss, while Vic Beasley had three tackles for loss.

In their first game as co-offensive coordinators, Tony Elliott and Jeff Scott put together a gameplan that resulted in 40 points.

"It's hard to start your playcalling career better than that," said Swinney. "We were in sync and in rhythm."

"We're not going anywhere. This is another big win for our program, a great way to end 2014. And I can't wait for 2015."

Scott started the scoring when he took a screen pass 65 yards for a touchdown on Clemson's first offensive play of the game, and the first play call by Co-Offensive Coordinator Tony Elliott.

Clemson outscored Oklahoma 21-0 in the second half and defeated the Sooners 37-17 in the semifinals of the College Football Playoff at the Orange Bowl in Miami, FL. With the win the No. 1 Tigers advance to the National Championship game against No. 2 Alabama.

The two teams traded scores in the first half and the Sooners took a 17-16 lead at intermission. Clemson gained 305 yards of total offense in the first half, but still trailed by a point.

Oklahoma scored first on its first drive of the game, then Clemson scored 13 straight points to take a 13-7 lead. A key play took place in the second period when the Tigers executed a fake punt. Punter Andy Teasdall threw a pass out of punt formation to Christian Wilkins, normally a defensive tackle, who was on the field as a blocking back.

Wilkins 31 yard reception set up a Deshaun Watson five yard run that gave Clemson a 10-7 lead. Greg Huegel booted three field goals in the first half, but Oklahoma took the lead just before the half on a 11 yard pass from Baker Mayfield to Mark Andrews.

It was all Clemson in the second half as the Tigers shutout the high scoring Sooners, who had won seven straight entering the contest.

Gallman scored on a one yard run on Clemson's first drive of the second half to take a 23-17 lead. Hunter Renfrow then caught a 35-yard touchdown pass from Watson to give Clemson a 30-17 lead entering the fourth period. Gallman then put the game away with 10:48 left on a four yard run.

Clemson's defense forced two turnovers in the second half, interceptions by starting linebackers B.J. Goodson and Ben Boulware. It was the second straight year Boulware had an interception, a first for a Clemson linebacker.

T.J. Green led Clemson tacklers with 10, but Boulware was named the MVP with the interception, eight tackles and a sack. Kevin Dodd added 3.5 tackles for loss, including a sack, as Clemson held the Sooners to just 67 rushing yards on 40 attempts.

Watson finished 16-31 for 187 yards and a touchdown, but his 145 yards rushing gave him 332 yards of total offense. Artavis Scott was Clemson's top receiver with 5-63 and Renfrow added four catches for 59.

Huegel finished 3-4 on field goals and scored 13 of Clemson's points. With Renfrow's touchdown, it gave Clemson 19 points from walkons, more than the Sooners scored as a team for the entire game.

Clemson's ground game was dominant as Wayne Gallman finished with 150 yards rushing and Watson added 145. It was the first time in history Clemson had a pair of 140-yard rushers in the same game.

In his final game as a Tiger, Deshaun Watson completed 36-56 passes for 420 yards and three scores, and added 43 rushing yards and a touchdown to lead Clemson to a 35-31 win over Alabama in the CFP National Championship Game to close the 2016 season.

Watson completed a two-yard scoring pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left to give the Tigers the win and the school's first national title since 1981.

Watson was the MVP on offense thanks to his 463 total yards and four total touchdowns. The previous year against Alabama in the title game, he had 405 passing yards and 73 rushing yards for 478 total yards and four scoring passes. Alabama entered the game first in the nation in scoring defense and total defense.

Clemson did not have a 100-yard receiver, but had four players between 92 and 95 yards receiving in a game for the first time in history. Renfrow ended the contest with 10 catches for 92 yards.

While the score was close, many of the team numbers were not. Clemson ran 99 offensive plays to 66 for Alabama, and controlled the clock for 34:44. Clemson won the passing yardage 420-155 and total offense, 511-376. Clemson had 31 first downs to 16 for Alabama. Alabama was just 2-15 on third down, meaning Alabama and Ohio State were a combined 5-29 on third down in the two playoff games.

Alabama jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind the running of Bo Scarbrough. He scored on runs of 25 and 37 yards, one in each quarter. Clemson then came back to within a score on an eight-yard run by Watson to make the count 14-7 at the half.

Alabama outscored Clemson 10-7 in the third quarter to take a 24-14 lead entering the fourth quarter. The Crimson Tide had won 97 consecutive games when having a double digit lead in the fourth period.

But the Tigers scored a pair of touchdowns in the fourth to take a 31-28 lead with 4:38 left.

Alabama came back on its next possession to go 68 yards for a score. Jalen Hurts scored on a 30-yard run with 2:07 left.

Clemson came back with a 68-yard drive of its own. The drive included a 24-yard pass to Williams, a six-yard completion to Renfrow on third-and-three and a 17-yard pass to Leggett that brought the ball to the Alabama nine with 14 seconds left.

A pass interference penalty on a pass to Williams in the end zone brought the ball to the two. On the next play Watson hit Renfrow with the game winner.

The victory gave Clemson a 14-1 record to finish the season, the same as Alabama. Both teams tied the national record for wins in a season.

The No. 1 Clemson football team suffered its second and final defeat of the 2017-18 season, falling 24-6 to the No. 4 Alabama Crimson Tide in the Sugar Bowl and College Football Playoff Semifinal. With the loss, Clemson ended the year with a 12-2 overall record, while Alabama improved to 12-1 overall.

After Clemson forced a three-and-out on Alabama's first drive, the Tide capitalized on their second drive by hitting a 24-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter. Alabama upped its lead to 10-0 as time was expiring in the first quarter when Jalen Hurts connected with Calvin Ridley for a 12-yard score.

Clemson got on the board five minutes into the second quarter on an Alex Spence 44-yard field goal. Deon Cain, who finished the game as the Tigers' leading receiver, had two catches for 27 yards to power the scoring drive that brought the Tide lead to 10-3. Both defenses proved stout for the rest of the half, with either team's best scoring chance coming on a failed 38-yard field goal by Alabama with 17 seconds left.

The Tigers opened the second half by cutting Alabama's lead to 10-6 on a Spence 42-yard field goal. The score was set up by Kendall Joseph causing a fumble on the Alabama 20-yard line on the Tide's first play of the half. A few drives later, Alabama's Da'Ron Payne intercepted a Bryant pass and returned it 21 yards, paving the way for Hurts to find Payne for a one-yard touchdown. Alabama found the end zone again immediately, as Mack Wilson intercepted Bryant's first pass on the next Clemson drive and returned it 18 yards for a score with just over five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

After the pick-six, the Tide took a 24-6 lead into the final 15 minutes, and that proved to be the final score after both defenses kept both offenses at bay.

The two teams combined for just 449 yards of total offense, the fewest in a Sugar Bowl since 1969.

No. 2 Clemson advanced to its third College Football Playoff National Championship Game in four years by defeating No. 3 Notre Dame 30-3 in the Cotton Bowl at AT&T Stadium.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, completed 27-39 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns, including 19-26 for 264 yards and a pair of touchdown passes to Justyn Ross in the first half alone. Travis Etienne ran for 109 yards on 14 carries, including a 62-yard touchdown run that pushed him past Wayne Gallman's 2015 school mark for the most rushing yards in a single season. Austin Bryant added two sacks and six total tackles en route to Most Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

Both defenses proved stout in the first quarter, as the team's traded field goals by Clemson's Greg Huegel and Notre Dame's Justin Yoon. Yoon's field goal proved to be the only scoring Clemson allowed all game.

The Tigers first found the end zone on a 52-yard scoring connection from Lawrence to Ross that put Clemson at a 9-3 advantage. Ross also hauled in a 42-yard pass from Lawrence for his second touchdown of the day 11 minutes later. Tee Higgins then sealed the quarter with an acrobatic, juggling 19-yard touchdown reception that gave Clemson a 23-3 lead with two seconds remaining in the half. The first score of the third quarter, which would ultimately be the final score of the game, came with two minutes remaining in the quarter, when Etienne broke away for the 62-yard touchdown rush that was set up by a Nolan Turner interception three plays earlier. A scoreless fourth quarter left the final score at 30-3. It was the fewest points in a bowl game in Notre Dame history.

No. 2 Clemson defeated No. 1 Alabama in resounding fashion, 44-16, en route to winning the College Football Playoff National Championship. With the win, Clemson finished the season with a perfect 15-0 record, making the 2018 Tiger squad the first major college football team in the modern era to go 15-0.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-32 pass attempts for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Justyn Ross amassed 153 yards and a score on six catches. Travis Etienne also scored three total touchdowns, including two on the ground.

Clemson took an early lead when A.J. Terrell intercepted a Tua Tagovailoa pass and returned it 44 yards for a score. The team's would post 27 points in the opening seven minutes as Clemson led 14-13 after one quarter.

The Tide opened the second quarter with a 25-yard field goal to take their only lead of the game at 16-14, but that proved to be all the Alabama scoring that the Clemson defense allowed. In the third quarter, the Clemson defense stuffed a fake field goal attempt and forced an Alabama turnover on downs. The Tiger offense, in turn, posted 13 third-quarter points via a 74-yard scoring connection from Lawrence to Ross and a five-yard touchdown reception by Tee Higgins, with the latter set up by a pair of acrobatic catches by Ross.

Clemson held the ball for the final 10:04 of the game, the longest drive in terms of time in Tiger history.

Clemson overcame a 16-point deficit and recorded the fifth-largest comeback in school history when the No. 3 Tigers defeated No. 2 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff semifinal at the Fiesta Bowl.

In the first matchup of 13-0 teams in CFP history, Ohio State ran out to a 16-0 first-half lead, but Clemson minimized the damage by holding the Buckeyes to field goals on all three red-zone trips. Three Blake Haubeil field goals and a 68-yard run by J.K. Dobbins provided the 16-point margin with 7:20 remaining in the second quarter.

The game turned on a targeting penalty on Ohio State's Shaun Wade that negated a third-down stop to extend a Clemson drive. The Tigers scored on the drive on an eight-yard touchdown run by Travis Etienne, and Trevor Lawrence cut the halftime score to 16-14 with a career-long 67-yard scoring run on the following drive.

Clemson took its first lead on a 53-yard receiving touchdown by Etienne in the third quarter. The Buckeyes reclaimed the lead on a 23-yard touchdown pass to Chris Olave on fourth down in the fourth quarter.

Trailing 23-21, Clemson took the ball at its own six, and Lawrence guided the Tigers 94 yards in four plays for a go-ahead touchdown pass to Etienne with 1:49 remaining in the game. Ohio State drove to the Clemson 23, but Clemson's second interception of the game, a pick by Nolan Turner, sealed the victory to send the Tigers to the national championship game.

With the victory, Clemson improved to 4-0 all-time against Ohio State.

No. 3 Clemson lost its first game in more than two years, falling to No. 1 LSU 42-25 in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Clemson's seniors closed their careers with a 55-4 record, tying the FBS record held by the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors.

The loss snapped Clemson's 29-game winning streak, tied for the longest in ACC history and tied for the 12th longest in FBS history.

In the contest, Travis Etienne became Clemson's all-time leading rusher, passing Raymond Priester's former of 3,966 yards.

Clemson struck first, with Trevor Lawrence finding the end zone on the ground. After a LSU scoring strike, B.T. Potter put Clemson back on top with a career-long 52-yard field goal, which also marked the longest field goal in CFP Championship Game history.

After a stop, Tee Higgins took his first career carry, a reverse, 36 yards for a touchdown. On that drive, Clemson went 96 yards in just four plays to take a 17-7 lead. From there, LSU closed the first half scoring three touchdowns in the final 9:17, including a 95-yard drive that gave the SEC Tigers a 28-17 lead at halftime.

an Amari Rodgers two-point conversion to climb back in it at 28-25.

However, LSU scored two unanswered touchdowns to take a 42-25 lead with 12:08 to play in the contest, a lead it would hold for the remainder of the game.

Clemson made a statement out of half-time, sacking Joe Burrow on third down to end the first drive, and then Clemson drove 50 yards on six plays, punctuated with an Etienne rushing score and Cornerback Mario Goodrich forced a key fumble on fourth down with 33 seconds to play as No. 19/22 Clemson withstood a late rally to claim the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, 20-13, over Iowa State (7-6) at Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Fla.

Holding a 20-13 with less than two minutes to play, Clemson leaned on its defense to come up with a stop. Iowa State quarterback Brock Purdy scrambled to convert on a 4th-and-2 with 40 seconds to play when Goodrich poked the ball loose, sending it back behind the line to gain. Purdy recovered short of the first down, and Clemson took over in victory formation.

Goodrich, who was named the game's most valuable player, also added an interception return for a touchdown late in the third quarter, which gave Clemson its final points. The Tigers held Iowa State to 270 total yards, 66 on the ground, and just 112 total on 35 plays in the second half.

Clemson took the opening kickoff and scored on its first drive, which went a season-long 8:08 on 15 plays and 69 yards. B.T. Potter drilled his 20th field goal of the season, a 23-yarder to give the Tigers a 3-0 edge, as Clemson ran 11 times during the drive.

After trading scoreless drives, the Cyclones tied the game at 3-3 with a 22-yard field goal.

son (12) and career (26) school records for field goals of 40-plus yards.

Running back Will Shipley took a delayed handoff through the right side untouched from 12 yards out with 4:54 to play in the third quarter, putting an exclamation point on Clemson's 16-play, 79-yard drive, which ate up 7:39 of game clock. Clemson gained six first downs during the drive.

Just 53 seconds later, Justin Mascoll batted a pass from Brock Purdy up in the air, before Purdy hit the deflected ball to Mario Goodrich, who took it back 18 yards across the field for a touchdown, giving Clemson a 20-3 lead with 4:01 to play in the third quarter.

After a three-and-out, Iowa State drove deep into Clemson territory. Purdy hit Charlie Kolar for a six-yard score in the back of the end zone with 9:42 to play to pull the Cyclones within seven at 20-13. The Tigers came up empty on their next drive but pinned the Cyclones inside their own five yard line with just over six minutes to play, but K.J. Henry came up with a sack on 3rd-and-14 to give Clemson the ball back.

After going three-and-out, Clemson again leaned on its defense to come up with a stop. Goodrich's forced fumble halted Iowa State's late run.

After a field goal miss from the Cyclones, Clemson took the next drive 41 yards before it stalled out, and Potter connected from 51 yards with 4:07 to play in the half. He also added to his single-sea-

Clemson fell to No. 6 Tennessee 31-14 at the Orange Bowl at Hard Rock Stadium. The Tigers ran 101 plays, the second-highest total in school history, and produced 34 first downs.

Cade Klubnik completed 30-54 passes for 320 yards and rushed 20 times for 51 yards and a touchdown in his first career start. On defense, Clemson forced five Tennessee three-and-outs, registered four sacks and had eight tackles for loss. The Tigers also forced the Volunteers to punt a season-high eight times.

The Volunteers opened the scoring on their second drive on Joe Milton's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bru McCoy. Each of Clemson's first eight drives advanced into Tennessee territory, but the Tigers were unable to convert any of the possessions into touchdowns. Clemson missed three field goals and were not able to convert a fake field goal, which allowed Tennessee to take a 14-0 Volunteer lead on a two-yard touchdown run with 9:03 left in the second quarter.

B.T. Potter converted a 31-yard field goal at the conclusion of a 10-play, 46-yard drive, as Clemson trailed 14-3 at the end of the first half despite outgaining the Volunteers 273-19. Potter added three points on the scoreboard with a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter, his 73rd career field goal to break the Clemson record held previously by Nelson Welch.

The Volunteers increased their lead to 21-6 with five seconds remaining in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Klubnik rushed four yards for a touchdown and Will Shipley added a two-point conversion to cut the lead to 21-14. But Tennessee responded with a 46-yard touchdown from Milton to Ramel Keyton pass to take a 28-14 advantage. A late Tennessee field goal brought the final score to 31-14.

Phil Mafah ran for a Gator Bowl-record four touchdowns, including three in the fourth quarter to earn game MVP honors, as Clemson came back from an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit for a 38-35 win over Kentucky at EverBank Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla.

Clemson trailed 21-10 entering the fourth quarter and exploded for a school-record-tying 28 fourth-quarter points and the defense forced four turnovers in the final frame to lead the Tigers to a fifth Gator Bowl win.

The Tigers tallied 367 yards of offense, including 264 through the air and 103 on the ground. Mafah scored touchdowns on four of his 11 carries, finishing with 71 yards. Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-41 passes, including going 8-for-8 on the game-winning drive that ended with Mafah's fourth score with 17 seconds remaining. The game featured five lead changes in the game's final 6:45.

The Wildcats opened the second half with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Barion Brown, extending the score to 21-10.

Clemson drove 70 yards on 14 plays as Mafah found his way into the end zone for a second time from a yard out. The drive covered 6:43, and Mafah's score came on the first play of the fourth quarter. Klubnik's two-point pass attempt was knocked down at the goal line, leaving Clemson a 21-16 deficit.

Clemson's defense then continued to build momentum as Justin Mascoll recovered a loose ball after an Xavier Thomas sack forced Devin Leary to fumble.

Barrett Carter later batted Leary's pass up to himself and caught the ball for the interception. After driving 26 yards down the field, Jonathan Weitz made a 28-yard field goal to draw the Tigers to within two at 21-19.

On Kentucky's next offensive play, Khalil Barnes knocked the ball out of Barion Brown's hands and once again Carter was there to recover the loose ball. Clemson capitalized immediately with Mafah running 29 yards for the touchdown.

Just 33 seconds later, Leary found Brown for a 60-yard touchdown pass to return the advantage to Kentucky. The Wildcats' lead would not last long, as Weitz kicked a dramatic career-long and Gator-Bowl-record 52-yard field goal that bounced off the crossbar and through the uprights to give Clemson a 30-28 lead.

Kentucky then produced another quick touchdown drive, but Clemson got the ball back with 1:41 left. A five-yard run from Mafah kept the drive alive on a crucial 4th & 2. Two plays later, Klubnik found Briningstool for 15 yards and then Mafah finished the job with a three-yard touchdown run to give Clemson the lead.

Shelton Lewis sealed the win with an interception with nine seconds left. It represented Clemson's first time recording four takeaways in a quarter since 2000.

Clemson cut a 21-point deficit to a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, but Texas held off two potential scoring drives late to hold on for a 38-24 win in the College Football Playoff First Round.

The Tigers had two fourth-quarter drives stall as they made a bid to cut into the Longhorn lead, including a fourth-down stop on the one-yard line. Texas ran 48 times for 292 yards and four touchdowns, averaging 6.1 yards per carry, including a 77-yard touchdown run two plays after the Tigers cut the lead to 31-24 in the fourth quarter.

Cade Klubnik, playing in his hometown, passed for 336 yards and three touchdowns, while T.J. Moore had career highs of nine receptions and 116 yards and added a touchdown. Sammy Brown led Clemson with 12 tackles.

Clemson got out to a 7-0 on its opening possession, capping a 12-play, 75-yard drive with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to Antonio Williams. But Texas responded with touchdown runs on each of its first three drives and added a 19-yard Quinn Ewers touchdown pass in the final minute of the half to carry a 28-10 lead into halftime.

After a Texas field goal midway through the third quarter, Clemson touchdowns by Jarvis Green and Moore late in the third quarter and early in the fourth quarter, respectively, trimmed the Texas advantage to 31-24. However, Clemson surrendered a 77-yard touchdown run on the second play of Texas' ensuing possession, and two Clemson turnovers on downs, including one at the Texas one, secured the victory for Texas.

Clemson concluded its campaign with a 22-10 loss to Penn State in the Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. The teams were locked in a 6-3 contest until the fourth quarter, when the Nittany Lions pulled away with back-to-back 75-yard touchdown drives to snap Clemson's four-game winning streak.

Sammy Brown finished with 14 tackles to lead Clemson defensively as the Tigers finished with six tackles for loss and five pass breakups.

Following a miscommunicated fake punt by Clemson to open the game, Penn State started on the Tigers' 32-yard line and took a 3-0 lead after Clemson held Penn State. In the second quarter, Clemson tied the score on a 48-yard field goal by Nolan Hauser to tie the game 3-3 with 56 seconds left in the first half. Penn State drove 42 yards in 10 plays on its ensuing drive and kicked a 48-yard field goal as time expired in the half to take a 6-3 lead into halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Penn State made a 48-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to extend its lead to 9-3. Penn State held Clemson to a three-and-out, then it scored a 73-yard touchdown a few plays later to make the score 15-3 with 12:51 left.

Clemson covered 65 yards on a 10-play drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by Adam Randall, cutting the score to 15-10. Just under the five-minute mark, Penn State threw an 11-yard touchdown, resulting in the eventual final score of 22-10.

The weather at kickoff was 28 degrees with light snow flurries, marking the second-coldest game in Clemson history. Cade Klubnik broke Tajh Boyd's Tiger record for career completions and became the fourth Tiger in history to reach 10,000 career passing yards.

HEROES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA SERIES

1928

Injured All-American O.K. Pressley came off the bench in the second half to record a tackle for loss on four straight plays to thwart a drive deep in Tiger territory. It is still the only time in history a Tiger has made a tackle for loss on four straight plays. Clemson went on to a 32-0 win in Columbia.

1948

With 4:30 left in the game and South Carolina on its own 28, Phil Prince broke through to block a punt. The ball rolled to the 11, where Oscar Thompson scooped it up and ran for a score, giving Clemson a 13-7 lead (the eventual final score). Clemson went on to an undefeated year.

1959

Harvey White made the last Big Thursday game a success story for the Tigers. He connected on 8-10 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns, leading Clemson to a 27-0 win. His passing efficiency of 282.1 for that game is still second-best in Clemson history (minimum of 10 attempts).

1966

All-America offensive guard Harry Olszewski ran 12 yards for a touchdown after a fumbled snap from center to lead Clemson to a 35-10 win that clinched the ACC title. No Clemson offensive lineman has scored a touchdown since.

1967

Clemson clinched a third-straight ACC title behind ACC Player-of-the-Year Buddy Gore. The running back gained 189 yards on 31 carries, still the second-most rushing yards by a Tiger against the Gamecocks. The performance allowed him to go over the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a first in school history, and to win the ACC rushing title.

1974

Two Tigers, one on each side of the ball, had memorable performances in this Clemson victory. Running back Ken Callicutt rushed for 197 yards on 27 carries and added another 55 receiving yards, leading Clemson to a 39-21 win. The 197 rushing yards and 252 all-purpose yards are still high-water marks for a Tiger in the series. Willie Anderson dominated on defense, recording 21 tackles, still a Tiger record for a lineman. He was named national defensive player-of-the-week by Sports Illustrated.

1977

Jerry Butler made a diving reception of a 20-yard pass from Steve Fuller with 49 seconds remaining, giving the Tigers a 31-27 victory in Columbia. The play might be regarded as the most famous in Clemson history. The victory gave the Tigers an 8-2-1 record and a bid to the Gator Bowl, Clemson's first bowl appearance in 18 years.

1980

Defensive back Willie Underwood played 47 games for the Tigers, but he never had an interception until his final contest. He made up for it in his last game when he had two thefts for a combined 101 return yards. His 37-yard interception return for a touchdown iced Clemson's 27-6 win. It is still the most interception return yards in a game by a Tiger. He also had 17 tackles and was named national defensive player-of-the-week by Sports Illustrated.

1981

For the second time in history, a blocked punt proved pivotal in the Tigers securing a perfect season. The key play in Clemson's 29-13 win in Columbia was a blocked punt by Rod McSwain. The ball was recovered in the end zone by Johnny Rembert, giving Clemson a 7-6 lead. The play began at the 28, just as the play in 1948 had. The two went on to be teammates for many years with the New England Patriots. McSwain's brother, Chuck, had 151 rushing yards to lead the Clemson offense.

1988

Rodney Williams, playing in his final home game, led the Tigers to a 29-10 win in Memorial Stadium, avenging a 20-7 setback the year before in which the Columbia native was taunted by the Gamecock faithful. He completed 13-26 passes for 192 yards and rushed for 38 yards along with a touchdown, outplaying rival Todd Ellis, who completed 11-30 passes. It was his 31st victory as Clemson's starting signal-caller.

1991

DeChane Cameron had the top all-around performance of his career in a 41-24 win at South Carolina. The senior, playing in his final regular-season game, rushed for 116 yards and passed for 206 yards. The 322 yards of total offense is a series record by a Tiger.

1995

Fullback Emory Smith rushed for 101 yards on 12 carries, leading Clemson to a 38-17 win and a berth in the Gator Bowl. He will be remembered for one particular run in the fourth quarter when he dragged a South Carolina defender for nearly 10 yards at the end of a 54-yard run. He scored two touchdowns on the day.

1997

Antwan Edwards had two interceptions in the third quarter alone, including one for a 42-yard touchdown, leading Clemson to a 47-21 win and a berth in the Peach Bowl. His thefts led to a 27-point third quarter, Clemson's highest-scoring quarter in history against the Gamecocks. He was named ACC Defensive Back-of-the-Week for his performance.

1998

Howard Bartley will always be remembered for a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in his final game as a Tiger. It was a key second-half play in Clemson's 28-19 win, but especially rewarding for Bartley, who had overcome two torn ACL injuries in his five-year career.

1999 & 2000

Rod Gardner will always be held in high esteem by Tiger fans for his accomplishments against South Carolina. In 1999, he had six catches for 138 yards and two scores, including a 29-yard catch from Woodrow Dantzler on a fourth-down play with just 6:41 remaining in the game. The following year at Clemson, he had four catches for 107 yards, including a 50-yard grab from Dantzler that set up Aaron Hunt's game-winning field goal with three seconds remaining, as Clemson was victorious by a score of 16-14.

Charlie Whitehurst might be regarded as the ultimate hero of the series from a Tiger standpoint. He led the Tigers to four wins, the first and only starting quarterback in the series to do it. In his first two games against the Gamecocks, he had record-setting performances. He completed 27-38 passes for 287 yards in Clemson's 27-20 win in 2002. The completion total was the most-ever by a Tiger against South Carolina. In 2003, he completed 18-26 passes for 302 yards and four touchdowns to go with 43 rushing yards. He established a record for passing yards, passing touchdowns and total offensive yards by a Tiger against the Gamecocks. In 2004, he quarterbacked the Tigers to their third consecutive win over the Gamecocks by a score of 29-7. He finished off his regular-season career with a 13-9 win at South Carolina in 2005. For his career, he completed 77-118 passes for 912 yards against the Gamecocks. He also completed 65.4 percent of his passes.

Clemson had many heroes in its 2007 win in Columbia. The most obvious was the 35-yard field goal by Mark Buchholz on the game's final play, a kick that gave the Tigers a 23-21 win. Many times in the series, a Tiger senior has had a landmark accomplishment that has had a big impact on the outcome. La'Donte Harris provided that in 2007 when he picked up a punt that was blocked by fellow wideout Nelson Faerber and raced 10 yards for a touchdown, giving Clemson a 10-0 lead. That was Clemson's first blocked punt for a score against the Gamecocks since 1981. Later in the game, it was Harris who blocked a punt, so he was involved in two blocked punts. Clemson's game-winning drive was the result of outstanding passing from Cullen Harper to Aaron Kelly. The two connected four times for 70 yards on the drive that led to the game-winning kick.

2014-21

Clemson snapped a five-game losing skid to the Gamecocks with a seven-game winning streak, starting with an emphatic 35-17 win in front of a crowd of 85,024 fans in Memorial Stadium in 2014. One of the biggest reasons why was the play of freshman quarterback Deshaun Watson. Playing with a torn ACL, Watson completed 14-19 passes for 269 yards and accounted for four touchdowns overall, two through the air and two with his feet.

Watson's feet provided three more touchdowns in a 37-32 win in Columbia in 2015. He rushed for 114 yards and threw for 279 more with a touchdown.

The signal-caller made it 3-for-3 with a 56-7 win over the Gamecocks in Memorial Stadium in 2016. It marked the largest margin of victory in history by an ACC team over an SEC team.

In 2017 in Columbia, the Tigers made it four wins in a row with a 34-10 victory in Columbia. In 2018, Clemson secured its first five-game winning streak in the series since winning seven games in a row from 1934-40 with a 56-35 victory over the Gamecocks at Memorial Stadium. The Tigers totaled 744 yards in the 21-point win, including 393 passing yards by freshman Trevor Lawrence and 150 rushing yards by Travis Etienne. Clemson made it six wins in a row with a 38-3 win in Columbia in 2019.

Clemson made it seven wins in a row with a convincing 30-0 victory in Columbia in 2021. The Tigers held South Carolina to 206 total yards in their first shutout in the series since 1989. Andrew Booth Jr. had two interceptions in Brent Venables' last game as defensive coordinator at Clemson.

Clemson pulled Jonathan Weitz out of retirement in late September, and the graduate student turned financial analyst turned starting placekicker cemented his unique legacy, as the Charleston native accounted for the difference in Clemson's 16-7 road win. He earned ACC Special Teams Player-of-the-Week honors making all three field goals, and all three (50, 49, 42) exceeded his previous career long of 41 yards and tied the school record for field goals of 40+ yards in a game.
